

Easter Week

Featuring Fashionable Apparel for Easter and After, With Attractive Values to Heighten the Importance of the Display

MEN CAN BUY THEIR EASTER NEEDS AT VERY ATTRACTIVE PRICES THIS WEEK.

We have made ample preparation for men in our Easter plans, gathering comprehensive lines of the best makes of men's wear and selecting new Spring styles that will particularly appeal to our men customers.

BOYS' KNEE PANTS' SUITS.

Our showings of the very newest Styles are on display. Prices, $2.50, $3.00, $4.50, $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00.

INTERESTING as have been the collections of Spring apparel that we have already shown this season, they are not as comprehensive as the assortments we shall present this week. Our earlier displays have been swelled by new arrivals which reflect the most recent whims of fashion. We are now prepared to show you the broadest and most complete assortments of Easter and later Spring Wearables this store has ever held.

MANY NEW STYLES IN SKIRTS AND WAISTS.

The separate skirt and waist always have a well-defined place in the wardrobes of well-dressed women. We are showing some exceptionally attractive styles in both skirts and waists which are sure to please you.

NEW SHOES FOR THE EASTER PROMENADE.

The peacock with all his fine feathers is ashamed when he looks at his feet. Dress your feet in a pair of our stylish shoes and you won't be a bit uneasy about their appearance.

YOU STILL HAVE TIME TO MAKE YOUR OWN APPAREL FOR EASTER

We have the wash goods, dress goods, or silks you want. Every fashionable weave, pattern and color is represented in our stock. Good qualities—low prices.

THE CORRECT ACCESSORIES FOR EASTER WEAR.

Neckwear, Gloves, Scarfs, Ribbons, Etc. are just as important in their way as the suit or dress. These aids to an attractive appearance are here in complete varieties, at pleasingly low prices.

EVERY WOMAN wants new apparel to wear on Easter Sunday; every woman wants to be seen at her best. Winter clothes have no place amid the new fashions with which Easter Day marks the advent of Spring. You can select your Easter Outfit satisfactorily and economically here this week; satisfactorily because of the complete assortments of correct and stylish garments we offer; economically because of the attractively low prices we quote:

YOU WILL LOOK YOUR BEST IN ONE OF THESE CHARMING DRESSES

Lovely dresses like these are not likely to go begging for purchasers, especially when prices are so attractive. Therefore we advise you to come early in the week and secure the pick of the styles.

OF COURSE YOU WILL WANT A NEW HAT FOR EASTER

The hat is probably the most important of your Easter purchases and it should never be selected hastily. We would therefore suggest that you choose it as early in the week as possible, when you can do so unhurriedly and with the greatest satisfaction. The smart and attractive new hats we now have on display will appeal to you because of their quality and becomingness. And you will like their reasonable prices as well.

YOU WILL WANT A NEW SUIT OR COAT FOR EASTER.

You can select it here confident that whatever style you choose is correct. So large is our present assortment that a becoming suit and coat is assured every purchaser.

YOU JUDGE A STORE BY

The quality of its merchandise and service. We sell "WOOL-TEX" and the reason of this—they are made right and stay right.

MILLER & COLLINS

Meyersdale,

Penn'a.

SOMERSET COUNTY WEDDINGS
Miss Caroline M. Menser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander A. Menser, and Ernest P. Cober, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Cober, both of Somerset, were married at Somerset by the Rev. Dr. Hiram King.

Miss Carrie Washington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Henry, and J. Edward Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, both of Meyersdale, were married at Meyersdale, by Justice of the Peace W. H. Hay.

Miss Mary Hostetler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hostetler, and Arthur Faidley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Faidley, both of Summit township, were married at Garrett by the Rev. W. H. B. Carney, pastor of the Garrett Lutheran church.

Miss Lucy C. Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts and Patsy Monone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Monone, both of Garrett, were married at Garrett by the Rev. O. G. Fye.

Miss Pearl May Thorpe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Thorpe, of Berlin, and Ira E. Weigle of Stonycreek township, were married at Somerset by the Rev. J. Hess Wagner, pastor of the Somerset Lutheran church.

Miss Susan Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Miller of Jefferson township, and Clark J. Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Albert Bell of Jenner township, were married at Jenner township, by the Rev. John W. Albertson.

Miss Edith May Southwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Southwell and Arthur Hall, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hall, both of Jerome, were married at Holsopple by the Rev. A. Davidson.

Mrs. Rebecca E. Shaffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin B. Blough, of Stanton's Mill, and Grover Cleveland Halfin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Halfin, of Boswell, were married at the court house by Marriage License Clerk Bert F. Landis.

ST. PAUL.
Mrs. Mamie Sechler, who had been confined to her bed for a short time with grip, is about again.

The quarantine was lifted from the home of Francis Sipple last week.

No more cases of scarletina developed during the week and all who had the disease are rapidly getting well.

Miss Blanche Engle, who had been working in Greenville, Pa., is home for a few weeks.

The schools were in session all week and we hope there will be no further necessity to close them on account of contagious diseases.

The Socialist branch will meet Friday evening of this week in St. Paul. If you want to know why the Socialists do not want to divide with those who do no useful labor; why it would take the club from the capitalists with which they commit robbery; why it would establish an industrial system that would make it possible to use all knowledge in the possession of the race for the good of all its members, attend the Socialist meetings.

WELLESBURG.
Mrs. G. A. Tressler was a caller at the home of her brother, Ira Roger, of Alleghany, on Sunday.

Mrs. A. Glessner spent a few days with relatives in Mt. Savage and Cumberland last week.

