

SALISBURY.

Since the trout season opened quite a number of our disciples of Izaak Walton have been making a try for the wary speckled beauties. The game and fish wardens were on the job too, and several fishermen were returned for catching trout under size. Elsewhere will be found more of a detailed account of the legal side of fishing. Sam Gray, of Coal Run who has been working on the public roads in the township, declares that he will absolutely refuse to work on the roads close to any stream for fear that he may inadvertently trample some of the little fish that come out upon the bank to sun themselves and thereby make himself liable to the law.

John Reese has been on the sick list for the past week and is going better.

Joe Dürst, of Grantsville, Md., was a business visitor to our city last Saturday.

Letters of administration have been issued to Samuel L. Livengood of this place for the estate of his father, Jere J. Livengood, lately deceased.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brown and family, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Shoemaker and family and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoover spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Housel near Finzel, Md., in honor of Mr. Housel's birthday which was on Saturday.

Mrs. Hulda Inks and daughters, Emma and Bertha moved last week from West Salisbury to the Maust property on Gay street.

Dale Miller, the efficient book-keeper, for the 20th Century Mfg. Co. at Boynton has purchased a fine motor cycle.

W. B. Stevanus was the guest of his friend G. H. Swayne near Coal Run on Sunday afternoon.

Harry McClure who had been employed at the Queen City Garage Co in Cumberland has quit that job and will look for work elsewhere.

On Wednesday evening the Salisbury Base Ball team played with the Grantsville boys in the engine house. The score at the end stood in favor of the Grantsville boys.

Ernest Welfley spent Saturday in Johnstown, visiting his wife at the Cottage State Hospital. Mrs. Welfley is recovering nicely from her operation.

The home of Frank Knecht in West Salisbury is quarantined on account of diphtheria in the family.

Irvin Welfley and "Reddy" Inks started last week for Detroit, Mich., where they expect to find employment.

Miss Fannie Clark, M. A. Wager and Daniel Dürst last week purchased Ford cars from the West Salisbury Garage Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Jere Miller moved from Berkley Mills to the Powell property on Gay street which he purchased recently and are making many improvements.

Mrs. Annie Lambert and William Lambert returned last week from Dornora where they had spent the winter. Mrs. Lambert has gone to housekeeping in her home on "Gravel Hill" and William returned to Dornora where he is employed in the steel works.

Wm. K. Murray who lives with his son, James Murray at West Salisbury last Thursday celebrated his 84th birthday.

A small fire on the roof of the house of Mrs. Mary Newman on Gay street last Wednesday morning was discovered in time to prevent much damage.

The Salisbury orchestra and their amateur players went to Grantsville on Saturday evening to give a return play of the popular drama "Under the Spell." They had a big house.

A young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John House, of West Salisbury has been seriously ill for several weeks. She had supposedly recovered from an attack of scarlet fever and her late illness is due to the wake of the former disease.

Mahlon Wisler, of St. Paul has purchased a new Ford Car.

Mrs. J. C. Lichter, and Miss Edith Lichter spent last Wednesday in Meyersdale.

Bern to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newman on April 12, a daughter.

Wm. Hawm, an aged resident of this place suffered a stroke of paralysis last Wednesday and is in a precarious condition.

Mrs. Fannie Gortner, of Cumberland visited Mrs. Lydia Shaw a part of last week.

Casper Wahl spent several days of last week at Somerset.

ATCHISON—SNYDER.

Miss Florence Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Snyder, of Rockwood, was married on April 14, to Mr. James Atchison, of the same place. The ceremony was performed at the United Evangelical parsonage in Somerset by Rev. B. B. Collins. The groom is a motorman for the State Line Coal Co. The young couple will reside at Rockwood.

W. H. Deeter made a trip last week to Lynchburg, Va. on business.

GLENCOE

Mrs. C. A. Purbaugh and children, of Connellsville, spent the week-end with W. J. Meyers.

Dr. I. C. Miller, an interne in the Allegheny General Hospital, at Pittsburgh, spent several days of last week in town in attendance on his brother, Frank. The latter was taken on Friday night to the aforesaid hospital.

B. F. Bittner and family are wearing that labeled smile that accompanies the birth of a first grand-son and nephew. Nelson Bittner, of Akron, Ohio, is the proud father of the youngster.

Sure and Kelley was in town on Sunday—this accounts for the smiling Leah Webreck at C. E. on Sunday night.

H. E. Bittner and wife, of Rockwood, Sundayed here with relatives.

W. H. Hasselrode and family attended the funeral of Henry Delbrooke, on Wednesday, the latter being the father of Mrs. Hasselrode.

Mabel Snyder was a Cumberland visitor on Tuesday.

Bessie Martz was a Meyersdale caller, Friday.

An auto party from Cumberland headed by Dr. Spicer, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of I. D. Leydig.

Charles Webreck is back at work at Johnstown after a few days of real "sod busting" on his Dad's plantation.

BRUSHCREEK

George Brick made a special trip to Berlin Saturday last to act as a witness in the case of B. Lambert and the Allegheny road supervisors.

Ralph Engleka was a business caller at Berlin the beginning of the week.

