VETERANS OF G. A. R. HAVE

DS

d deilled

ors,

man

od-

50c up

.00

Kg.

a.

ed.

wheat

wheat

Pa.

The Grand Army Post of Meyers dale has had many removals from one place to another on account of increased rent, which they were unable to pry, or because of changing the hall for other purposes, has finally located in the hall of the Municipal building, over the carriage room of the fire department, on Clay and Grant streets. The Post will occupy this hall jointly with the fire depart-

At a meeting of the Post on last Thursday a committee was appointed to see that the hall is thoroughly Rishel. renovated and furnished for Post pur the best fitted for the purpose of any hall they have yet occupied.

The members of the Post /re very poor financially but rich in patriotism and fidelity to the flag. These old soldiers have suffered much and are suffering still on account of service to our country and deserve well at the hands of our citizens. One by one they are dropping from the ranks. What can we do or rather what will we do to make their last days on arth pleasant and enjoyable?

At their last meeting the following officers were elected for the year 1915: Commander, H. C. McKinley; S. V. Commander, Hezekiah Crissey; J. V. Commander, Eli Hare; Quartermas-Commander, Eli Hare; Quartermas-ter, M. A. Rutte; Chaplain, Rev. W. W. Wagner; Officer of the Day, Samuel Hoffmeyer; Officer of the Guard, Samuel Firl; Sargeant, Augus-tus Rosenberger. The remaining offi-cers, Adjutant, Sargeant Major, Quar-termaster Sargeant and Color Sar-cent will be as inted at the invisal. geant will be app inted at the instal-lation meeting in Januar.

HAD BOTH FEET BADLY FROZEN. girls.

Wm. T. Mercer, whose home is at Morgantown, W. Va., reached this place on a freight train Monday, with both of his feet frozen so badly they had nearly turned black. He appealed for help to Officer Hare who took charge of him and Dr. McMillan gave him the necessary medical attention. Officer Hare, most commendably, went around and gathered enough money to pay the man's way to relatives in Connellsyille. The man, who is 20 years of age was seeking work.

SCALP PAYMENTS START JANUARY 1ST.

The County Commissioners start paying scalp bounties on January 1st, 1915, under the Act of 1913,

Hard and Soft Shell Almonds, Fancy Naples, Mountain Naples and Black Walnuts, Large Brazils, Naple Filberts and Elephant Pecons, also Mixed Nuts, at Holzshu & Weimer.

MONSTER 150 FEET LONG CAPTURED.

buying their medicines, since started here his reputation must have Noticeable in the cine in the highest praises.

quality and lowest prices. Ask for our 1915 calendar.

Habel & Phillips.

WITTEMBURG.

Mr. Ezra Geiger, a highly respected Mr. Ezra Geiger, a highly respected farmer of Wittemburg, last week was a visitor to Pittisburgh in company with Prof. Howard Phillips. While in the city he was the guest of Prof. and Mrs. Phillips. This being Mr. Geiger's first visit to the city there were many places of interest to be were many places of interest to be seen. Mr. Geiger returned very much

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES

The following program will be rendered by the Summit Mills Brethren Sunday school, in the Summit Mills Brethren church on Wednesday evening, December 23, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to

Prelude, "Harp of the Angels"-Ada Fike. Song by the Chorus, "Merry Christ-mas."

"Our Welcome," Herbert Miller.
Song by the Chorus, "Glory to God in the Highest."
Scripture Reading, Precious Words

Eight young men.
Prayer—Superintendent John A.

"Beautiful Herald," Sue

"Mv Greeting"—Gilbert Lindeman.
"A OhristmasStory"—Harold Engle
Exercise, "The Ohrist Ohild"—Six

"For the Christ Child's Sake"-Margaret Miller.
"Christmas Time"—Dorothy Miller

Solo, "The Song the Angel's Sing"
Vesta Klotz "Christmas by Parcel Post"-Geo.

Exercise, "The Bells"Nine girls.
"The Birthday of Jesus"—Ella Sut-

Born"—Fourteen girls.
The offering, which will be devoted to Missions, will be received at this

'Roger's Wants'2-Allie Miller. Exercise, "Christmas"—Seven boys
"A Christmas Wish"—Ruth Swear-

Song by the Chorus, "Bells of Christmas." "Story of the Stars"—Fannie Linde-

Solo, "Gathering Homeward"-Ella Witt.

"Christmas Joy"—Ruth Faidley.
"A Real Grandma"—Harold Engle
Exercise, "Star Children"—Twelve

"No Room for a King"—Ella Firl.
"Duet, "Sleep, O Sleep"—Edna Sumac and Annie Miller.
"Exercise, "Signal Lights"—Nine

Exercise, "Signal Lights And boys.

