

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Miss Alice Friedline was a Cumberland visitor, one day last week. Miss Cordula Barmay is spending the week at Sand Patch.

Misses Nelle Cover, Leckemby and Gordon, of this place, spent Monday week at Sand Patch.

Mrs. Edgar Berkley Mills, very lately Miss Anna Sellers, was a Meyersdale visitor on Wednesday.

George Miller, a former resident, but now of Johnstown, was here Saturday on business.

J. E. Peck and wife spent Sunday with the latter's sister, Mrs. Scott Moser, of Elk Lick.

Mrs. Charles Richards and daughter, Miss Mae, of Johnstown, visited over Sunday at the M. A. Rutter home on Meyers avenue.

Arthur Albright, Porter Lantz and C. E. Livengood were among the Meyersdale visitors to Cumberland, on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bolden, and Miss Sara McKenzie, of Pochontas, were visitors at the S. J. McKenzie home Saturday.

R. F. Witt, of Johnstown, representing Haworth & Dewhurst, of Pittsburgh, was calling on his trade in town Tuesday.

Harvey T. Meyers, a prominent farmer of Northampton Township was among the business visitors in town Wednesday.

Mr. S. C. Hartley and his daughter, Mrs. James Hohlitzell attended the funeral of the former's brother's wife Mrs. J. M. Hartley at Fairmont, last Thursday.

W. M. Farnsworth, of the Farnsworth House, Jenners, has sold that property to Glenn Rose, of Braddock, who is expected to take possession about June 1. Mr. Farnsworth will live retired at Braddock.

We have still some garden seed left of a large mail bag full arriving this week at this office for Commercial subscribers, through the courtesy of United States Senator Oliver.

Ill health caused George B. Shaffer 75 years old, a Civil war veteran and a retired farmer of East Liberty, Fayette county, to end his life by shooting last Sunday. He was the father of Mrs. George Lyon, of Confluence.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hohlitzell, who for the past few months have been enjoying the farthest west state and are now in San Francisco, are turning their thoughts now and then homeward and expect to reach here by Memorial Day.

G. L. Benford was stricken with paralysis last Friday at his home on Main street. His right side is affected and also his speech. There is little improvement since he was taken ill. His wife has been an invalid for some time and thus the affliction is made doubly hard.

Mrs. W. H. Rutter, who spent a week in Somerset, recently, has returned and is now packing their household goods for shipment to Somerset where they will reside in the future it being more convenient as Mr. Rutter, who is employed with the Somerset Telephone Co., has been located there for some time.

The program for the 39th annual convention of the Lutheran Sunday School association of Somerset district which will be held in Zion Lutheran church, Meyersdale, on June 1, 8, and 9 has just been completed. This in full will be published in a later issue of the Commercial.

Mr. W. W. Nicholson, wife, son, Cyrus, his mother last week went to State College Centre county to visit his sister. Following his tarrying there for a few days, he went to Pottsville to attend a convention of The Knights of Malta, he being a delegate of the local lodge, the Teutonic Commandery.

C. C. Streng, who is to continue the milling business of the recent firm of Becker & Streng has had eight years experience in the business. He was a former teacher. The mill he is operating is well equipped with modern machinery and the liberal patronage accorded to the firm will no doubt be continued to the present owner.

Miss Bertha Lantz, aged 18 years, a daughter of Charles H. Lantz, died at her home in Cumberland on Friday evening from a complication of diseases. The father frequently visits Meyersdale and other parts of the county in the capacity of a piano tuner. One other daughter is left to the parents.

The bill repealing the full crew law and in its place requiring the public service commission to require railroads to employ an adequate number of men upon trains, was passed finally by the senate Monday night by a vote of 32 to 16. The bill now goes to the governor.

A very delightful birthday party was held a few days ago at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Reich in honor of the eleventh birthday anniversary of their daughter, Adalaid. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing various games, with music and partaking of a delicious lunch, after which Mrs. Reich escorted the party to the auditorium where they enjoyed the moving pictures. The little hostess was remembered by all of her guests, sixteen in number.

H. M. Cook, the jeweler, always has a very attractive show window. Just at this time he is making a record. Passers-by are stopping and looking at the photographs, which are of seven local engineers, namely—

Chas. Meyers, B. F. O'Bryon, W. F. Hady, William Miller, George Stein, James Darley and Joseph Dougherty, each holding a timepiece in his hand and saying something apt and laconic. These photographs are the work of Photographer Geldt and are a credit to his calling. To make the scene a little more realistic, a tiny R. R. with a train of cars which are operated by electricity is also there.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

The unusual scene of a married woman being graduated from a high school was witnessed at the commencement exercises in Rockwood on Wednesday evening. One of the young people receiving a diploma was Mrs. L. Leora Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield. The preceding Monday, Miss Critchfield and James B. Gates, of Altoona, went to Cumberland and were married.

