

REMARKABLE INTRODUCTORY OFFER

For This Visit Only

$5 EYE GLASSES AT $1 A PAIR

For This Visit Only

The Duplex Optical Company of Philadelphia wishes to announce that their specialist and his assistants will be at the Colonial Hotel, Meyersdale on November 26, 27 and 28 and every 90 days thereafter.

OUR OBJECT in making this remarkable offer of $5 glasses at $1 a pair is simply to introduce these famous Duplex Lenses. Duplex Lenses have met with great success by thousands of people who are now wearing them in all the leading cities of the United States, and are meeting with the same results wherever they are introduced.

Our new invisible bifocals will not confuse you.  You can see near and far with the same lens.

REMEMBER that the above offer of $5.00 eye glasses for $1.00 a pair is for this visit only. Regular prices will prevail after our first visit to Meyersdale.

OUR WORK IS GUARANTEED FOR FIVE YEARS.

Beware of all persons who call at your home and claim to be representing us, as we have no representatives but our specialists at the hotels as we advertise.

DUPLEX OPTICAL COMPANY.

Address All Communications to Our Main Office.

733 Sansom St. Phila., Pa.

OUR SPECIALIST and his assistants have had years of experience and you may rely on them absolutely. We will be pleased to examine all those who have eye trouble or wear glasses ABSOLUTELY FREE. We would suggest therefore that you call on them.

Duplex Lenses will positively relieve the following ailments:

Headaches, Cross Eyes, Itching Eyes, Astigmatism, Dizziness, Watery Eyes, Floating Spots before the Eyes.

Don't forget the Date
Thursday, Friday and Saturday
November, 26 - 27 - 28 at
COLONIAL HOTEL

Office Hours—8:30 A. M. to 8 P. M.
If your time is limited, come early and avoid the rush
RECEPTION ROOM: HOTEL PARLORS.

SALISBURY.
Rally Day was observed in St. John's church on Sunday November 22nd at 10:30 a. m. Special music and a special sermon. "Rally to the Faith" were features of the service. The Salisbury orchestra assisted in the musical part of the services. At 4:30 p. m. a Home Mission service was rendered by the congregation and Sunday school. The pastor, Ira S. Monn, delivered an appropriate address on "The Knowing Why and What of Home Missions and Their Work." A liberal collection was taken up after the services.

A chicken and waffle supper and enclure will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Derry, on Thanksgiving evening. The proceeds will be for the benefit of St. Michael's Catholic church.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Yaist, of Elk Lick township, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Engle, at dinner, on Saturday.

The members of St. John's Lutheran choir, were entertained at the home of Mrs. Savilla Boyer, Wednesday evening. A lunch consisting of oyster sandwiches, salad, pickles and coffee were served, and the evening was most pleasantly spent by those who were present. Mrs. M. A. Wagner, Mrs. R. A. Kidner, Mrs. R. N. Johnston, Mrs. E. E. Haselbarth, Misses Anna Haselbarth, Mima Harding, Elizabeth Reitz, Etta Miller, Charlotte Boyer, Messrs. Samuel Livengood, O. O. Saylor, E. E. Haselbarth, Wm. Reitz, Alfred Ringler and Jonas Lichty.

Rev. L. P. Young, spent last week in Bedford county.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stevanus and children were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Swanger on Sunday last.

The annual Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the local Methodist church at 10 a. m. Thanksgiving Day, November 26th. The sermon will be preached by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Morgan. Everybody is cordially invited.

Under the auspices of and for the benefit of the Men's Bible class of the St. John's Reformed church, local talent will on Friday evening November 27th, present in Hay's Opera House the western comedy drama entitled "The Golden Gulch". This production is a great hit in Meyersdale, Gettysburg and other places last year and it will undoubtedly be a drawing card at this place.

Wm. B. Tressler of Springs is drilling a well for Howard Meager.

Milton Koontz, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Koontz, who grew to boyhood in Salisbury, but is now a prominent barber of Braddock, was recently married to Miss Grace Leader, of Wilksburg. The young couple have gone to housekeeping at 408 Stokes avenue, North Braddock.

About twenty-five friends of Mrs. Robert Cochrane tendered her a surprise last Wednesday evening, November 18th, the day being her 52nd birthday. Ice cream, cake, coffee, tea and fruit were served.

Mrs. Ada Milton of Cumberland, Md., is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. J. Glatfely, who had the misfortune last week of breaking both bones in her wrist and otherwise receiving injuries by falling from a step ladder, while engaged in cleaning windows in her kitchen.

Samuel Baker, one of the most prominent farmers and stock raisers of Elk Lick township recently purchased the large farm, known as the "Old Livengood Farm" near Boynton, from George Shirey. Mr. Baker some time ago sold his beautiful farm near Niyerton to Wm. Hanney, our rural mail carrier and the other week sold his stock farm products and machinery at public sale. Mr. Shirey will have public sale on Friday November 27th. Your scribe has not learned when Baker will take possession of the newly acquired real estate.

Mrs. Archie Holler of Boynton lies ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. Flora Wellington, with typhoid fever.

Petry Bros., contractors and builders returned last week from Grantsville, where they remodelled the National Hotel, for C. A. Bender. They are now building a stable and ware house for Howard Meager and Co.