The services at Mt. Lebanon were well attended both Saturday and Sunday.

Saturday night was a lucky time for Brushcreek boys as the ladies thought it was leap year—at least they acted that way. When they took their friends home at least they were on the "Right side."

Ben Leydig is our R. F. D. carrier on account of the illness of the regular carrier, F. B. Miller.

Howard Keefer has returned home from a business trip to Altoona.

As the schools have closed around here the teachers are taking a vacation and getting ready for Normal.

The farmers have finished boiling sugar and are busy getting ready to sow their oats and also thinking about planting their potatoes.

Our friend "Tommy" is the ladies' friend and when he joins the crowd the rest of the boys must take a back seat but, sad to say, sometimes he gets on the wrong road and arrives home only in time for breakfast.

WELLERSBURG.

F. P. Shaffer was in Cumberland, Saturday, on business.

Miss Lillian Everline, of Corri, gansville, is spending a few days in town with relatives.

Miss Edna Elrick, of Frostburg, visited her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Sturtz, recently.

G. W. Witt was a business caller in Meyersdale last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lepley and son, Victor, spent Sunday with relatives near town.

Mr. Henry Delbrook, a well known resident of this place, died Saturday night at his home in this place. Mr. Delbrook had been ill for a long time. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon, Rev. George Metzgar, of Frostburg, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hostleroth and family of Glencoe, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Hostleroth's mother, Mrs. H. Delbrook.

George Delbrook, of Pine Hill, is here on account of the death of his father.

Archie Elrick, of Thomas, W. Va., is spending a few weeks with relatives in town.

Mrs. G. W. Witt and daughter, Edna, spent Monday in Cumberland on business.

ROCKWOOD

Miss Kathleen Baker, of Holland, Bucks county, is visiting her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Moore, and great uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Moore at New Lexington.

Mrs. Harriet Gibbons, of Princeton, N. J., is spending several months at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Moore, at New Lexington. She was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. C. A. Miller, of this place.

R. R. Souser, who has been appointed postmaster to succeed J. C. F. Miller, assumed his duties, April 15.

Ephraim Farling is moving his family and household goods from the Moyer property on Main street to the Frank Kimmel house on East Broadway.

Mrs. George Filcer, of Somerset, who has been seriously ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Farling, in this place, as the result of pomaine poisoning, from eating canned tomato soup is improving.

You Are Invited to Visit

Miss McCormick,

the special demonstrating expert of

Modart Corsets
Front Laced

Will be at Our Store

Monday - Tuesday - Wednesday
APRIL 26 - 27 - 28

exploiting the merits of the MODART in our Corset Shop, and who will be pleased to make appointments by letter or telephone for special fittings.

This wonderfully designed and constructed corset embodies, we believe, all that any woman can expect of a corset—style, expert workmanship and high quality materials throughout.

Miller & Collins

"Everything New That's Good"

Dove

Sand

White

Buck

APPROPRIATE FOOTWEAR FOR SPRING

Men will be fashionably shod if they wear any one of Tom & Jim's new spring and summer styles in Black, White or Russet.

Women will be fashionably shod if they wear a pair of Tom & Jim's Exclusive styles in Colonial Pumps and Tailor Tops in the colors above mentioned.

We also have the prettiest line of Baby Doll and Mary Jane pumps for Misses, Children and growing girls, that was ever shown in the town.

TOM & JIM
PITTEES OF FEET

Meyersdale,

Penn'a

ST. PAUL.

Solomon Lepley, of Connellsville was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lepley over Sunday.

Mrs. Annie Harding, of West Salisbury, called on some of her St. Paul friends on Sunday.

Miss Charlotte Harding, of West Salisbury, was a caller at the home of H. G. Lepley, on Sunday.

Samuel Engle, of Coal Run, and Simon Fullum, of Meyersdale, were guests at the home of Francis Sipple, Sunday.

Mrs. John Engle visited her father, Jos. Sumac, of Summit Mills, the beginning of the week.

Church services for the Reformed church were announced for Sunday, May 2 at 10 a. m. Rev. J. E. Metzger to preach.

BERLIN.

Mrs. Annie Knepper and daughter, Cleo, have gone to Latrobe and Johnstown to visit relatives.

Messrs. Joe Kantner and Luther Bittner, engineers for the Consolidation Coal Co., of Somerset, were visitors to Pinehill, recently.

Mrs. Alma Heffley is spending several weeks with friends in Greensburg.

The 14-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, of Berlin was brought back home from Akron, Ohio, a few days ago by Chief of Police Hare, of Meyersdale. The boy had taken the trip without paternal consent.

Our Normal School will open on

SCHOOL CHILDREN SUFFER

From imperfect vision and are called dull in studies. We give careful attention to the fitting of Children's study glasses, assuring good results in all cases.

Bring Your Child in For an Eye Examination.

COOK

The Optometrist Optician.

Monday, May 17.

The player-piano in the Fred Groff trade expansion campaign, was won by Minnie Dickey.

Mrs. John T. Mitchell and daughter, Miss Rose, of Oakland, Md., arrived here Saturday and are guests of Mrs. Sue Liston.