Mrs. Gates returned to Rockwood that she might participate in the commencement, in which she had been assigned a prominent part. On Thursday she left for Altoona to join her husband.

NO. 5833 REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK Of Meyersdale, Penn'a. At the close of business, May 1st, 1915.

RESOURCES
1. a Loans and discounts (notes held in bank) ————	578,839.01	578,839.01
Total loans ————		193.33
2. Overdrafts unsecured $193.33 ————
3. a U. S. bonds deposited to secure circulation (par value) ————	65,000.00
b U. S. bonds pledged to secure U. S. deposits (par value) ————	8,000.00
c U. S. bonds pledged to secure postal savings deposits par value ————	2,000.00
Total U. S. bonds ————		75,000.00
4. b Bonds other than U. S. bonds pledged to secure U. S. deposits ————	2,000.00
c Bonds other than U. S. bonds pledged to secure postal savings deposits ————	3,000.00
f Securities other than U. S. bonds (not including stocks) owned ————	81,885.00	86,885.00
Total bonds, securities etc. ————
5. Subscription to stock of Federal Reserve Bank ————	9,900.00
a Less amount unpaid ————	4,950.00
b All other stocks including premium on same ————	7,125.00	12,075.00
6. Banking house $26,000.00; furniture and fixtures, $3,300.00 ————		29,300.00
7. Other real estate owned ————		6,200.00
8. Due from Federal Reserve Bank ————		9,950.87
9. a Due from approved reserve agents in New York, Chicago and St. Louis ————	12,914.26
b Due from approved reserve agents in other reserve cities ————	80,267.44	93,181.70
10. Due from banks and bankers other than included in 8 or 9 ————		34,632.15
13. a Outside checks and other cash items ————	2,811.00
b Fractional currency, nickels and cents ————	300.83	3,111.83
14. Notes of other national banks ————		5,000.00
15. Federal reserve notes ————		1,000.00
16. Total coin certificates ————		33,596.90
17. Legal tender notes ————		17,620.00
18. Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer, not more than 5 per cent circulation ————	2,250.00	2,250.00
Due from U. S. Treasurer ————		988,835.73
Total ————

LIABILITIES
1. Capital Stock paid in ————		65,000.00
2. Surplus fund ————		100,000.00
3. Undivided profits ———— $39,749.93	41,749.93
Reserved for interest — $2,000.00
Less current expenses, interest and taxes paid ————	9,910.73	31,839.15
4. Circulating notes ————	65,000.00
Less amount on hand and in Treasury for redemption or in transit ————	1,000.00	64,000.00
9. Demand deposits: ————
a Individual deposits subject to check ————	211,580.26
b Certificates of deposits due in less than 30 days ————	81,866.73
c Certified checks ————	758.14
d Cashier's checks outstanding ————	830.58
e United States deposits ————	9,458.71
f Postal Savings deposits ————	3,250.00
h Deposits requiring less than 30 days ————	828.05	308,608.14
10. a Certificates of deposit due on or after 30 days ————	127,123.33
c Deposits subject to 30 or more days' notice ————	291,992.55	419,115.88
Total ————		988,835.73

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA COUNTY OF SOMERSET SS:
I, R. H. PHILSON, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this fifth day of May, 1915.
ROBERT COOK, Notary Public.
My commission expires Mar. 26, '19.
Correct—Attest:
S. B. PHILSON,
CLARENCE MOORE,
S. C. HARTLEY, Directors

See our splendid line of ROOM SIZE RUGS
TAPESTRY VELVET, AXMINSTERS AND BODY BRUSSELS.

In addition to our stock on hand, we have a line of Samples representing hundreds of dollars worth of fine rugs from which you can make your selection in any size to fit any size room and at less price than you can buy in the cities.

HARTLEY & BALDWIN,
MEYERSDALE, PA.

CHANCE TO HEAR
ANTI-SUFFRAGETTE.

Miss Clara Markeson, a national organizer of the Anti-Suffragette movement, was a Meyersdale visitor on Monday, making arrangements for a public meeting to be held here in June.

PRATT'S ROUP CURE, white diarrhoea Remedy and loose killer. Guaranteed to cure. At HABEL & PHILLIPS.

GIVEN FREEDOM BUT UNDER PAROLE FOR ONE YEAR.

F. J. Dolan, who some time ago abused his wife and failed to provide for her and their two children, was arrested and placed in jail. A few days ago he agreed that the charges against him were true and asked for a sentence. This was given him by Judge Ruppel to the effect that his freedom is allowed him on the condition that he pay costs, go to work, pay for his family's support two dollars weekly for one year and report to the parole officer, Officer H. E. Bittner monthly paying him at that time for his wife's support. The wife and children have gone to Indiana county.

