

SALISBURY.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farmer celebrated their 22nd wedding anniversary and at the same time Mr. Farmer's 46 birthday by entertaining some of their relatives and friends at their home on Gay street last Tuesday evening, Mar. 23. A sumptuous supper was served at 9 o'clock. Those present were—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farmer, Misses Mabel and Jean Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lichliter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johns and Miss Edith Lichliter.
Ed. Durst, of Savage, was a Salisbury visitor on Saturday.
Snakeologist, Jerry Shoemaker, of Sand Flat, was a business visitor to our town on Saturday and while here attended the public sale of Burt Rexford.

Miss Dessie Swatzwelder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swatzwelder was taken to the Western Maryland hospital in Cumberland on Monday to undergo an operation for appendicitis.
Mrs. Ernest Welfley was taken to the state hospital at Johnstown on Saturday night to have a tumor removed. The patient was accompanied by her husband and Dr. P. L. Swank. Mr. Welfley remained in Johnstown and Dr. Swank returned home on Sunday evening.

Work was resumed at mine No. 2 of the Grassy Run Coal Co. on Monday, the collapsed part of the tippie having been rebuilt during the nine days shut down.

Orlando Flesher, of Youngwood Pa. was visiting in Salisbury and Elk Lick township, the forepart of this week.
Byron Piatt, "The Prophet of a New Era," will appear in the lecture course in Hay's Opera House on Wednesday evening, March 31.

The Salisbury orchestra, assisted by other local talent, will give a return engagement of the temperance play, "Under the Spell" on Easter Monday night, April 5.

Miss Ruth Shaw returned last Thursday from Penn Hall, Chambersburg, to spend the Easter season with her mother, Mrs. Lydia Shaw. Miss Helen Shaw, a student at Goucher College, Baltimore is also spending the spring vacation at home.

Burt Rexford disposed of his household goods at public sale on Saturday and on Saturday night started for their new home in Alabama.

District Attorney V. R. Saylor, of Somerset, was a guest of honor at the K. of P. banquet here on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lang moved from the P. L. Livengood property on Grant street, Salisbury to the W. S. Miller home in Meyersdale.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stevaans and children, Thelma and Alma visited at the home of Mr. Stevanus's sister, Mrs. Clarence Hetrick in Garrett Co., Md. on Sunday last.

Mrs. Thos. McDowell is visiting her niece, Miss Jessie McKinley in Meyersdale.

Mrs. Louisa Hawn went to Tuscarora, Md. on Sunday to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Derry.

J. L. Kendall, of Pittsburg, president of the Kendall Lumber Co., came to Salisbury on Tuesday evening and on Wednesday attended the bankrupt's sale at the Cooke and Sechler saw mill, near West Salisbury.

Miss Pearl Newman spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. N. P. Meyers in Summit twp.

Max Momelen, of Jersey Shore, bought the sawmill property at the Cooke and Sechler sale last Wednesday for $5,170 and it is likely that the mill will resume operations this spring to handle the balance of the fine timber along Tubmill run. The wages due the laboring men was paid in full and it is thought that other creditors will get about thirty cents on the dollar.

The last quarantine for scarlet fever in this town at present was lifted on Saturday. It was at the home of Chas. Youner. During the epidemic there were in all about sixty cases of the malady but it bids fair to be about all over now.

Robert Dunbar, of Jersey Shore, attended the Cooke & Sechler sale, Lewis Tressler, of near Niverton, will move to Elizabeth Pa. to engage in farming.

HOOVERSVILLE.
On Saturday, the P. O. S. F. A. Camp No. 752, of Hooversville presented a large United States flag to the Blough school at Blough station at 1 o'clock p. m. and the occasion was a very enjoyable one. The following program was well rendered—Presentation address, J. W. Foster; acceptance address, in behalf of the school, Prof. Russell O. Moore and other speakers; Dollie Berkebile, Ellen Blough, Sadie Pugh and Cotta Ringer. A fifty-foot pole had already been erected by the citizens of the school district.

3 Cans Kidney Beans for 25 cts. at Bittner's Grocery.

MARKLETON.
Here we come again!
The sugar season has been a poor one thus far.

Dr. Chas. J. Hemminger, of Rockwood, on last Tuesday accompanied Ray Marlett to Pittsburg where Mr. Marlett was operated upon for appendicitis.

John Meyers who has been ailing for the past few weeks with throat trouble was taken to the hospital at Pittsburg Saturday by Dr. Hemminger.

Prof. Chas. W. Baldwin, of Meyersdale was here on Thursday evening instructing the band boys. Charley says they are coming.

Messrs. Fred Ream, Daniel Marker, Herman Funk and Cyrus Knopsnyder were county seat visitors, on Saturday on business.

Floyd Robinette had rather an exciting time Saturday morning. Thinking it was late he hurried down stairs and made a fire in the kitchen stove and then stirred the fire in the other room stove, but not seeing any signs of fire picked up the oil can and poured on some oil, when she let go. Robinette says he does not know which was going first. The stove was hurled into the centre of the room and the pipes from both stoves were found out in the front yard.

Thespelling bee held here last Friday evening was quite a success and largely attended.

Misses Alice Philippi and Mabel Snyder were guests at the home of Mrs. Milton Schrack, Sunday.

Miss Lena Philippi, of Kingwood, visited at the home of M. A. Snyder, recently.

Messrs. Frank Marlett and Chas. Meyers on Monday went to Pittsburg to visit friends.

James Seggie, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks at Markleton, was not expected to live over Sunday but has taken a turn for the better.

Mrs. John Stein, Mrs. Peter Hawn and Mrs. Geo. Stein were Saturday visitors, the latter going to see her uncle, James Seggie.

BERKLEY.
Winter is still in progress around Berkley.

Jerry Miller is getting ready to move. We are sorry to lose Jerry, but we hope he will be well pleased with his new home.

Meyersdale Bargain House

ONLY A FEW DAYS MORE. If you don't attend these last and closing days' sale, you will feel the bitterest disappointment of your life. Every person who attends this remarkable sale, will be surprised and astonished. The skeptical merchant who can't get any credit, and buys his goods in the retail stores and pays his price for his handful of goods, which he sells to his customers for three prices, and doesn't do any business; that is what makes him jealous of the rest of the merchants in town. But now you know as the price concessions are lower than were anticipated in our store.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!!! Are still here come and get your share. It is a mighty selling effort taking in every department of this great Bargain House and placing before you the greatest value you ever saw. We were never more determined to wind up the sale and nothing will cause us to hesitate one minute, no matter what the loss is.

EVERY ITEM MENTIONED IN THE PRICE LIST—Below is the season's productions and the best that can be bought for the money. The goods are equal in quality to any sold in any Meyersdale department store. This is a bold statement to make but the character of our goods we are daily displaying in our store room and the selling to hosts of satisfied customers, warrants the statements we have made.