C. E. Dickey has purchased the Salisbury Meat Market from A. J. M. Glessner. Mr. Glessner will be in the employ of Mr. Dickey for a while.

Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Lichty left last Wednesday for a month's visit with relatives in the west. Among the places they will visit are Aurora, Mo., Wichita, Kansas, and Carleton, Nebraska.

More Gold Medal flour sold in the United States than any other brand made. $9.75 per bbl.
Habel & Phillips.

GARRETT.
The Musical Motion Pictures shown at the local opera house last week were greatly enjoyed by all present.

Rev. W. H. B. Carney spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Zach Walter.

Funeral services were held on Sunday for the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Romesburg. The child died several months ago from diphtheria.

The teachers of our public schools are attending institute at Somerset this week.

N. E. Beabes spent Sunday at Boynton. What's the attraction?

Paul Kisler, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Kisler, was taken suddenly ill on Sunday, but he is improving and his many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Herbert Devore spent Sunday at Confluence.

The Thanksgiving program rendered by the pupils of the public schools last Friday, was much enjoyed by all present.

Rev. W. H. B. Carney left on Monday for a week's visit at his home in Bellville, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Walker spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Walker's father, H. P. Walker.

Prof. and Mrs. H. B. Speicher motored to the home of the former's parents, near Somerset, on Sunday.

The second number of the Lyceum course at this place will be held on Monday December 7th, viz: The Olympia Ladies' Quartette, composed of four colored ladies of world-wide fame, and no one can afford to miss it as it is a rare treat for this community.

Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Miller, was taken to Conneville on Tuesday where his tonsils were removed, and is recovering nicely.

Wm. Baker is spending several days at Somerset.

William Brocht went to Cumberland last Thursday where he was operated on for appendicitis, but is recovering very rapidly, according to latest reports.

Miss Grace Hoos, who had been sick for some time, is able to be about again.

The annual bazaar of the Lutheran Ladies' Aid Society, will be held on Saturday evening, December 5th in the basement of the church.

J. D. Hoffer, formerly employed at Ralphton, has returned to his family in this place, where he has secured employment.

B. S. Rush has recently purchased the L. A. Beabes property, on Walker street.

Mrs. F. E. Carver left for a visit in Johnstown.

Three dozen Heinz's sweet pickles for 25 cents at Bittner's Grocery.

HOOVERVILLE.
Sam Gobbel was taken to the Mercy hospital at Johnstown by Dr. Gilder for an operation for appendicitis last Thursday.

Foster Naugle was taken to the Memorial hospital last Saturday morning for an injury of the hip joint caused by a fall.

Skating on the dam is the order of the day as well as hunting, killing of porkers and building of new homes.

Subscribe for the Commercial, and advertise your holiday goods, it gives news all the time in your immediate vicinity.

Pietro Pucci of Rockwood, is now ready to do business at his new store.

Dr. Lewis was a business visitor to Johnstown on Saturday.

A party of hunters returned recently from a week's trip along the Susquehanna. They bagged one deer, 33 squirrels, 12 rabbits and 16 pheasants.

Peter Cusi has opened a general mercantile store in a new building he erected here.

The Somerset Telephone company is making a number of improvements here putting in new poles and stringing new wires.

Howard Powell, who has been ill for about two months with the rheumatism, is improving.

Wm. Betts and family of Johnstown, have been visiting here with Mrs. Betts' people, the J. D. Powell family. Mr. Betts spent a few days hunting, bagging six pheasants, six rabbits and 11 squirrels.

Rev. J. K. Huey, the U. B. minister, has concluded his revival services at Jenners and opened a series at Otterbein.

New seeded raisins 10c per package also full line of supplies for your fruit cake and mince meat, at Habel & Phillips.

HOT SPRINGS BLOOD REMEDY.

This is the time of the year when you should take a good blood remedy. Take

Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy

and it will purify your blood.

F. B. THOMAS, Leading Druggist,

Both Phones

MEYERSDALE, PA.

SUE HIGGINS.

HOLSOPPLE.

Joy and grief were mixed in visits to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brallier, of this place, within the past few days. The stork brought a boy to the Brallier home and about the same time they heard of the death of Mr. Brallier's stepfather, S. H. Riley, and the death of Mrs. Brallier's father, Mr. Savage. Mr. Riley, a native of Bedford county died in the Western Maryland Hospital in Cumberland, from a fracture of the skull received in a railroad accident. Mr. Savage died of tuberculosis at the resson Sanatorium.

Donges Theatre
ONE WEEK
Commencing MONDAY, NOV. 30th.
The Sue Higgins Stock Co.
OPENING PLAY,
The Working Man

Two Shows Each Night.
Three Acts Each Play.
Three Reels Best Pictures.
HIGH CLASS VAUDEVILLE
BETWEEN ACTS.
Prices 10 and 15 Cents.
POSITIVELY THE BEST.

THE COMMERCIAL $1.25 PER YEAR

The subscription price of The Commercial has been reduced from $1.50 to $1.25 per year. This is the price of most of the papers of like kind in this part of the state, yet with the installation of our fine new linotype we promise to give a highly newsy paper and one that will be fully worth its price. Watch The Commercial improve and grow in circulation.