

Next door to the Republican Office.

I HAVE ON MEMORANDUM A NICE New Stock of the Latest Styles of Jewelry.

I get these goods from the different city wholesale houses
FOR THE HOLIDAYS ONLY

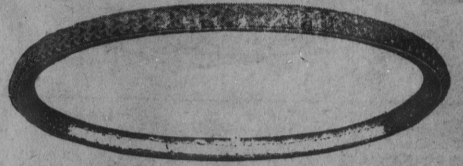

I Can Sell These Goods For Less Than If I Bought Them Outright.
Be sure to get my prices, I will make them to suit you.

T. W. GURLEY, The Jeweler.

OPPOSITE SLICER HOTEL.

ALL GOODS
NOT SOLD
CAN BE RE-TURNED.

ROCKWOOD.

Mrs. J. C. McSpadden, has returned home from Pittsburgh, where she visited her sister, Mrs. Ida Lichty, for a few days.

Hillary Coughenour has gone to Foustwell where he has accepted a position with the Grazer Coal Company.

Miss Ray Preston, of Morgantown, W. Va., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Snyder.

Mrs. H. W. Musser, and Mrs. J. D. Snyder, and Misses Alta Zufall and Emeline Snyder, went to Somerset to see "The Shepherd of the Hills."

Cloyd Farling, who had been visiting his grandparents, Veteran and Mrs. Henry Farling, returned Wednesday to his home in Bluffton, Ind.

Conductor and Mrs. R. R. Coleman and children have returned to their home in Somerset after visiting relatives here for a few days.

P. E. Weimer has returned home after being at Point Marion where he had charge of the B. & O. station during the absence of the regular agent.

Mrs. W. A. MacClelland, entertained the Anti-Cante Bible Class of the Reformed church at her home on Market street. After the popular program refreshments were served and the evening was spent in "corn popping". Those present were Rev. and Mrs. W. A. McClelland, Mrs. Myra Wisers, and Misses Lucy and Ruth Critchfield, Clara Coleman, Mand Harrod, Bessie Moore, Florence A. ... Joanna Shultz, Manie ... Irene Critchfield, Mary Otto and Ella Phillipi.

Miss Annie Sterner, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Jackson Sterner, of South Rockwood, and Albert A. Nicholson, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholson, of Markleton, were married November 23rd by Rev. O. G. Fye, pastor of the U. B. church, at the home of the latter's brother-in-law, and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Conlter G. Parks. Mr. Nicholson is a B. & O. brakeman. They are both well known and have the best wishes of their many friends.

W. M. Taylor, who had charge of the paving work at Johnstown under the contract let to James McSpadden of Rockwood has returned to Rockwood for the winter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. F. Hechler, a 11 pound baby boy.

H. T. Camden, left Friday morning for Glasgow, W. Va., where he will spend two weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Anstin Yutzky of Milford township is spending several weeks with relatives in West Virginia.

The Cook's Mills Clay and Coal Co., recently purchased a three-fourth interest in a 1,300 acres tract of mineral land known as the Emerick and Troutman farms from the Manufacturers' and Traders' National bank of Buffalo. The deal includes the stone, iron, coal and Clay and other minerals found therein.

About sixty friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Nicholson gave a wedding shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Parks Friday evening. The guests took with them many handsome presents for the newly married couple. The evening was spent in parlor games and refreshments were served.

Miss Grace McClelland, assistant principal of the Berlin schools, was brought home on Friday very ill with the grip.

Miss Edna Adams of Somerset is the guest of Miss Florence Dull.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Malsberry have gone to Pittsburgh, where they will visit for several days.

Miss Bertha Reitz has returned home from a visit with relatives in Johnstown.

CONFLUENCE.

Joe. Turner has moved his business from the A. L. Bend stables near the B. & O. station to the Riverside stable.

Mrs. Wm. Burnworth is improving from a recent illness.

Mrs. Scott Franks, of Dunbar, is visiting her brother, W. H. Coughenour who is ill.

Harry Brown, Western Maryland operator at Connellsville is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brown.

A surprise party was given Miss Grace Lininger at the home of her aunt, Mrs. G. R. McDonald, by a number of her young friends.

G. R. McDonald was among those who attended the funeral of W. S. Schenck in Connellsville.

Jesse Walker left for New York where he will take a position with the McClintic-Marshall Company.

W. H. Coughenour who had been ill for several months, and who lately returned home from the John Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, is in a serious condition.

John Colflesh was here Sunday on his return from visiting his son Roy in the Cottage State Hospital, at Connellsville and reports him getting along nicely.

Miss Helen Forney and brother William have returned from a visit with friends in Morgantown.

