

SALISBURY.

"Come and Help Whip the Devil" is the call to the people to attend the revival meetings at the M. E. church at Salisbury. Several meetings were missed on account of the illness of the pastor, Rev. Morgan, but the meetings were resumed on Tuesday evening and there will be services every evening this week. On Sunday, Mar. 14, the Rev. J. C. Matteson of Meyersdale, will preach at 3:15 in the afternoon to men only.

Mrs. Annie Kretschman and Mrs. A. L. Lowry returned last week from a visit with the former's daughter, Mrs. William Slossnagle, in Brothersvalley township.

Mrs. A. R. Winters went to the Robert Packer hospital at Sayre, Pa., last week to have a goitre removed. She was accompanied by Mrs. Chas. Messersmith. En route to Sayre they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Wagner, at Johnstown.

The patrons of Salisbury Lecture Course were favored with a lecture entitled "Limitations of Liberty" by Orin C. Lester on Monday evening in Hay's Opera House. A large audience was in attendance.

An infant, several days old, of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barchus, died on Friday and was buried in the I. O. O. F. cemetery on Saturday.

J. L. Barchus, C. M. May and H. H. Reitz have been drawn as jurors for the special term of court beginning April 5.

Bernice, the eldest daughter of Mrs. Victoria Dean, has suffered a relapse from scarlet fever and it was feared typhoid fever would develop but the patient is getting better again.

Mrs. G. E. Thrasher, of Pittsburg, was in town last week representing the Sherwood Music School. She was soliciting pupils for the Effie Ellis course of music. The class here will be in charge of Mrs. Della B. Livin-good.

George Miller and Fred Miller, of near Accident, Md., were guests at the L. W. Miller home over Sunday, having been called here by the death of the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Miller, of Coal Run.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deihl, of West Salisbury, on March 6, a daughter.

John Swatzwelder is recovering from an attack of grippe.

Miss Jean Farmer last week suffered from an attack of quinsy.

A. W. Scott, of Indiana Pa., spent last week at the home of Wm. Knecht.

Mrs. Homer Barnett, of Quemahoning township, visited her mother, Mrs. Thomasine McDowell, several days last week.

Mrs. Wilbur Miller, of Greenville, township, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Newman Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Orville Sheibaer, of Meyersdale spent Thursday with her niece, Mrs. Clarence Statler.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mishler, who resided in the Lucy Yaist property on Gay street, moved on Monday to a farm in Summit township.

Mrs. E. C. Haselbarth and Miss Charlotte Boyer attended the spring millinery opening in Pittsburg recently.

GLENCOE.

Sam Bittner and Thos. Poorbaugh left for Akron, Ohio, last Tuesday to seek employment.

Lawrence Stouffer of Meyersdale is fast becoming Mr. Alfred Broadwater's right hand man. He has been on the farm since last Thursday.

Clarence Miller spent Sunday with his brother, W. H. Miller.

Miss Elizabeth Leydig was a Cumberland visitor on Saturday.

Henry Smith and family of Cumberland, spent the week-end with H. M. Poorbaugh.

Mrs. A. A. Sharp and a number of Sand Patch ladies were Sunday visitors at the Glencoe Inn.

Geo. Cook left on Monday for Chicago, after a two months' vacation in the Alleghenies.

The institute at Southampton was much interfered with by the weather man, yet a sufficient amount of talent was aggregated to make a full evening.

Chas. Poorbaugh has a new nag that stands for horseback riding mainly. Now, girls, is your chance for the "high" dive or aeroplane appearing flight.

Mrs. Walter Staley and daughter, Gladys with Mrs. Gephart and children of McKeesport, arrived in our town on Thursday to begin their rustic life.

W. A. Raupach and family spent the week-end at W. H. Smith's of Fairhope.

Mrs. W. H. Bittner attended the funeral of her brother Albert Crosby of McKeesport on last Saturday.

Frank Miller is strutting about proudly since the arrival of a fine baby girl at their home last Wednesday night.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Housel, of Salisbury Junction, a 10 lb. son.

Little Miss Bittner was baptized in the Reformed church here on Sunday.

HARTLEY & BALDWIN

Good clothes are like good tools; you can do better work if you know you have the best things to wear or to work with.

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

clothes give you that satisfactory sense of knowing that you have the best there is.

