

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Neimiller of Berkely Mills, a fine girl Wednesday.

Grasshoppers are already being found on some farms in this vicinity, during ploughing.

Mrs. Thomas Dom, of Pittsburg, has returned there after a brief visit with Meyersdale relatives.

Miss Edith Gurley, a student at the Margaret Morrison school in Pittsburg, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Gurley.

Miss Elsie Sides, who for the last five weeks, had been visiting relatives at Bedford and Mann's Choice, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. W. S. Miller has started light housekeeping in a couple of rooms in the home of Miss Mary Just on Main street.

John White, an aged veteran of the civil war, is ill with grip at his home in Salisbury, a fact which many of his friends are not cognizant of.

Mr. Milton F. Hechler made a business trip Monday, to this place stopping several hours with his uncle, U. M. Weimer. His home is at Rockwood.

Mrs. W. H. Habel was hostess a few days ago, when she entertained at luncheon twelve members of the Dorcas Club at her home on North st. Mrs. Elias Hechler, of Rockwood has been visiting her brother, U. M. Weimer for the past four weeks, returned to her home on Saturday.

A change of the trout season from April 15 to August 1 to a period extending from April 12 to August 31 is among the provisions in the bill to codify the fishing laws of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mathias have returned to their home in Donora after spending a week here at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mathias, of the South Side.

Mrs. Gladys Mountain, and little daughter of Confluence, have returned home having spent a few days here with the former's mother, Mrs. Catherine Groff.

Silas S. Cook, son of Mr. Jno. W. Cook, of High street and Harry Merwine left a few days ago for Conrad, Iowa, where they will assist in the tilling of the soil.

Mrs. Nellie Siehl and Thomas Mathias, of Pittsburg, and Mrs. Malinda Albright, of Berlin, have been called here by the serious condition of their mother, Mrs. George Mathias, of the South Side.

Petitions addressed to the state legislature, asking that the Full Crew Law be kept on the books, are being circulated in Somerset county, and are being signed by many of the railroad employes.

Miss Anna Housel was hostess Thursday evening when she entertained the Sunday School class of which she is a member. Games and music were enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Clara Stacer has returned from Rockwood, where she has been nursing for the past three months, the wife and daughter of Rev. McClellan, both having had typhoid fever.

When the spring schedule of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad goes into effect in April the passenger crews over the entire system will make their appearance in new uniforms. On the sleeves of the uniform will be a star for every five years of service.

Among the official guests of Governor Brumbaugh, Tuesday, on the occasion of the launching of the battleship, Pennsylvania, at Newport News, was F. P. Black, of Meyersdale, who for many years has been an intimate friend of Governor Brumbaugh's.

Mrs. Frank Hoffman returned the latter part of the week, from a two weeks' stay with her son, Lee, Bedford Bedford, the latter part of the week accompanied by Mrs. Lee Hoffman. On Monday, Mr. Hoffman arrived to enjoy his birthday here. The Motor Journal in the last issue gave a detailed account with many illustrations of the handsome hotel Mr. Hoffman is preparing to build there, which fact has been noted several times in our columns.

Meyersdale and Salisbury Camp, United Sportsmen of Pennsylvania, held their annual meeting at Salisbury Tuesday when officers were elected for the ensuing year. C. M. May was re-elected president; A. R. Hartle, first vice president; N. B. Snider, second vice president; and Bert Statler, treasurer; H. B. Philson and Ernest Blocher were elected directors in addition to the following held over members of the board: T. W. Gurley, W. H. Dill, C. A. Wagaman, Roscoe Welfley and Clarence Statler.

Mrs. Maurice Mosholder, of Beachly street, entertained a few friends Tuesday evening in honor of her husband's 34th birthday. Covers were laid for fourteen. The decorations were in green and white. The menu was a very palatable one, and was enjoyed by all of the guests who were: Mr. Jos. Mosholder, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Glessner, Mr. and Mrs. David Curry, Mrs. Milton Boucher, Mrs. Sue Liston, Miss Helen Boucher, Mr. Paul McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. Mosholder and children—Joseph, Catherine and

On account of making extensive changes in our Drug Store, we have not been able to give our patrons the service that is due them.

Alterations are now about complete and it is our desire to give the people of Meyersdale and vicinity—

THE BEST IN DRUG STORE MERCHANDISE THE FINEST IN DRUG STORE SERVICE.

Watch for our announcement.

COLLINS DRUG STORE

The Jewell Store

HARTLEY BLOCK, MEYERSDALE, PA.

MILLINERY OPENING

FRIDAY & SATURDAY
THIS WEEK

Latest Creations in the Millinery Art.

You will receive a cordial welcome.

Our Prices are Very Reasonable Come and See.

DIEHL MILLINERY

Serious Case.
Wife—You must send me away for my health at once. I am going into a decline.

Husband—My! My! What makes you think so?
Wife—All my dresses are beginning to feel comfortable.

EXCEPTION TO THE RULE.

"That rich man's son is a wonder."
"How is that?"
"He can earn his own living."

Radium.
A price for radium they get.
That moves men to unearth it.
Though all that it has done as yet
Does not seem really worth it.

Jeer for Jeer.
"Ha! ha!" said the man who was elected. "I thought you said you trusted the wisdom of the plain people."

"I still believe in it," replied the man who was defeated. "The wisest people want a joke now, and then."
Its Translation.
"What do these fool novel writers mean by saying of the heroine that the subtle perfume of her breath brushed the hero's cheek?"
"I guess it's cracking up the sweeping success of the brand of chewing gum she used."

