

Saturday, June 26 -- Wednesday, June 30

SPECIAL JUNE SALE DAYS

Our special offerings for the two dates above mentioned are money savers for you at this time.

We will supply you with picnic plates, paper napkins, tin cups and all the delicacies for this season, of the year; Boiled Ham, Potato Chips, Pickles, Olives, Ginger Ale, Grape Juice, Cakes, and Canned meats.

SATURDAY, JUNE 26th

Apron Gingham 6c
 3 10c-cans Caked Beans 25c 3 10c-bozes Roots 25c

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 30th

Light and Dark Calicoes 5c
 All Summer Dress Goods at 1-4 off.
 1-lb. Box of Rumford Baking Powder 25c
 25c bottle Tomato Ketchup 18c

You are cordially invited to make our store your Headquarters during Chautauqua Week. If we can be of any service to you please let us know.

Both 'Phones Free Auto Delivery

The Pfahler Co.,

"THE STORE FOR ALL THE PEOPLE"

Meyersdale, PENN'A

Saturday, June 26th --- Wednesday, June 30th

TOM & JIM THAT IS THE PLACE

If you want real classy, up-to-date and at the same time presenting a genteel appearance.

Something you put on and wear to the Chautauqua with ease and comfort and at the same time feel as though 'there are none here who have any better than mine.'

MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Just spend ten or fifteen minutes at our Emporium and you can get just what you want for a Moderate Price, $3.00 - $3.50 - $4.00

Notice the Cuts of What We Have for Men, Women and Children

TOM & JIM FITTERS OF FEET.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Miss Nan Hocking is enjoying a fortnight visit with Pittsburg friends.

Mrs. J. P. Kelley has gone to Baltimore, Md., where she will spend a few days visiting among friends.

Mrs. John Sherman of Fairmont, W. Va., is here for a week's visit to friends.

The Misses Georgia and Ruth Coleman of Uniontown, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller.

Mrs. Mattie Kennedy of Cumberland, was a visitor at the home of E. N. Erwin, the first of the week.

Mrs. V. A. Anthony of Johnstown, visited her son, Harry Lewis in this place over Sunday.

Wm. Rowe Price, named for Dr. William T. Rowe, is a late arrival in Undertaker Price's home on Main street.

Mrs. A. F. Darrah and Mrs. Alice Baer have gone to Akron, Ohio, where they expect to remain for a few weeks visiting relatives and friends.

The new hotel at Addison, erected at a cost of $30,000 by James Rush, will be formally opened on Wednesday, June 30.

Miss Mary Weakland, who is employed in New York City is spending a few days here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Weakland of Meyers avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hartley are down in the peach region of West Virginia. That his orchard may have a fair chance to do its best, Mr. Hartley is picking off the surplus fruit.

Mrs. H. E. Hibner and children, accompanied by her sister, Miss Gertrude Tressler, will spend a few weeks in Akron, Cleveland and Detroit, Mich.

Miss Florence Gertrude Hasselroth and Joseph Walter Thomas, a well-known young couple of Meyersdale, were married at Cumberland last Thursday.

Mrs. E. O. Cosgrove and three children of Hammond, Ind., arrived here on Monday and are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Graves, of North street. Mr. Cosgrove will join them later.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rorabaugh and two children, who spent several weeks here with Mrs. Rorabaugh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Lint, departed for their home in Hanover, Pa., the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Habel and their son-in-law, Clarence Rowe, left Sunday for an automobile trip to York, where they will meet Mrs. Rowe, who has been visiting there a few weeks. After visiting other places they will return home. Druggist F. B. Thomas is deepening the cellar beneath his place of business with the purpose of cementing the floor, but is plying the shovel the most part of the day himself. He recently purchased the property and long delayed and desired improvements are now to receive attention.

Mrs. Eugene Naugle has gone to Bedford, where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stiver.

Miss Nelle Leonard, who had been teaching school at New Cumberland, W. Va., arrived home Monday to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Leonard of the South Side.

On Sunday morning at the 8:30 o'clock mass in St. Philip and James Catholic church, a class of 14 boys and girls received first communion. Sunday, June 27, the Rev. E. A. Garvey, bishop of Altoona, will be here and administer the sacrament of confirmation at the 10 o'clock mass, and in the afternoon he will go to McDonauldton.

At a recent meeting of the Meyersdale school board, Prof. W. H. Kretschman, supervising principal of schools, was elected for another term of three years and Prof. H. B. Weaver was elected principal of the high school to succeed Prof. H. L. Reitz, resigned.

At the same time Prof. Claude A. M. Welsh of Friedens, was elected to teach English and reading in the eighth and ninth grades on the department plan, as in the high school. The vacancies caused by the promotion of Prof. Weaver from the position of teacher of mathematics and the resignation of Miss Evelyn Truxal as teacher of the Latin department have not yet been filled.

Civic league meeting next Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McCune are visitors in Braddock.

James H. Black, the insurance agent, has been pretty ill, but is recovering.

Rev. A. G. Mead was a recent attendant at the Evangelical Association at Johnstown.

