

SALISBURY.

Albert Reitz and Ernest Livengood are regrading their tennis ground. The Boys Scouts of town and the Grantsville Scrubs played a game of basket ball in the fire engine house on Wednesday evening. The honors were with the home team, 22 to 27.

The Western Maryland All Stars played a game with our older boys one day last week and the result was a victory for the Salisbury team.

Miss Marie Yalst went to Johnstown the latter part of the week to work in a hotel.

W. H. Derry and family moved on Monday into the Jere Livengood property recently purchased by John Knecht.

C. T. Hay was a Cumberland visitor last Tuesday, making the trip in his new Ford touring car.

Miss Margaret Alexander returned home last week from Terra Alto, W. Va., where she had been teaching school during the winter.

Dewey Alexander took the preliminary examination at Cumberland last week with a view of entering the U. S. Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hammill and Mrs. Orville Shellbaer, of Meyersdale were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stotler one day last week.

Mrs. E. E. Hasselbarth and Miss Charlotta Boyer returned Wednesday from a three days' trip to Pittsburg in the interests of the Elk Lick Millinery.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Livengood and children, Miss Elizabeth of Elk Lick township, and Miss Edith Just, of Meyersdale, motored to Cumberland, last Tuesday.

John Knecht, of West Salisbury has purchased the Jere Livengood property from C. T. Hay.

M. R. Hay, manager of the P. S. Hay store, attended to business matters in Pittsburg, last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McKinley and children of McDonalidon and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, of Pine Hill were visitors at the home of the former's, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. McKinley, during the week.

Dr. Lloyd Loechel and Wm. Harding attended the dance in the auditorium on Tuesday night.

Miss Margaret Newman is spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. N. P. Meyers in Summit township.

H. H. Maust was a business visitor to Baltimore and New York City last week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Miller on April 17 adughter.

Mrs. A. M. Lichty and Miss Elizabeth spent last week in Pittsburg.

The W. C. T. U. met on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. S. S. Wells on Gay street.

A lawn fête and box social was given by the King's Daughters class of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School Saturday evening April 24 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Meager.

Mrs. Alfred Welmer entertained a number of children at her home on Wednesday, April 21 from 4 until 7 p. m. In honor of her son's Joseph's birthday. Delicious refreshments were served and the youngsters had a jolly good time.

Wednesday night some mischievous person or persons entered the lot of James Morton and stripped the beautiful blooms from a row of Easter flowers.

Miss Fannie Clark and Mrs. Robert Brandler spent last Thursday in Meyersdale.

Miss Myrtle Dickey visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Boyer in Meyersdale and at the home of Mrs. P. S. Baer in Brothersvalley township the past week.

VICINITY HANDWORK SCHOOL

A few days ago one of Edwin Miller's children fell from a horse and injured itself so that a physician had to be called.

Miss Lucinda Johnson who has been on the sick list for some time is convalescing very nicely.

Mrs. John Beal who had been sick is out again.

Martin Johnson started out on the 23rd. of April grafting fruit trees.

Jerry Stevanus who had been out in Ohio for a certain purpose, is back home again.

Dennis Bockes, our pennyroyal farmer is a student under R. J. Engle to learn the auctioneering profession and his first lesson was to be at the public sale of Mrs. Hersh in Northampton township. Mr. Bockes however, rather thinks he would not wish to be so much in the limelight.

The revival at Centre Church is still in progress, there being quite a number of converts.

There is some family trouble in one of the homes in our community. The husband beat the wife and then had to make all sorts of promises before the 'squire in Meyersdale and now the husband is good again.

S. M. Cnagay said that he plowed 20 acres of corn ground in one week. He must be a hustler.

UNION VALLEY.

Everybody busy, sowing oats! Dr. Sass was caled to the home of Leroy Crissy, finding them down with severe cases of grip.

Grace Hartman was calling on her sister, Mrs. Conrad Keefer several days last week.

Mr. P. W. White and family were callers on Peter Felker's on Sunday last.

Howard Shockey was traveling through this place writing out insurance policies. He says, "Better have your life insured in time for the death reaper is traveling at a lively rate, having recently cut down Geo. Lottig, Samuel Brown and Michael Kelly."

H. B. Beal was out in the yard on Sunday for the first time for seven months.

Our mail carrier, C. M. Christner, started using his new buzz wagon last week but broke down the second trip. He says that the horse is the surest yet.

Mrs. Lewis Smith and Mrs. Chas. Keefer were callers at B. B. Beal's one day last week.

HOOVERSVILLE

Mrs. M. C. Smith, of Laurel, Montana who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Dr. Gldner, at Rockwood, the latter having been ill for some time with pneumonia, has taken her departure for her western home. David Wilt accompanied her.

Farming and housecleaning are the order of the day in our borough.