The Wily Husband.
Wife—I thought you had more sense than to buy a cornet. You know the man next door worries us nearly to death with his.
Husband—Calm yourself, my dear. That's the one I bought.—Philadelphia Record.

Changeful.
"You never use slang?"
"I dislike the mental effort," replied Miss Cayenne. "A picturesque bit of slang is all right while it lasts. But it goes out of fashion so quickly!"

His Training.
"I never saw a man like Jones. He is absolutely confident of tackling any job that comes along."
"He told me once he was used to matching samples for his wife."

Superabundance.
"He speaks several languages fluently."
"Yes. But what's the use. He never thinks of anything to say that's worth translating."

IN ANOTHER
KEY

The Caviar Bird.
Two ultrasophisticated New Yorkers were admiring the wainscoting in a certain Philadelphia hotel and got to arguing over the name of the wood used. Finally they asked a waiter. He didn't know, and asked the bartender.

"Whatta yuh call that wood?" he said.

"That wood?" said the bartender.

"That stuff costs a lot of money. It's Russian caviar."

"Piffle!" snorted the New Yorker; "caviar's not wood; it's a bird."

At Bay.

The walking delegate from the prison guard's union banged his fist on the table in front of the superintendent of police.

"You'll have to stir up the cops to make more arrests," he said. "Half of our men are out of work and if you don't fill the jails inside of a week I'll call a general strike."

Domestic Amenities.
Husband (at breakfast table)—Oh, for some of the biscuits my mother used to make.

Wife (sweetly)—I'm sorry you have not got them, dear. They would be just about stale enough by this time to go well with that remark.

Destroying Nature's Barriers.

There are four kinds of barriers or divisions set up by nature upon the face of the earth—mountains, forests, deserts, rivers. The first, the mountains, man cannot remove, but he can and does go through them to save the trouble and difficulty of going over them. The second, the forests, he has largely cleared away altogether. The third, the deserts, he is beginning to treat like the forests. The fourth, the rivers, he is beginning to shift when it suits his purpose and to regulate their flow at will.

Make Sunflower Useful.

In some countries, notably in the Russian provinces north of the Caucasus, the sunflower serves other purposes besides ornamenting gardens with its huge golden blossoms. The seeds are used to make oil, which is employed both in the manufacture of soap and in cooking. The stems and leaves are burned and the ashes used to make potash. Last year the sunflower factories of the Caucasus produced 15,000 tons of potash.

EYE-STRAIN

HEADACHES

Are two of the greatest enemies of mankind.

CONSULT

M. D. GOLDSTEIN
EYE SIGHT SPECIALIST
AT COLLINS' DRUG STORE
MEYERSDALE, PA.
Tuesday March 23.

How many endure day after day this nerve racking strength sapping pain without any thought of its origin. The cause is never sought by the majority of sufferers the endure and wonder. Eighty per cent of all headaches are caused by defective eyes, with proper glasses all distressing pains would vanish. No drugs or drops used. Children's eyes examined and glasses fitted when necessary. Glasses from $2.00 up. Eyes examined free of charge. All glasses guaranteed for two years. Our responsibility never ceases.

FOR A FIRST-CLASS
GALVANIZED OR SLATE ROOF

P. T. ON COMPLETE & REASONABLE

Write to

J. S. WENGER

MEYERSDALE, R. D. 2, PENN'A.

as we are getting a car load of Galvanized Roof early and can save you money if you order soon on account of the galvanized spelter raising in price.

All Work Guaranteed and Done to Order.

Lucky He Was Saved.

"You can't convince me," said the little man with the ragged trousers, "that you can bring up children right by talkin' to 'em and lettin' it go at that. You've got to use the rod, or you'll spoil the child. I used to get about three lickin's a day on the average."

"It doesn't seem to have done much for you," replied the lady with the protruding jaw.

"It done a lot for me. If they'd let me go my own way I might almost of been a failure in life."—Judge.

THANKS!

I wish to return my thanks and hearty appreciation to my many friends who attended the opening of my new store last Saturday.

Thanks for the pleasure of the visit, and for the many expressions of encouragement, good will, and approval.

It shall be my utmost endeavor to serve my friends and customers in such manner as to always merit their confidence and patronage.

I shall sell only the best grades of merchandise, at the lowest possible prices, consistent with good quality.

I shall cheerfully refund money on any purchase that fails to meet with the entire approval of a customer. Give me a chance to prove my good intentions.

Special for Saturday, March 20, 1915.

Boys Suits, worth $3.50 at $1.90.

For Monday, March 22, 1915.

Seven cent calico, apron gingham, and muslin, no more than ten yards to each customer

3 1-2 cents per yard.

I. WEINSTEIN

Naugle Bldg., Next to PostOffice, Meyersdale, Pa.

Time and Money.
"Time is money," quoted the wiseguy.

"Yes; I suppose the man who makes a god of money can also serve time," added the simple mug.—Philadelphia Record.

The Man of the Hour.

Little Charles was sent to Miss R.'s to return a basket. He was received very cordially and invited to come "some time and stay to dinner." "Thank you," said Charles solemnly. "I will. I'll stay today."—Exchange.

Spoiled Her Trip.

"Then your wife didn't enjoy her trip to Niagara?"
"No. The minute she saw that rushing water she began to wonder if she hadn't come away from home and left a faucet running."—Pittsburgh Post.

A Demonstration.

"I distinctly saw you with a policeman's arms around you."
"Oh, yes, mum! Wasn't it nice of him? He was showin' me how to hold a burglar if I found one in the house."—Life.