WEDNESDAY—Harry Smith, murder, B. H. Matthews, prosecutor; William Scott offense against morality, Jacob Capriatti, prosecutor.

THURSDAY—J. H. Murphy, forgery, Harvey Shaffer, prosecutor; Andrew Tankalovich and Frank Tankalovich, aggravated assault and battery, Anthony Good, prosecutor; Andrew Shytok, assault and battery, Tony Kalochek, prosecutor; Benny Gedrys assault and battery, Joseph Bolksky, prosecutor; Howard Crawford, offense against morality, May Hanes, prosecutrix; R. L. Byrd, practicing medicine without license, County Detective Lester G. Wagner, prosecutor; Joseph Phillips, assault and battery, S. M. Bigman, prosecutor; J. H. Lase, larceny, Jacob P. Hillegross, prosecutor; Crist Swartzendruber, offense against morality, Margie Viola Miller prosecutrix; Edward Greyback, offense against morality, Oleita Lewis, prosecutrix; John Wesley Alexander, offense against morality, Ida M. Yoder, prosecutrix; A. R. Stacke, offense against morality, Nellie Claycomb, prosecutrix; Lucy Ohler, offense against morality, Constable S. P. Lyons, prosecutor; Jennie Thompson, offense against morality, Constable R. D. Mey, prosecutor; Samuel Bige, aggravated assault and battery, J. W. Foster, prosecutor; Edward Lidstrom and David Lantz, offense against morality, S. E. McDonald, prosecutor; Joseph Sparado, Cornelio Merrioco, Alfred Jennetti and James Vertonia, burglary, L. R. Devore, prosecutor; Joseph Sparado, Cornelio Merrioco, Angelo Onesti, Alfred Jennetti, James Vertonia, Frank Sparado, burglary, Harry Phillips, prosecutor.

FRIDAY—J. H. Murphy, forgery, Harvey Shaffer, prosecutor; Andrew Tankalovich and Frank Tankalovich, aggravated assault and battery, Anthony Good, prosecutor; Andrew Shytok, assault and battery, Tony Kalochek, prosecutor; Benny Gedrys assault and battery, Joseph Bolksky, prosecutor; Howard Crawford, offense against morality, May Hanes, prosecutrix; R. L. Byrd, practicing medicine without license, County Detective Lester G. Wagner, prosecutor; Joseph Phillips, assault and battery, S. M. Bigman, prosecutor; J. H. Lase, larceny, Jacob P. Hillegross, prosecutor; Crist Swartzendruber, offense against morality, Margie Viola Miller prosecutrix; Edward Greyback, offense against morality, Oleita Lewis, prosecutrix; John Wesley Alexander, offense against morality, Ida M. Yoder, prosecutrix; A. R. Stacke, offense against morality, Nellie Claycomb, prosecutrix; Lucy Ohler, offense against morality, Constable S. P. Lyons, prosecutor; Jennie Thompson, offense against morality, Constable R. D. Mey, prosecutor; Samuel Bige, aggravated assault and battery, J. W. Foster, prosecutor; Edward Lidstrom and David Lantz, offense against morality, S. E. McDonald, prosecutor; Joseph Sparado, Cornelio Merrioco, Alfred Jennetti and James Vertonia, burglary, L. R. Devore, prosecutor; Joseph Sparado, Cornelio Merrioco, Angelo Onesti, Alfred Jennetti, James Vertonia, Frank Sparado, burglary, Harry Phillips, prosecutor.

SATURDAY—J. H. Murphy, forgery, Harvey Shaffer, prosecutor; Andrew Tankalovich and Frank Tankalovich, aggravated assault and battery, Anthony Good, prosecutor; Andrew Shytok, assault and battery, Tony Kalochek, prosecutor; Benny Gedrys assault and battery, Joseph Bolksky, prosecutor; Howard Crawford, offense against morality, May Hanes, prosecutrix; R. L. Byrd, practicing medicine without license, County Detective Lester G. Wagner, prosecutor; Joseph Phillips, assault and battery, S. M. Bigman, prosecutor; J. H. Lase, larceny, Jacob P. Hillegross, prosecutor; Crist Swartzendruber, offense against morality, Margie Viola Miller prosecutrix; Edward Greyback, offense against morality, Oleita Lewis, prosecutrix; John Wesley Alexander, offense against morality, Ida M. Yoder, prosecutrix; A. R. Stacke, offense against morality, Nellie Claycomb, prosecutrix; Lucy Ohler, offense against morality, Constable S. P. Lyons, prosecutor; Jennie Thompson, offense against morality, Constable R. D. Mey, prosecutor; Samuel Bige, aggravated assault and battery, J. W. Foster, prosecutor; Edward Lidstrom and David Lantz, offense against morality, S. E. McDonald, prosecutor; Joseph Sparado, Cornelio Merrioco, Alfred Jennetti and James Vertonia, burglary, L. R. Devore, prosecutor; Joseph Sparado, Cornelio Merrioco, Angelo Onesti, Alfred Jennetti, James Vertonia, Frank Sparado, burglary, Harry Phillips, prosecutor.