Miss Lillian Everline, of Corrigansville, is spending a few days with relatives in town.

Mrs. Agnes Kenney, of Mt. Savage, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Wm. Baker.

Mr. W. E. Law, of LaVale has moved into the late Mrs. J. P. Meyers house.

Misses Edna Witt and Susan Shaffer were pleasant callers in Mt. Savage on Sunday.

W. K. Kennell is suffering with La-grippe.

Mrs. Wm. Dom and sons, Curtis and Wilbert after spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Suder accompanied by them and their daughter, Blanche, returned to her home in town recently.

BERLIN.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fornwaldt and daughter, Margaret, of Moxham, were visitors for a few days at the home of their relatives, Mrs. Lucinda Fornwaldt and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fornwaldt.

Jerry Smith, manager of the Dull Mercantile Co., at Goodtown, was a visitor to Baltimore over Sunday, going to see his wife who is a patient at Johns Hopkins hospital.

Mrs. Mary Philson was a recent Meyersdale visitor.

The mines are still working on short time with little prospect of improvement.

A. R. Dallam was a business visitor in Pittsburgh recently.

J. B. Schrock is being urged by his friends to become a candidate for clerk of the courts, on the Republican ticket.

Mrs. Emma Johnson has gone on an extended visit with her son, Howard, in Philadelphia.

HOOVERVILLE.

Park Boyer, of Hooversville, had his left arm mangled by being caught under a trip of cars at the No. 3 mine of the Knickerbocker Coal Co., and the member was amputated at a Johnstown hospital, Friday.

Rev. William E. Sunday, of New Bethlehem, has accepted the call of the Hooversville-Lambertville Lutheran charge. Rev. Sunday is not related to the celebrated evangelist. He will assume the new pastorate soon after April 1st, and will have his parsonage at Hooversville.

The Hooversville High School boys and girls are presenting a playlet entitled "Finnegan's Fortune" on the evenings of March 23 and 24 in the Savoy Theatre. The cast of characters will be as follows: Larry Finnegan, Andrew Nichol; Mrs. Finnegan, A. B. Wilson; "Dutch Jake," Harold Crissy; Rafferty, Fred Doyle; Count De Mornay, Frank Ober; Katy, the daughter of Dutch Jake, Margaret Boltzer; Lady Hannah Lovejoy, Margaret Berkey.

GARRETT.

Farmers are busy making maple sugar these days, but report a rather poor crop so far.

Donald Craig, who was confined to his home for a week on account of sickness, returned to his work at Ralplton on Monday.

The Easter Bazaar held in the Lutheran Church on St. Patrick's Day was a grand success.

Many of our people are suffering with a severe attack of the grip.

Miss Lucy Kegg, of Johnstown passed several days this week at the home of Mr. E. E. Carver.

The last number of the lyceum course was given by The Wells Entertainers in the local opera house on Tuesday evening and was the best number of the entire course and the attendance was unusually large.

The sick are slowly improving.

Our churches are making rapid preparations for their Easter services.

Beef Plate Boll 12-12c lb. Beef Chuck Boll, 15c lb. at Donges Market.

GLENCOE.

W. H. Ellman, of Cumberland showed nerve by motoring from the Southland to our prairies in a Ford, Saturday. But the boat is a regular submarine for wading snow.

Wm. Ephardt, of McKeesport spent a few days of this week with his family.

Mrs. Fanny Webreck returned to her home on Thursday after six weeks' visit with relatives in Illinois.

Mrs. N. B. Poorbaugh spent part of Saturday with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Miller. Her little boy Chas. acted as chafeur.

Harry Bittner and wife, of Rockwood, were Sunday callers in our town.

Mrs. Willis Schrock is spending the week with friends in Connellsville and Bridgeport.

Jacob Meyers and little daughter, of Pittsburg, were week-end visitors of W. J. Meyers.

Mrs. W. H. Cook enjoyed a few days at Mt. Savage at the home of Mrs. Frank Aldrich.

The Misses Marion and Leah Leydig went to Meyersdale on Saturday to attend the funeral of Miss Nelle Dom.

Irwin Huges and Walter Cattell, members of the regular army of U. S. returned to camp, near Washington, D. C., after ten days of visiting with friends and relatives here.

When indoubt which orchestra to hire for a dance, try the "Suburb Quartette"—the big drums are Walter, Ben, Bob, and "Pearlie."

Dr. J. H. Spicer, of Cumberland, happened in, our burg on Saturday night.

And Mabel Snyder was made happy again by the arrival of Blondy on Saturday afternoon.

PAINT TOWNSHIP.

Geo. Cronely, of Middletown, has just completed the erection of a six room cottage in Slavonica.

Mrs. M. C. Yoder, of Paint Borough, is improving after a serious illness of several weeks' duration. Several physicians have been called in consultation on her case.

Jonas Weaver, of Paint township, is erecting a commodious dwelling just outside the borough limits.

Jay Ripple is building a new home on Bedford street.

Earl Spencer, a student of the Indiana Normal, is spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Ellen Spencer.

HARTLEY & BALDWIN

It's very easy to point out the direct line of march you should follow to arrive at the best clothes in town, just walk right along until you come to this store, and ask to be shown

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

new spring models in suits for men and young men.

HARTLEY & BALDWIN, The Home of Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes MEYERSDALE, PA.

Tressler Millinery Opening

Friday and Saturday
March 26 and 27

The Latest Styles at the Most Reasonable Prices.

Lutie Tressler
South Side, Meyersdale.

Country Cured Hams and Shoulders. Donges Market. We don't weigh the paper with our meat. DONGES MARKET.