Mrs. Daisy B. Gates, of Hollidaysburg, was a recent visitor at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Dr. Gldner of Rockwood.

A welcome visitor is Mrs. Luigi Arena, of Palermo, Italy, who landed at New York, April 24, having arrived on the Steamship Caserta.

Joe DeMarco, of Hooversville, was a business visitor in Altoona, recently.

George W. Beck and grandson of near Ligonier, were visiting the former's son, Wood, at Rockwood, several days last week.

The fall grain is looking good and it appears that plum, apple and pear are going to have blossoms.

BERLIN.

A suffrage meeting will be held in the Berlin Opera House on Tuesday evening, May 4 at which time an address will be given by Mrs. Beatrice Forbes Robertson Hale.

Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Saylor and two children, of Berlin, called on friends in Meyersdale on Sunday.

Rev. J. F. Watson, the new pastor of the Berlin Brethren charge, is expected this week and will begin his pastorate on Sunday May 2, preaching at Downey in the morning; at Custer in the afternoon; and at Berlin in the evening.

Berlin council has petitioned the State and County Commissioners for financial aid in the paving of Main street from East End to the borough limits in the West End. Half of the expense will be born by the state, one-fourth by the county and one-fourth by the borough. The proposed improvements it is estimated will cost $30,000. The borough's share would be about $7,000, which would be met by a bond issue.

The seniors of the Berlin High School will present a play entitled, "The Princess" in the Berlin Opera on Tuesday evening, May 11, instead of holding the usual commencement exercises. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached in the Trinity Lutheran church on Sunday evening, May 9, by the Rev. H. B. Burkholder.

Frank L. Thompson has moved from Washington, D. C. to Berlin, having accepted a position in the Fred Groff Department store. He will occupy one of the J. B. Schrock houses on Main street. Mr. Thompson is a brother-in-law of C. F. Swope and Mrs. Elnora Groff.

The county commissioners have approved the petition prepared by the authorities of Berlin asking for state aid in the building of a stretch of brick road a little more than one mile in length. The road in question forms the Main street in Berlin and by the terms of a recent act of Assembly the State Highway Department is authorized to bear one-half of the expense of paving, the half being divided between the borough and the county. The petition will now go to Highway Commissioner Cunningham, and in case the necessary funds are available for paving the street early construction will be authorized.

Brethren Church—Preaching services next Sunday, May 2 at Summit Mills in the morning and at Salisbury in the afternoon. On account of the Union Meeting in the Lutheran Church there will be no preaching service in the Meyersdale Brethren Church in the evening. Beginning on next Monday evening, May 3, there will be services each evening during the week in the Salisbury Church at 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited. H. L. Goughnour, pastor.

THROUGHOUT THE COUNTY.

E. K. Reah, superintendent of the Federal Coal Company's operations at Hooversville, will move his family from Hooversville to Johnstown, where he has leased the John H. Walters residence at "The Rocks."

The business men of Windber, with the private residents, are registering a vigorous kick against the removal of the telephones from the office of the Adams Express company, as authorized by a recent sweeping order by the management of the express company in the interests of economy. A numerously signed petition has been circulated the last few days asking that the order for Windber be rescinded, as it works great inconvenience.

While he was assisting in removing the personal effects of Annie Baird from the old Bertram property on W. Main street, Somerset, C. E. Pile, superintendent of the Somerset Water works, found in the attic an old steamer trunk, which was filled with old publications and papers, the property of Christian Bertram, a native of Germany. Among them he found a German Bible, 100 years old.

The third sale of real estate of Geo. S. Mowry, the Windber bankrupt, was held on Saturday at the Somerset Courthouse by Trustee Clarence L. Shaver. W. G. Hostetler, of Middlecreek Township, bought a lot in Edgewood addition for $38. J. A. Berkey bought two lots in Edgewood for $90, a half interest in a tract of 431 acres in Shade township for $155, a half interest in 438 acres in Southampton Township for 25 cents.

Boswell Council Friday evening gave second reading to an ordinance giving a franchise to the Johnstown & Somerset Street Railway Company. The company secured a right of way through Conemaugh Township. It has had a franchise through Somerset Borough for several years. The corps of engineers making a preliminary survey is working between Somerset and Boswell and Saturday changed its headquarters from Somerset to Boswell.

The school board of Somerset Township has decided to omit the usual graduation exercises and instead will give the members of the class a trip to Washington, D. C. The school term ended April 27th. The trip will be taken May 20th to May 25th. The members of the class are: Russell Noon, Listie; James Smith, Martha Mostoller, Bess Shaulis, and Rachel Coleman, all from the vicinity of Friedens. The honor students are: First, Bess Shaulis; second, Martha Mostoller. The class colors are purple and gold, and the motto is, "The Horizon Widens as We Climb."