John Hawke of Rockwood visited his family here Sunday.

Mrs. C. Shipley and baby of Cumberland are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Forney, near town.

Mrs. Lloyd Kartz and children have returned from a visit with friends in Johnstown.

Santa Klaus is establishing himself at the Globe Electric and Novelty Store.

Lowest prices, on Bran, Middling, Dairy Feed, Grain, etc., at Habel & Phillips.

Best For Kidneys —Says Doctor.

Dr. J. T. R. Neal, Greenville, So. Car., says that in his 30 years of experience he has found no preparation for the kidneys equal to Foley Kidney Pills. In 50c and $1.00 sizes. Best you can buy for backache, rheumatism, kidney and bladder ailments. Sold by all Dealers Everywhere. ad

VIM.

Chas. and Frank Wellem came home from near Frederick, Md., last Thursday.

Fremont Eike and W. W. Nicholson spent last Friday at the home of P. W. White's in Larimer township.

Mr. Wm. Seggie, who has been sick for sometime was taken to Cumberland, Md. to the hospital last Sunday.

Mrs. Jacob Hohl of West Salisbury, spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Wilson Ringler.

Mrs. Wm. Ray and daughter of Meyersdale, spent Sunday at the home of Lawrence Gisbert.

Adam Seigner and family moved near Hyndman last Wednesday, where Mr. Seigner has secured employment on a saw mill.

John Bangard spent Sunday and Monday in Meyersdale.

There are two houses vacant in our town which are convenient to the mines.

Have you tried Dr. Hess' Stock Tonic, his Poultry Pan-a-ee-a, and his Instant Louse Killer, every package guaranteed to do as represented or your money refunded by Holzshu & Weimer.

BERKLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Niemiller are busily engaged getting their household goods into place and will soon be ready for housekeeping.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Shultz attended church in Meyersdale on Sunday.

Mrs. George Fritz and Mrs. Edison Fogle and Miss Margaret Shultz spent Sunday afternoon at the home of W. R. Ebaugh.

George Fritz and Edison Fogle attended the funeral of Mr. H. G. Will on Sunday afternoon.

The rain, snow and sleet, which we have been having for over a week, seem to be helping the water some.

Sellers & Son are now prepared to do better and quicker chopping, as they have installed a new chopper.

The Sunday school is moving along nicely; they practice singing on Sunday after Sunday school. The Sunday school will render its Xmas service on Saturday evening Dec. 26.

Ten pound sack Pure Buckwheat Flour for 35c., also Pure Maple Syrup at Holzshu & Weimer.

Stanten's Buckwheat Flour is the best on the market and more sold than any other brands, at Habel & Phillips.

GLENCOE.

The invalids of our town are convalescing nicely.

Mr. Calvin Poorbaugh, and son Charles are visiting relatives in Johnstown. The latter is employed in railroad business in Montana.

Mrs. J. L. Snyder, and daughter Mabel spent Saturday on a business mission at Berlin.

Mrs. W. H. Miller, and son Wilbur were at Cumberland, on Wednesday to consult Dr. Koon, as to the latter's health.

Howard Bittner, son of B. F. Bittner, left for Akron, Ohio, on Friday. He will spend the winter with his grandparents.

Kindly keep in mind and tell your friends about the Xmas Cantata to be given in the Glencoe Reformed church on Christmas Eve, December 24th.

Dr. J. H. Spicer, of Cumberland, Md., spent the week-end with a special friend in Glencoe.

Our Hazelwood friend, Chas. Love, was welcomed to our town on Saturday. Nothing like seeing our Burg under all atmospheric conditions. Come again Chas.

Alfred Bittner, after assisting his brothers and mother in butchering, returned to Berlin to resume his duties as assistant electrician.

James Snyder spent Sunday with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bodeniser and son returned to Wilkingsburg, after spending Turkey Day and its accompanying days at the home of W. J. Meyers.

A hunting quartet—Messrs. A. Bittner, Allen Bittner, Bob Webreck and Ben Leydig spent Saturday searing game. They failed to become enthused in this avocation till the law prohibited their shooting anything but "dears" and business.

Miss Florence Deist is at present a liver in our town especially looking after the welfare of our recent arrival Miss Henrietta Clarissa Bittner.

Miss Elizabeth Leydig took a trip to Cumberland on Saturday.

Nelson Bittner gave a Meyersdale dentist a try at his teeth on Saturday. He has a swollen face as a result.

Jubal Werner tucked his suit case under his arm on Friday and plucked his way to Brushcreek.

2 lb. Brazil nuts for 25c., at Habel & Phillips.

