

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Thomas Cuminsky, of Martinsburg, was a recent visitor here.

Mrs. H. J. Wilmoth has returned from several days visit in Pittsburg.

The County Medical Association met yesterday at Windber.

Mrs. E. F. Hemminger is visiting her native place, Philadelphia, for a couple of weeks.

William Henry Emert and Jennie Edna Miller, both of Somerset, were married at Cumberland, recently.

Mrs. Wm. Daily was a visitor to Louacoing on Sunday being a member of an auto party.

Miss Elsie Satterfield, of Garrett, was the guest of Miss Emma Finnegan, of this place on Sunday.

Mrs. George Hocking returned home Monday after three weeks spent with her daughter at Dawson, Pa.

Mrs. Anna Hurley and Mrs. E. J. McKenzie have gone to Conneville to remain for an indefinite time.

Misses Martha and Mary Clark, of Glen Campbell, are guests at the home of Mrs. H. J. Wilmoth.

Miss Emma Voyce, of McDonaldton, Pa., is visiting Mrs. Clarence Rowe, of the South Side.

Mrs. I. N. McMillan and daughter, Helen, of Ursina, were Meyersdale shoppers, Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Roachbaugh and two children, of Hancock, Pa., are here with the former's parents.

Misses Anna and Myrtle Lowry have come to their home in Fairhope after being the guests of relatives here.

John Folk has located his sawmill on the Irvin Fike land and is making things hum at Summit Mills.

In the game of baseball last Saturday between Meyersdale and Garrett, the home team won by a score of 5-2.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jordan, of Somerset visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wiland Saturday evening and Sunday.

Holzshu & Welmer, grocers, are delivering their goods now with a new Studebaker auto-truck, which insures a prompt delivery.

Rev. Harry B. Angus, of Washington, who had been a guest at the Kendall home on North street, left Friday for his pastorate in the above city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kendall, of Oakland, Md., arrived here Sunday and are guests at the home of the former's brother, S. A. Kendall.

Mrs. G. L. Miller, of Rockwood, and her daughter, Mrs. Eula Maxwell of Castle Shannon were visitors here the latter part of the week.

Rev. Jesse Watson, of Berlin assisted Rev. Goughnour in his series of week-night services by preaching a much appreciated sermon here on Tuesday evening.

Mr. George Matthias returned yesterday from Pittsburg, where he had been visiting three of his children: Charles and Thomas Matthias and Mrs. Nellie Siehl.

Rev. Brandt, of Altoona, representing the Anti-Saloon League, was in town a few days ago, trying to make arrangement for a meeting here in June, but apparently met with but little encouragement.

A. E. Umstead, wife and daughter, Lucile, spent the week-end at the Methodist parsonage with Rev. and Mrs. Matteson. Mr. Umstead and family were members of a former parish of Rev. Matteson.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Phillips on Sunday went to their summer home along Willis Creek, three miles from Sand Patch. Mr. Phillips has lumber interests there. They purpose spending their Sundays in town.

Expert accountants are working in the offices of the receivers of J. V. Thompson at Uniontown preliminary to the latter's securing a twenty million dollar loan with which he expects to lift his receivership and bring prosperity again to his bank and town.

There will be a business meeting of the Woman's Suffrage Organization held in the municipal building on Friday evening, May 21 at 7:30 o'clock. Everyone is urged to be present.

Florence, the seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bowmaster, while playing the other day, fell and broke her left arm between the wrist and elbow. About two years ago she had her right arm broken.

Glenn, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Blake, who has been very ill for the past three months, is recovering very slowly from an injury received while playing basket ball last winter.

Representatives of the American Steel company, of Pittsburg, were in Casselman a few days ago and it is reported that they may locate a plant at that place possibly on the Scott Cupp meadows there as that would afford good shipping facilities for the Western Maryland.

The Methodist Episcopal Sunday School convention for this district, will be held at Garrett, Friday of this week. Supt. George Collins, of the local S. S. expects to attend and the following delegates: Mrs. Sue Liston, Mrs. U. M. Welmer, Miss Maymo Platt and Mrs. K. Cleaver.

One Week More

OF THE
Trade Extension Campaign
AT
The Women's Store

REMEMBER

Votes change color on Monday evening, May 24th, and on every day of next week.

Votes Must be Recorded
Each Evening Next Week.

NEXT WEDNESDAY

Special Sale on Remnants

Extra votes on this day.

Watch this paper next week for the announcement of
The Final Plans for the Contest

Hartley, Clutton Co.

The Club Store,

Hartley Block, Meyersdale, Pa

CUT FLOWERS
FOR DECORATION DAY

Do not wait until the last minute to order your Cut Flowers for Memorial Day. Let us have your order in advance, and we will guarantee delivery.

Price List

(Subject to change but will be no higher)

Carnations	$1.25 dozen
Roses	$1.25 to $3.00 dozen
Lillies	$3.00 dozen
Peonies	$1.50 to $1.75 dozen

Better Order Today

COLLINS DRUG STORE

The Renall Store

HARTLEY BLOCK, MEYERSDALE, PA.

MR. BALDWIN

OF
Hartley & Baldwin
Was in Pittsburgh lately laying in a fine line of
RUGS

Call There and See Them.

