DEATH'S HARVEST.

JACOB LOWRY.

Jacob Lowry died at the home of his son, John Lowry, at Keystone Mines, November 21st, and was buried on Monday in Union cemetery, after services at the home of his son, conducted by Rev. Romesburg, of Garrett. Mr. Lowry was born February 10th, 1851, and was aged 63 years, 9 months and 11 days. His wife preceded him to the grave about 11 months ago. He was the father of 10 children, all of whom are living.

JACOB ZERFOSS.

Jacob Zerfoss, who until about six months ago spent his entire life at Rockwood, died here November 22nd, from paralysis. The funeral services were held at his home in this place Monday evening at 7 o'clock and the remains were taken to Rockwood on Tuesday morning by Undertaker Price. Interment was made at New Centreville. Mr. Zerfoss was a track foreman for the B. & O. railroad company for 36 years and was recently put on the pension list. He was a Veteran of the Civil War, having fought in Company F, 61st Regiment, Penna. Volunteers.

He was married twice. His first wife was Martha Jane Weyandt, who died January 17th, 1898. His second wife, who was Mrs. Matilda Custer, survives. He is also survived by several daughters and sons by his first wife.

Checks Croup Instantly.

You know croup is dangerous. And you ought to know too, the sense of security that comes from having Foley's Honey & Tar Compound in the house. It cuts the thick mucus and clears away the phlegm, stops the strangling cough and gives easy breathing and quiet sleep. Every user is a friend.

The new quarters of the Philson National Bank are about ready for occupancy and the formal opening is now being arranged.

Joseph Conwell who had been superintending the installation of the heating and ventilating plant in the new school building has left for Pittsburgh. The plant, one of the Columbus Heating and Ventilating Company's make, is complete in every detail, all dampers and regulators working automatically. The building should be completed by New Year's Day.

Throughout the County.

Archibald Miller, superintendent of the Loyalhanna Coal & Coke Company, has appealed from the decision of Justice of the Peace W. W. Knable of Somerset, who found him guilty of violating the fish laws by converting water from a mine at Cairnbrook into the Dark Shade Creek. The prosecution was instituted by Fish Warden R. O. McIntosh.

Karl Frederick Miller, aged fifty-four years, died recently, after an illness of four days, at his home in Pittsburgh. He was engaged in the brokerage business for twenty years, until two years ago, when he purchased a property at Unamis, this county. He was a graduate of West Point.

An unusual request has been made to the Public Service Commission by the Paint Township Water Company, that it be permitted to refund money to its customers because it was unable to furnish an adequate supply of water during the summer. The customers are required to pay in advance, and shortly after their quarterly payments were made a notice prohibiting the use of hose was issued.

The store of E. W. Ringler of Blough Station, about two miles below Hooversville, along the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, was robbed one night recently. Mr. Ringler said that he could see by footprints in the frost that the burglars evidently two of them, went toward Landstreet. He estimates his loss at $180 worth of clothing, food and shoes.

Coroner H. S. Kimmel recently held an inquest over the death of Gillio Passerini, an Italian, whose dead body was found on the ash dump of the Brothersvalley Coal Company, at Macdonaldton. The verdict of the jury was that the man came to his death as a result of stumbling and falling onto the ash dump, where he was overcome by the gaseous fumes and roasted to death. The man was badly burned about the face, chest, hands, and arms. The investigation revealed that Passerini had been put out of his boarding house Saturday, when he was paid. He was evicted, it is said, because of his conduct. He spent Monday night with a friend and was seen about 4 o'clock Tuesday morning on his way to his old boarding house. About 10 o'clock he was found lying in a wheelbarrow path on the ash dump. Passerini was about 28 years old and single.

COAL RUN.

(Held over from last week.)

Butchering is the order of the day and the squeal of the porker is heard all over the land. W. H. Beal and Sam Haus are the noted butchers of the township.

The Meager mines are running full time, while Joders, Hamilton and others places are running about two days a week.

George Robinson is nursing a healing in his head.

S. I. Gray is afflicted with the gout and is unable to be about.

George Primrose is contemplating a trip to England to take charge of the rebellious Boers. George is an old army officer.

The revival meeting started in the M. E. church is affecting the sinners in this vicinity. All church members who have supplied themselves with the pure apple juice would better bung up and pull for the shore, for a religious wave is going to sweep over Coal Run and the sinners will cry out for mercy and the socialists will have to take charge of all hard cider in Coal Run.

Miss Essie McCarty, after suffering several weeks with pneumonia is able to be out again, while Miss Gladys McCarty is suffering with rheumatism and is still bedfast. Gladys has been on the sick list since last May.

Samuel Engle is wearing a three cornered smile since the stork paid his home a visit.