SUNDAY—J. H. Murphy, forgery, Harvey Shaffer, prosecutor; Andrew Tankalovich and Frank Tankalovich, aggravated assault and battery, Anthony Good, prosecutor; Andrew Shytok, assault and battery, Tony Kalochek, prosecutor; Benny Gedrys assault and battery, Joseph Bolksky, prosecutor; Howard Crawford, offense against morality, May Hanes, prosecutrix; R. L. Byrd, practicing medicine without license, County Detective Lester G. Wagner, prosecutor; Joseph Phillips, assault and battery, S. M. Bigman, prosecutor; J. H. Lase, larceny, Jacob P. Hillegross, prosecutor; Crist Swartzendruber, offense against morality, Margie Viola Miller prosecutrix; Edward Greyback, offense against morality, Oleita Lewis, prosecutrix; John Wesley Alexander, offense against morality, Ida M. Yoder, prosecutrix; A. R. Stacke, offense against morality, Nellie Claycomb, prosecutrix; Lucy Ohler, offense against morality, Constable S. P. Lyons, prosecutor; Jennie Thompson, offense against morality, Constable R. D. Mey, prosecutor; Samuel Bige, aggravated assault and battery, J. W. Foster, prosecutor; Edward Lidstrom and David Lantz, offense against morality, S. E. McDonald, prosecutor; Joseph Sparado, Cornelio Merrioco, Alfred Jennetti and James Vertonia, burglary, L. R. Devore, prosecutor; Joseph Sparado, Cornelio Merrioco, Angelo Onesti, Alfred Jennetti, James Vertonia, Frank Sparado, burglary, Harry Phillips, prosecutor.

MONDAY—J. H. Murphy, forgery, Harvey Shaffer, prosecutor; Andrew Tankalovich and Frank Tankalovich, aggravated assault and battery, Anthony Good, prosecutor; Andrew Shytok, assault and battery, Tony Kalochek, prosecutor; Benny Gedrys assault and battery, Joseph Bolksky, prosecutor; Howard Crawford, offense against morality, May Hanes, prosecutrix; R. L. Byrd, practicing medicine without license, County Detective Lester G. Wagner, prosecutor; Joseph Phillips, assault and battery, S. M. Bigman, prosecutor; J. H. Lase, larceny, Jacob P. Hillegross, prosecutor; Crist Swartzendruber, offense against morality, Margie Viola Miller prosecutrix; Edward Greyback, offense against morality, Oleita Lewis, prosecutrix; John Wesley Alexander, offense against morality, Ida M. Yoder, prosecutrix; A. R. Stacke, offense against morality, Nellie Claycomb, prosecutrix; Lucy Ohler, offense against morality, Constable S. P. Lyons, prosecutor; Jennie Thompson, offense against morality, Constable R. D. Mey, prosecutor; Samuel Bige, aggravated assault and battery, J. W. Foster, prosecutor; Edward Lidstrom and David Lantz, offense against morality, S. E. McDonald, prosecutor; Joseph Sparado, Cornelio Merrioco, Alfred Jennetti and James Vertonia, burglary, L. R. Devore, prosecutor; Joseph Sparado, Cornelio Merrioco, Angelo Onesti, Alfred Jennetti, James Vertonia, Frank Sparado, burglary, Harry Phillips, prosecutor.

TUESDAY—J. H. Murphy, forgery, Harvey Shaffer, prosecutor; Andrew Tankalovich and Frank Tankalovich, aggravated assault and battery, Anthony Good, prosecutor; Andrew Shytok, assault and battery, Tony Kalochek, prosecutor; Benny Gedrys assault and battery, Joseph Bolksky, prosecutor; Howard Crawford, offense against morality, May Hanes, prosecutrix; R. L. Byrd, practicing medicine without license, County Detective Lester G. Wagner, prosecutor; Joseph Phillips, assault and battery, S. M. Bigman, prosecutor; J. H. Lase, larceny, Jacob P. Hillegross, prosecutor; Crist Swartzendruber, offense against morality, Margie Viola Miller prosecutrix; Edward Greyback, offense against morality, Oleita Lewis, prosecutrix; John Wesley Alexander, offense against morality, Ida M. Yoder, prosecutrix; A. R. Stacke, offense against morality, Nellie Claycomb, prosecutrix; Lucy Ohler, offense against morality, Constable S. P. Lyons, prosecutor; Jennie Thompson, offense against morality, Constable R. D. Mey, prosecutor; Samuel Bige, aggravated assault and battery, J. W. Foster, prosecutor; Edward Lidstrom and David Lantz, offense against morality, S.