REAL ESTATE

R. E. L. Maxey to C. C. Wesley Paint Township, $3,000; Edward Holiday to George Moldish, Addison Township, $1,000; John Mote to Peter Stapsinsky, Brothersville township, $750; J. A. Berkey to Charles H. Schmucker, Somerset Township, $65; C. H. Schucker to James Burke, Somerset Township, $65; Rosanna Saylor's Executor to Virgil R. Saylor, Somerset, $4,900; John W. Hyatt to Lewis H. Miller, Somerset, $3,500; Philip Reitz to Pennsylvania R. R., Shade Township, $2,000; John H. Reitz to Pennsylvania R. R., Shade Township $75; Samuel J. Lichty to Otto Petry, Salisbury, $1,200; Charles F. Landis to Willmore Coal Co., Windber, $3,250 Harrison Custer to Martha Jane Hitchew, Shade Township, $1; Louis Klotz to William J. Miller, Summit Township, $500; Anna E. Shank to Esther Louise Garlitz, Berlin, $1,200 Maude O. Strayer to Kathryn L. Saylor, Rockwood, $1; Charles M. Knupp to William H. H. Knupp, Jefferson Township, $5; Frank A. Shaffer to William Wilsz, Paint Township, $402; Albert C. Berkey to Paul Boranic, Windber, $50; Israel Berkley to Edward L. Spangler, Somerset Township, $440; Jacob M. Wagner to Loy-alhanna Coal and Coke Co., Shade Township, $111; Irvin M. Hoover to David Sky, Hooversville, $950; P. S. Hay's Executors to John H. Rodamer, Elklick, Township, $300; John W. Beachy's Executors to Emma Thomas Elklick, Township, $45; Greek Catholic Church to Steve Migyanka, Boswell, $1,700; Valentine O. Muller to John O. Berkebile, Stoyestown, $300; Theodore T. Jones to Sarah Barclay Mason, Somerset, $4,000; John B. B. Mosholder to Elizabeth Weighley, Somerset Township.

WILLS PROBATED.

Daniel S. Ober, deceased, late of Hooversville, bequeathed $1,500 to his son, George, and $100 to Margie M. Ober to be paid to her when she becomes of age or upon her marriage, whichever occurs first. The remainder of the property goes for the wife's use for life and after her death it is to be equally divided.

Elias Bauermeister, late of Southampton township, bequeathed his property to his widow, Elizabeth Bauermeister. Peter H. Yost is named as executor. The will was dated Oct. 1, 1912, and witnessed by Daniel Baker and Irvin Baker.

Charles L. Trent, deceased, late of Somerset Township, directs that his estate be equally divided between his wife and children and Chas. B. Pullia, a grandson.

J. MOHAMMAD ALI.

J. Mohammad Ali, a native East Indian of a royal family; traveler, investigator, and champion of the cause of his people. A great wit and humorist as well as a student.

He will appear in the costumes of his native land the afternoon of the third day of the chautauqua.

GOOD FOR THE LAWYERS.

Governor Brumbaugh has approved a bill providing that an attorney shall have a lien for his compensation upon his client's cause of action, claim or counter-claim, which shall attach to any award, verdict or order or other form of judgment. The law also provides that the lien shall not be affected by any compromise or settlement before or after judgment.

J. C. Hostetler, implement dealer in this place, recently received a check of $45 from T. J. Maust, of Elk Lick in payment for a sulky Leroy plow. While payment for it was not yet expected by Mr. Hostetler, Mr. Maust said that he was so well pleased with the plow that he thought he ought to pay for it at once, and he showed his appreciation in the right way.

Mrs. Bruce Lichty, with daughter, Miss Hilda, last Thursday went to Lynchburg, Va., where her daughter Miss Helen is a student in Randolph-Macon College to pay the latter a visit; but their stay was shortened by the death of Mrs. Lichty's husband's mother. They arrived home on Tuesday. Miss Helen will graduate about June 1st and will arrive home on June 3rd.

The apple orchard, of Harvey M. Poorbaugh, of near Glencoe, with its 2,500 trees of winter varieties, is now in full bloom and a sight well worth seeing. Several years ago an orchard expert instructed the father and sons regarding the care of orchards which advice has been carefully followed, with splendid results. Another fine orchard is that of D. B. Zimmerman, near Ralplhton, with nearly as many trees as Mr. Poorbaugh.

Miss Clara Rowe delightfully entertained the M. U. A. Club on Thursday evening last and Miss Elizabeth Leydig at the Ford home will be the hostess this Thursday evening; on Friday evening of the present week the young ladies, six in number, will leave for a week-end house party at Miss Leydig's home at Glencoe. The club consists of the following—Misses Clara Rowe, Grace Michael, Helen Wagner, Nelle Boucher, Olive Lindeman, and Elizabeth Leydig.

Our Job Work

HAVE YOU TRIED THE JOB WORK OF THE COMMERCIAL?
OUR WORK IS OF THE BEST AND
OUR PRICES ARE RIGHT.
GIVE US A TRIAL

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years
Always bears
the Signature of Dr. J. C. Holt

THE IONIAN SERENADERS.

The Ionian Serenaders, a group of beautiful and talented young ladies from the Lyceum Arts Conservatory of Chicago. Voice and instrument, with some sketches, make the most delightful entertainment the afternoon and night of the third day of the chautauqua.

Mrs. John Merchbacher and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jno. Merchbacher, Jr., who came here several weeks ago to attend the funeral of the former's son-in-law, Michael Ludden, returned to their home, Thursday.

Frank Bomby, employed in the mine of the Morrellville Mining company, was caught under a fall of rock while at work Friday and was instantly killed. He was 35 years of age and unmarried.