A winner—Consider yourself and everyone most cordially invited to an oyster supper to be given in Glencoe hall, Saturday December 19th; proceeds to be given to the Reformed church. Other "eats" will be served to oyster dislikers.

School teachers and Sunday schools will find the best selection and lowest prices on candies, nuts, etc., for treats, at Habel & Phillips.

Hauling and draying given prompt attention. H. S. Thomas.

GARRETT.

More snow and wet weather.

Our merchants are displaying their holiday goods, of which they have a nice line.

Mrs. Donald Craig, who is confined with rheumatism, is slowly improving.

N. E. Beaber spent over Sunday at his home near Somerset.

The Olympia Quartette entertained a large audience in the local opera house on Monday evening in a most pleasing manner.

The semi-annual bazaar of the Lutheran church will be held in the church basement on Saturday evening December 19th.

The hunters from this section have been making good use of the recent snow.

Milton Shoemaker, who had been on the sick list, is again able to be out.

The "Quilting Bee" held at the home of Mrs. George Simpson on Wednesday, was well attended, and those present report an enjoyable time.

The Quarterly Union Sunday school convention held in the Lutheran church last Sunday afternoon and evening, was well attended, and many able addresses were delivered. Among the speakers were Hon. W. H. Ruppel and B. W. Lambing, both of Somerset.

U. S. Werner of Rockwood, was a business visitor here last Friday.

Wm. Claycomb of Johnstown, spent Thursday afternoon in Garrett.

Our town could be greatly improved by the addition of street lights.

The bazaar of the Reformed church will be held on Saturday evening December 12.

As rare as a day in June—an automobile on our streets.

The passenger train on the Berlin branch arrived here at a late hour on Tuesday evening, owing to a break down of the engine.

They tell me the Quaker Show is drawing some crowds here in Gurley's Picture House. The best point is, it is free.

WELLERSBURG.

H. E. Baker is spending a few days in Somerset this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Suder and son Grant of Meyersdale, are spending a few days with Mrs. Suder's sister, Mrs. G. A. Tressler.

Frank Delbrook of Mt. Savage, was calling on relatives here on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder of Mt. Savage, spent Saturday and Sunday with the former's aunt, Mrs. George Fechtig.

Miss Estella Paul was a visitor in Cumberland, Saturday.

Jim Lalley of Cumberland, was a business caller in town, Monday.

Everybody has heard of the good Quaker show that is going on in Meyersdale at Gurley's Picture House, free to all.

In making your rounds in buying put first on the list the Globe Electric and Novelty Store.

Does your Suit need Cleaning?

Bring it to us and get a good job. Work called for and delivered to any part of town. All work guaranteed A1 in Every Respect. Work executed with Greatest Care by skilled Employees.

Big selection of women's goods, 600 kinds from which to make your choice. See what bargains you can get for your money.

The Tri-State Ladies' & Gents' Tailoring Parlors,
122 Centre St., Meyersdale, Pa
Next Habel and Phillips' Store.

Any man you're buying Christmas gifts for, will like the things you'll find here

The real problem in Christmas gifts for a man is to find the thing that the man really wants most; and next to that, to find what you can afford to give. It doesn't make so much difference to the man how much the gift costs; it does make a difference what it is in its relation to his desires.

You can spend 50 cents here and get something he wants; at 75 cents and $1, a great variety of useful and beautiful things at $1.50, $2, $2.50, $3, $5, $10, countless useful and desirable articles of wear or utility that any man will be glad to have. Make this store your Christmas shopping headquarters for men.

HARTLEY & BALDWIN,
The Home of Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes
MEYERSDALE, PA.

X-MAS STATIONERY

Symphony Lawn

Stylish, of best quality, exquisite in finish and goodness. You buy right when you buy Symphony Lawn.

Correspondence Cards 40c and 50c
Box Paper 50c and up
Gilt Edge 60 cents
Fancy Boxes up to $4.00

Special Stationery
in Holiday Boxes, 24 sheets, 24 envelopes, 25c value, 19c.

X-MAS CARDS and BOOKLETS

Beautiful Cards that fittingly convey your sentiments,
1c up to 25c.
Stickers, Tags, Cards, Tissue Paper 5c a Pkg.

COLLINS' DRUG STORE

THE REXALL STORE
Hartley Block Meyersdale, Pa.

Wheat and Rye Wanted.

I desire to buy a quantity of wheat and rye. Will pay $1.05 for wheat and $1.00 rye.

BUHL & GATESMAN
Meyersdale, Pa.

The Quaker Show, that has been in our surrounding towns, are with us in Meyersdale. They give a refined vaudeville entertainment and come highly recommended. The enormous crowds speaks for the show.

Gurley's Picture House, free to all.

ad