HARTLEY & BALDWIN,

The Home of Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes MEYERSDALE, PA

VINOL

BUILDS YOU UP, CREATES STRENGTH

Each and every package is guaranteed to do as represented Sold by—

F. B. THOMAS, Leading Druggist,

Both Phones MEYERSDALE, PA.

SUMMIT TOWNSHIP.

Wilson Shumac is boiling sugar for Hiram Saylor this spring.

Miss Fannie Linderman is living in the home of H. E. Hershberger.

A. G. Maust spent Sunday at the home of J. R. Ebaugh.

Wilson Weller, one of our popular auctioneers, has moved from the Saylor hill to the B. B. Dickey house.

The entertainment held at the Walker school Saturday evening, of which Miss Mary Gnagy is teacher, was well rendered to a large audience. All enjoyed it very much.

Mahlon Yoder moved to the J. C. Kretschman tenant house where he will work for Mr. Kretschman.

Miss Stella Miller, a teacher at Stoyestown, spent over Sunday with her brother, Wilson, and family.

R. J. Engle conducted the public sale of C. B. Dickey, near Salisbury, last Thursday.

Ella Sutton is employed in the home of D. W. Loug at present.

INDIAN CREEK.

Mrs. Geo. Snyder, of Davistown, is with her mother at Mt. Pleasant, who is ill.

Mrs. Ella Kimmell, of Garrett, spent the past week with her son, George, of Jones' Mill.

Mrs. J. R. Wartman and daughter, of Pittsburg, were visitors recently with Mr. Wartman's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Dull, of Jones Mill.

Frank Lindsay left Friday for Ligonier where he is employed.

Jake Dull was called to Connells-ville, Saturday by the critical illness of his mother who died Saturday evening and was buried Tuesday at 2 p. m. at Connellsville.

Albert Showman, of Mill Run, left for Vanderbilt, Saturday to visit.

L. J. Baer spent Saturday among Meyersdale friends.

Dave Begain and Samuel Fullem were transacting business in Connells-ville on Saturday.

Dennis Whipkey and Ezra Shipley were business callers in Uniontown on Saturday.

Of this time item Jones's attorney

VIM.

P. C. Miller lost his mare, known as Fan on last Sunday night from colic.

Mrs. Lewis Knepp, of Larimer town-ship, spent last Thursday night at the home of her brother, Henry Suder.

Homer Maust, of St. Paul sold a horse to Geo. C. Meyer on Monday.

Henry Brown butchered two porkers which he sold to J. W. Forrest of Glade City on Monday.

P. C. Miller baled his hay and shipped several carloads last week.

Miss Margaret Knepp who is staying at Henry Suder's spent last Sun-day at her home in Larimer township.

Miss Elizabeth Tressler fell on Monday morning and sprained her left ankle so badly that she was housed up for several days, preventing her attending to her clerical duties at the Shipley Hardware Co. store in Meyersdale.

Mrs. Henry Bangard spent Monday at Meyersdale with Mrs. Wm. Saylor.

Mr. E. D. Lee was a severe sufferer with a carbuncle on the back of his neck last week.

Wm. Engle was called to Frostburg on Wednesday to attend the funeral of an aunt.

BERLIN.

Mrs. Clifton Walker is visiting Philadelphia friends.

Mrs. Belle Krissinger has returned from a six weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. John Philson in Johnstown.

Mrs. Wm. Cossel, who recently underwent an operation in a Cumber-land hospital, returned to her home on Monday evening.

The Berlin Brethren Church congrega-tion has elected Rev. Jesse S. Wat-son of Philadelphia to be their pastor during the ensuing year.

On Saturday night a box social will be held by the miners' band in their hall.

Mrs. J. G. Smith is recovering nicely from an operation she recently underwent at Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore.

The formal dedication of Berlin's handsome new school building will take place, Thursday, March 11. In the afternoon from 1 to 5 o'clock, the teachers will tender a reception to the citizens of the town at the school and will take pleasure in showing them through the several departments of the building. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock, the formal dedicatory exer-cises will be held in Trinity Reformed Church, for which a very interesting program has been arranged.

GARRETT.

More spring weather—house-clean-ing next in order.

Albert Twigg who was painfully injured Saturday is getting along as well as could be expected.

Only one month more will bring our schools to a close.

H. B. Spelcher and E. E. Carver spent Tuesday evening in Meyersdale on business.

Several of our young people attend-ed the Teachers' institute at the Wal-ker school in Brothersvalley twp., Sat-urday evening.