Exercise, "New Stars for Jesus"—
Eight young laddes.

Song by the Ohorus, "Sing for Joy"
Exercise and Ensemble, "The Feast of Lights."

Closing Ohorus.

IN A SILO.

A recent fatal accident in Ohio calls attention to a danger to farmers which cannot be too widely circulated. Since 1875, when the first American silo was built by Dr. Manley Miles, this method of preserving forage for live stock has been generally adopted. Although the Department of Arriculfure has frequently ment of Agriculture has frequently called attention to the danger of carbon dioxid gas accumulating in silos under certain conditions, no fatalities have been reported heretofore. On the morning of September 19, four workmen on the farm of the Athens LONG CAPTURED.

A specimen rarely seen in the United States. The monster "Barthroleephalus Latus" is on exhibition at the Quaker Show, nightly. The Quaker Herbs removed it from Mr. Tony His, the Quaker doctor, whose herb medicine is spoken of above is House in Meyersdale. Large crowds are gathering nightly to enjoy the lower door, the physicians of the hosperformance given by the musicians, singing comedians, ariel artist, etc. and judging from the way people are four men. Evidently the carbon buying their medicines, since he dioxid gas had accumulated during the night, filling the silo up to the level of the door and forming a layer crowd nightly are some of our rep- of carbon dioxid gas six feet deep resentative citizens and they speak of this Quaker doctor and his medimight easily be repeated on any modern farm. Agricultural journals
The best place to do your Christmas buying. Largest stock, best > Amateur night at the Quaker Show Saturday night cash prizes.

AT SUMMIT MILLS. LATE RULINGS AT CO. TEMPLE OF JUSTICE

The following cases were heard at ourt during the past few days.

Eugene Liyengood, H. E. Saylor, Joseph Hipp, George Hoblitzell and William Graves were charged by Gertrude Romesburg, with malicious mischief, but the case was nol prossed, a settlement having been arrived at.

The court granted a continuance until next Friday in the case of M. E. Hannan and Charles Knuff, charged by County Detective Lester G. Wagner with violation of the liquor laws.

by Agnes Groner, with assault and battery, was not prossed The case An exercise and drill, "Christ is first came into court last February and was the outcome of the dispute over the will of the late Charles > costs in the prosecution brought by Charles F. Camp for carrying conhad been arrived at.

> In the case of Annie Larimer, charged by Wilda E. Lohr, with malicious mischief, the grand jury ig-nored the bill and placed the costs on the prosecutrix.

> The grand jury ignored the bill against Mrs, Lincoln Lohr and others charged by Annie Larimer with maicious mischief, but in this instance the costs were placed on the county. The case of Joe. Cappage charged with false pretense, was not prossed after the principals had agreed upon a settlement. Similar action was taken in the case of Irvin Bender, charged by Mary C. Heneca, with assault and battery.

A continuance until the next term of court was granted in the case of Irvin J. Good, charged by David E. Green, with larceny.

The case of Charles Pohen, charged by George Holwa with assault and battery was continued until the next term of court.

The grand jury has returned a true bill in the case of Elmer Miller, with assault and battery.

John Harris pleaded guilty to the charge of operating a motor vehicle when intoxicated, brought suit against him by Constable Edward Arisman and the court sentenced him to pay a fine of $100 within three Carl Beaty, convicted of assault and battery, was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 and costs. George E. Arisman was the prosecutor.

and battery, John Hoyman, prose-cutor, was settled. Disposition of Tony His, the charged to the workmen tollowing their rotate outer, was settled. Disposition to the unconscious. Although a large the case of Joe. Willis, charged by the case of Joe. Willis, charged by ler with assault and battery, pleaded summoned, and the bodies of the four of the mining laws, was withheld guilty and was paroled on payment of the costs.

> John Murray and others charged their cases.

Settlements were arrived at in the cases of E. M. Kittel, charged by I.
E. Keller with larceny and John
Good, charged by R. H. Speicher with damaging the property of a

Merritt with assault and battery, livery stable keeper.

deneros Dillucchio has been found to not guilty on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. However, he was directed to pay two-thirds of the cost while the other third was placed on the prosecutor, with the cost will be the prosecutor, with the cost of the cost will be case of Harvey Baer, and Daniel Dempsey, charged with large current with the cost will be cost with the cost wi

POPULAR YOUNG MAN DIES OF BLOOD POISON

The following cases were heard at court during the past few days.

The case of Rock Martin, charged by F. B. Black, with malicious mischief, was continued until the next year.