ROCKWOOD.

J. E. Johnson, baggage master on the Somerset & Cambria branch, has moved his family and household goods to Rockwood, where he will occupy the Peter Snyder property on East Broadway, formerly occupied by J. A. Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. William Zufall and daughter, Alta, expect to leave in a short time for the states of Kansas and Washington, where they will spend several weeks this summer visiting relatives.

C. E. Statler is seriously ill at his home on Main street, suffering from a severe attack of fever.

R. G. Shumaker has opened his new restaurant in the Welmer building on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Snyder announce the arrival at their Highland Addition of a 10-pound baby girl.

C. F. DeHaven left on Thursday for Johnstown, where he has secured employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bowman purpose leaving soon for a vis' with friends and relatives in Connellsville.

Mrs. E. G. Tressler, of Cumberland spent Friday of last week in Rockwood on business. The Tressler family expect to move to Rockwood shortly.

Mrs. William Wadsworth has gone to Baltimore where she purposes spending several days with her husband before returning home.

Mrs. F. W. Bruner is enjoying a few days home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malsberry at Hyndman.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Haugener of West Main street, on Friday a baby boy.

Miss Aquilla Christner, of Somerset is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walters, of the Miller block.

It is reliably reported that the mines of the Smokeless Coal Co. at Casselman will in th near future change hands and that the new firm will soon begin operations.

Mrs. Rose Snyder, of Milford township, is seriously ill at the Snyder residence, suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia. Her condition has become so complicated that the services of a trained nurse are required.

LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION

Victoria Sabot, estate of Andy Sabot, late of Boswell. Bond $200.

George H. Matthias, estate of Mary Matthias, late of Meyersdale. Bond $3,000.

Special Sale!

NEMO CORSETS
BEGINNING MONDAY, MAY-3
 FOR ONE WEEK ONLY
-- $5.00 Corsets for $3.00 --

Special "Invincible" Self-Reducing Corset in two Models, No. 344 for short full figures and No. 345 for taller full figures. Made of fine white mercerized batist that we use only in corsets at $5.00 and more.
Don't Miss This Opportunity.
MILLER & COLLINS

"Everything New That's Good"

Dove	Sand
White
Buck

APPROPRIATE FOOTWEAR FOR SPRING

Men will be fashionably shod if they wear any one of Tom & Jim's new spring and summer styles in Black, White or Russet.	Women will be fashionably shod if they wear a pair of Tom & Jim's Exclusive styles in Colonial Pumps and Tailor Tops in the colors above mentioned.
--	---

We also have the prettiest line of Baby Doll and Mary Jane pumps for Misses, Children and growing girls, that was ever shown in the town.

TOM & JIM
 FITTERS OF FEET
 Meyersdale, Penn'a

VIM.

D. M. Le and his son, George, and Asa Hoar spent last Thursday in Larimer township.

Miss Ella Witt, of Summit Mills spent last week at the home of Henry Suder.

Mrs. Bessie Fike and Mrs. Annie Fike passed last Sunday at the home of Walter Flester near New Centreville.

Ephraim Boger, of Hay's Mill, was a Vim caller on Monday.

George Meyer and family enjoyed last Sunday with is brother, Milton in Brothersvalley township.

Mrs. Alice Bowman, of near Summit Mills passed the Sabbath here with Vim friends and relatives.

Winnie May of Meyersdale spent last Sunday at the home of C. W. Tressler.

Fremont Fike was a Sunday afternoon caller at the home of S. J. Ringler, near Salisbury.

Mrs. C. W. Tressler returned home last Sunday evening after having spent a week in Scottdale.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Martin Patterson Critchfield and Nellie Viola Pyle, both of Windber.

Victor Schramm, of Salisbury, and Ada Bowman, of Boynton.

Harry Ogline, of Lincoln township, and Myrtle Miller, of Friedens.

George Bicko and Maria Magoves, both of Windber.

Frank Ripple and Minnie Michael, both of Jenner township.

William Koontz, of Somerset township, and Daisy Baker, of Markleton.

W. H. Bruce Carney, of Carrott, and Lydia V. Hay, of Berlin.

SCHOOL CHILDREN SUFFER

From imperfect vision and are called dull in studies. We give careful attention to the fitting of Children's study glasses, assuring good results in all cases.

Bring Your Child in For an Eye Examination.

COOK
 The Optometrist Optician.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Cook and children spent over Tuesday with the parents of Mrs. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Peck, of Savage, Pa.

Samuel Brant was badly kicked by a horse near Hay's Mill on Tuesday. Mr. Brant was in company with Mr. Schrock, of the Meyersdale brewery and the animal becoming samsned up things in general and Mr. Brant was thrown out of the buggy and injured as stated.