From all appearances the "burglar gang" has not yet all been caught, as our people are frequently annoyed by some one stealing various articles, and especially visiting those places where meat is kept.

The Garrett Normal will open May, 4, and close with the teachers' exam-inations to be held June 22-24. This Normal had an enrollment of 32 stu-dents last year and this year the out-look points to a larger enrollment than ever before, as it is expected to reach an enrollment of 40. Special at-tention will be given to those desiring to take Professional examinations and this alone is a feature that should not be overlooked. If you are desirous of doing good work, come to the Garrett Normal under the supervision of a teacher of strong ability, and long ex-perience and you will never rue the time spent there.

We are pleased to note the progress of the Angena Laboratory in our town, which has a wider reputation than any firm of its kind within a long ra-dius.

N. E. Beabes spent Sunday visit-ing his parents near Somerset.

American Fashion Show

March 19th and 20th.

We Will Have Our Spring Opening on Above Dates

On Saturday Afternoon March 20th, we will display on LIVING MODELS from 2 o'clock to 4 o'clock p. m. The very latest styles in Ladies', Men's and Children's Suits Coats, Hats Ladies' Morning, Afternoon and Evening Gowns, Shoes, Slippers, Gloves and all the Latest Novelties.

Don't Miss This Event as it is Something New and Attractive.

MILLER & COLLINS

OPENING ANNOUNCEMENT

I. WEINSTEIN

Announces the opening of his new store Saturday, March 13th, 1915

See the new styles for Spring and Summer. A complete line of new up-to-date apparel for the Ladies, Misses and Children; Men, Youths and Boys. Every-thing of the best quality, latest styles and at the low-est possible price.

My aim is to treat everyone right and to give them FULL VALUE for their money.

FANCY SOUVENIRS

Given to all the ladies on Opening Day.

EVERYBODY WELCOME.

I. WEINSTEIN

The Low Price Store.

Naugle Bldg., Next to Post Office, Meyersdale, Pa.

Don't forget the big Easter Bazaar which will be held by the Lutheran Ladies Aid Society on St. Patrick's day at which eatables will also be served.

The "auto bug" seems to have stung several of our people recently. Watch for developments.

Mrs. Samuel Rector, of Akron, O., is visiting friends and relatives here. Quite a few of our people are on the sick list.

MARKLETON.

Hurrah for Mr. Snyder! Hurrah for the Band! Who "hollered" for the postmaster? What about that dona-tion? Let's see who receives the next one.

W. A. Snyder purchased a fine driv-ing mare last Tuesday. Roy says that she is some goer. When you pass a telephone pole on her they look just like tooth picks.

Frank Marlett spent Wednesday in Meyersdale on special business.

Dr. Spelcher, of Rockwood was here on Thursday looking after some of the sick.

B. & O. section foreman, Jesse

Burnworth attended a meeting at Rock-wood on Wednesday.

Mr. Chester Miller, of McKeesport, is spending a few weeks at the san-itarium.

Ross Krieger, who has been on the sick list for the past week, is im-proving under the care of Dr. Smeitz.

Mrs. Nora Plomba who underwent an operation a few weeks ago, in the hospital at Pittsburg, returned home on Saturday evening.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mc-Vay, was very much delighted over the arrival of a grandson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Burns and Ross Krieger have rented Mrs. Bittner's property and have started a poultry farm.

Prof. Wm. Dwire spent Saturday in Somerset.

Lewis Ayres spent Saturday in Rock-wood visiting his son John, who is a railroad conductor who met with an accident recently.

ST. PAUL.

Six families are under quaran-tine in town due to scarlet fever. It seems up to this time no serious cases have developed.

The schools have closed for a short time awaiting developments of scarlet fever. For the same reason meetings have been suspended in the boys club rooms.

Mr. Richard Sipple is confined to his bed by a severe case of neuralgia since Saturday night. He is slowly improving.

Church services were announced for the Reformed church at 10 a. m. Sunday, March 14 to be conducted by Rev. Metzger, of Frostburg.

WELLERSBURG.

Mr. Jos. Sturtz spent Sunday with relatives in Corriganville.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ralley, of near Ellerslie, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Tressler visited on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Redding.

J. E. Shaffer and Robt. Fedling are ill with la grippe.

BEAUTIFUL ALUMINUM ROASTER Beautiful Aluminum Roasters—Given away to cash customers at Habel & Phillips.