Eugene Liyengood, H. E. Saylor, Leeph Hier, George Hoblitzall and although avery known records and although every known means were used the young man's death resulted. He was a splendid young man, active in the Reformed church, being received into membership last April, by Rev. A. S. Kresge, with 70 sunday School Scholars for a Millon Cothers in the charg). The funeral ion Testaments for a Million Soldiers took place Monday, church being in the hospitals, camps, war-prisons and battlefields of the Great War." er, testifying to the worth of the de The case has also been continued from the September term of court.

W. E. Fatchin, charged by John Raus with aggravated assault and battery was found guilty of simple assault and battery but has not been sentenced.

The case of W. B. Duncan charged

Ceased. The J. O. U. A. M., to which Mr. Tressler belonged took part in the ceremonies. Rev. Wise, assisted the pastor, Rev. Kresge, who preach the press to Sunday schools of all denominations all over the United States.

The bereaved parents have two surviving sons and five daughters.

DEATH'S HARVEST. ceased. The J. O. U. A. M., to which

A WEIL-KNOWN

B. & O. WILL HAVE HEAVIER ENGINES.

among railroad men by the appearance on the B. & O's., main line through Somerset county of the ponderous new freight tocomotives, numbered 7,000 and oyer. These engines are equipped with ten driving wheels and are so heavy that they have broken over 800 rails on the division since they were placed in service. Railroad men say the entire division will have to be relaid with heavier rails. It is said engines of this type may soon he run into Johnstown over the Somerset & Cambria branch. The use of the heavier engines will make posthe heavier engines will make possible the shipment of coal in much larger units from the Somerset county field, thus reducing the cost of op-

Gold Medal Flour will always please get it at Habel & Phillips. ad

1 pound Fancy Chocolate Hydrox Cakes for 25 cents, at Bittner's Gro-cery(special for a short time only.)

UNDERGOES OPERATION AT THE HOSPITAL.

X-ray was used and a slight operation undergo imprisonment of from two to three years in Western Penitentiary.

The case of Archibald Miller, a mine superintendent, charged with by George P. Stein, with burglary, polluting a stream in the new Cairnsucceeded in securing a settlement of brook section, has been continued was a devoted Christian woman. until the next term of court, the attorney for Mr. Miller being in at-livery stable keeper. pleaded guilty and was paroled on Generoso DiLucchio has been found payment of the costs.

Settlements were effected in the Mary Toth pleaded guilty

Live turkeys also oysters for Christ-mas, at Habel & Phillips.

Joseph George, who pleaded guilty to assault and battery with attempt, an offense against morality and lar-ceny, entered pleas of guilty.

MARRIAGE LICENSE ISSUED IN THE COUNTY

Harold Arthur Oldham, of Ogle township and Myrtle Ivy Shawley, of New Paris. Bedford county.

Stiney Sapinski an Valaria Witkosg, both of Boswell. John Dujack of Acosta, and Kate Charles W. Maxwell of Stoyestown and Lizzie Mae Ogline of Somerset township.

Imre Horvath and Lizzie Jacob both of Cairnbrook.

NEW TESTAMENTS FOR THE SOLDIERS.

"A Millon Nickels from a Million This is the present slogan of the American Section of the World's Sunday School Association, in an after a few are advanced in $500 amounts first came into court last February and was the outcome or the dispute over the will of the late Charles Vannear of Somerset.

MICHAEL HURLEY.

Frederick R. Anspach paid the costs in the prosecution brought by Charles F. Camp for carrying concealed weapons after a settlement had been arrived at.

In the case of Annie Larimer, charged by Wilda E. Lohr, with maching the propertions mischief, the grand jury ignored the bill and placed the costs.

B. & O. WILL HAVE

Miss Maggie Groff, a highly respected and well-known lady died at the residence on Meyers avenue, Wednesday night near 12 o'clock home in connellsville. He was a native of Ireland, coming to this country in 1864. Though a hotel keeper and brewery president for years it is aid he never in his life took a drink. He was married twice, his second wife being Miss Anna Weber, daughters of of Mrs. Anna Weber of this place, who survives with three daughters of the prosecutivs.

Solution of the late Charles Miss Maggie Groff, a highly respected and well-known lady died at the residence on Meyers avenue, Wednesday night near 12 o'clock home in connellsville. He was a native of Ireland, coming to this country in 1864. Though a hotel keeper and brewery president for years' illness, Michael Hurley, the largest property owner of Connellsville and president of the Meversdale Brewing Company, Mey ersdale, died Saturday night at his home in connellsville. He was a native of Ireland, coming to this country in 1864. Though a hotel keeper and brewery president for years it is aid he never in his life took a drink. He was married twice, $2,500.

The sataries of the postmasters in Pittsburg and Philadelphia will remain the same. The Pittsburg and Philadelphia will remain the same that is he residence on Meyers avenue, were sale Bre

W. S. Schenck, master carpenter for the Pittsburgh & Connellsville division of the B. & O. railroad company, was buried at Connellsville on Sunday, when the Rev. Champ Clark Buckner, his pastor, preached the sermon. The decedent was a native sermon. The decedent was a native of Virginia and shortly after the disastrons fire of 1872, he went to Somerset, were he warked on the construction of a number of the best residences. Subsequently, he took employment with the railroad company and served faithfully for about thirty-five years. Mr. Schenck was married to Miss Sarah Shaffer, daughter of Samuel Shaffer, deceased of

Herman L. Baer, president of the Somerset County Bar association and one of its oldest members, died Saturday morning at the age of 86 years. Mr. Baer was admitted to the bar in 1856. Herman L. Baer was a brother of George F. Baer, who, at the time of his death last summer, was president of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad and a commanding figure in railroad and a commanding figure in the financial and railway world. Four Wm. Seggie of Lee's Hollow, at the end of the state road, who was recently taken to the Allegany hospital by Dr. Lichty for a diagnosis

The inancial and railway world. Four children survive as follows: Mrs. G. R. Scull of Somerset, Hermanus L. Baer of New York, who married Miss Mabel McKinley, a niece of President McKinley, and Resident will return home in a few days. The William McKinley, and Reuben and X-ray was used and a slight operation George Baer, both at Healdsburg, Cal. He was an active member of the Somerset Reformed church and was superintendent of the Sunday funeral took place Monday afternoon

Mrs. Mary C. Pyle, widow of the late Hiram Pyle of Milford township, succumbed to an attack of paralysis Monday afternoon aged 69 years. She Passed away at his home in West Salisbury, Dec. 6th, after weeks of suffering from Bright's disease. His wife and four children survive.

Hauling and draying given prompt ttention.

H. S. Thomas.

Christmas candies, nuts, oranges, etc., Habel & Phillips

Don't forget saturday night at the Beautiful China ware, at Habel & Phillips.

Large Jar Stuffed Olives for 25c. at Bittner's Grocery.

POSTMASTERS' SALARIES TO

the government, and just now the postmasters of the country are getpostmasters of the country are get-ting the attention of Postmaster Gen-eral Burleson, in this respect. The second class postmasters, or better those holding positions in the second class list, for our postmasters are generally very efficient, and Meyers-dale's costmaster is no execution to dale's postmaster is no exception to the well-doing representatives of the postal service, to repeat those in the second class list are to be the principal ones that will be cut, if the decisive vote of 10 to 5 of the House committee endorsed by Postmaster Gen-to $8,000. Sweeping reductions are to be made in the postoffice of the second class. At the present time the postmasters in those offices re-ceive salaries ranging from $2,000 to DEATH'S HARVEST. $2,900. Provision now is to be made for but two salaries, $2,000 and $2,500. All who are getting over $2,000 and less than $2,500 will receive $2,000;

result:
The local postoffice is affected by who survives with three daughters of the first marriage. His funeral was held Tuesday morning in Connellsville.

W. S. SCHENCK.

W. S. Schenck, master carpenter.

The local postoffice is affected by this move and the salary of postmass ter Naugle will be reduced from $2,300 to $2,000; at Somerset, the cut is even more as it will be from $2,500 to $2,000; Windber, $2,300 to $2000.

AGED LADY FALLS BREAKING AN ARM.

On Monday afternoon, while standing on a chair, Mrs. James Kimbal of Meyers avenue, in some way fell and broke her left arm. Dr. Lichty reduced the fracture. The accident is the more serious as Mrs. Kimbal is

As time advances interest in th

day:	od oaks
No.	Votes.	No.	Votes.
1	60,140	4	63,780
10	133,540	18	50,245
20	61,260	21	50,000
22	88,585	26	50,000
27	50,000	28	70,760
33	60,525	38	68,650
40	73,855	47	58,395
53	65,590	59	50,000
62	82,635	64	52,665
67	61,380	72	50,400
73	122,945	93	59,775
112	50,000	144	50,000
145	49,350	151	54,560
152	60,810	153	52,045
154	50,000	155	50,000
156	50,000	157	117,840
158	50,580	159	69,555
160	50,000	161	117,000
162	65,845	163	56,480
164	59,040	165	56,325
166	50,540	167	50,000
168	59,385	169	50,000
170	50,000	171	50,000
172	50,000	173	102,255
174	51,390	175	53,965
176	50,410	177	51,000
178	55,225	179	50,950

We have the largest stock of assortment of Xmas candy at right, prices, at Holzshu & Weimer. ad You will find the largest and best > finest kind of a Christmas resent Big assortment, at Habel & Philips.

Florida Oranges for 15c per dozen Habel & Philips.

Nuts at 10 cents a pound, at d Bittner's Grocery