J. M. Berkley, of Pittsburg, was a caller on his sister, Mrs. M. C. Hornor on Tuesday.

Passersby are commenting on the artistic appearance of the bridge across Fisherty creek, nearing completion.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Warner, of Indiana, are guests at the home of Elder Joel Gnagey.

Mrs. Edward Lehman and two children are Pittsburgh visitors for a week or two, at the home of Mr. Lehman's parents.

Prof. D. H. Bowman, of Munhall,

Are Your Eyes Perfect?

Probably no organ of the body is neglected more than the EYES.

YOU CERTAINLY are anxious that your sight should be perfect through your numbered days and when Nature warns you through the medium of pain in the eye Balls Aching Head, Blurred Vision and Twitching Eyelids you should not neglect these calls of nature. but should immediately consent an OPTOMETRIST OPTICIAN who will tell you about your needs.

Our methods of examination are scientific and accurate principal of the high school in that place and a former teacher here, is in town a part of the present week.

CALL IN AND SEE US ABOUT YOUR CASE

COOK

The Optometrist Optician.

William Hamm, a confirmed inebriate of this place was taken to the county home one day this week by Officer Bittner, into dry territory.

Mrs. Edgar Berkley and her sister, Mrs. Harvey Bittner on Tuesday left in an auto to visit friends in Bedford county.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, have gone on an auto trip to Statington, Lehigh county, this state.

Mrs. Karl Miller and two children of Fairmont, W. Va., are guests at the home of Ms. Miller's brother, E. C. Kyle.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gatesman and three children are at Point Marion, where next Sunday they will attend the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. Gatesman's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Houck, who were recently married at Keyser, W. Va., arrived here recently and have gone to housekeeping on East Main st.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Reich of 230 Broadway, Meyersdale have issued invitations for their silver wedding the evening of July 3rd.

Samuel Peck, a graduate of the local high school, who is now in the navy on the Vermont, is visiting acquaintances here.

Invitations have been sent out by Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Lape of Garrett for their fiftieth wedding anniversary, July 6.

H. H. Lang has closed the negotiations whereby he has become the owner of the W. S. Miller residence on Meyers avenue of which house he has been the tenant for the past few months.

The 26th annual convention of the Young People's Christian Endeavor Union of the Allegheny Conference, of the United Brethren Church, was held in the Rockwood U. B. church Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Three autos conveyed a party of Meyersdale people, Mr. and Mrs. Kendall and visiting friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hobbittzell and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hobbittzell, Jr., to Greensburg, where they were the guests of Ex-Congressman Craig, one day last week.

Miss Frances Livengood left last Friday for Cincinnati. Her mother, Mrs. W. S. Livengood on Tuesday of this week also started west and the two ladies will meet in Chicago, where they will visit relatives later going to California. They expect to be absent about two months.

Mrs. F. B. Black, of Holland Farm, entertained at dinner Friday evening in a number of the out-of-town guests here for the Kendall wedding.

—ON SALE—

FOR ONE WEEK
June 24th to July 1st

We are offering for sale, White Pique Skirts for $1.00 and $1.45, also Ratine Skirts for $1.00. Our House Dresses will be sold for 85c $1.45 and $1.95.

Children's White Dresses are to be sold for $1.00 and $1.25.

Ladies' and Misses' Middies are reduced to 45c and 90c.

Boys' Washable Suits are to be sold for 24c, 39c and 90c.

Men's Overalls are reduced to 45c, 65c and 85c.

I. WEINSTEIN

THE LOW PRICE STORE.
 Next to Post Office, Meyersdale, Pa.

WANTED—Engine, Gisholt, Libby and turret lathe operators. These are excellent paying positions for men competent of operating any of these tools. Apply at the Employment Department, Westinghouse Electric & Mfg. Co., East Pittsburgh, Pa. 246-t

NOTICE—Is hereby given that my wife, Nellie Knepp has left my bed and board without just cause. I will not pay any bills contracted by her. W. A. Knepp, Meyersdale, Pa.

Mrs. E. N. Irwin was taken to the Allegheny hospital in Cumberland on Tuesday to undergo an operation.

Miss Evalyn and Miss Rebecca daughters of Dr. A. E. Truxal are about starting on a trip to the Panama exposition.

Albert Dahl left Tuesday for Detroit, Mich., where he will enter one of the automobile factories to take a course in mechanism.

GLENCOE. Weddings and rumors of weddings have infested our vicinity recently.

Nellie Porbaugh and Charles Kettle had the knot tied last Wednesday by Rev. Wise. We wish them much joy and happiness.

C. B. Bittner, who returned from the Windber convention a sick man, is able to be about again.

Lorenzo Emerick, of Comps, spent Monday night at I. D. Leydig's being one of the noisy boys at the Democratic convention at Somers.

Henry Schlag, of Berlin, spent Sunday with his many friends here. He's right there with the Truth.

Mrs. B. F. Bittner and children were in Cumberland Monday shopping. Ralph Poorbaugh conducted an auto party to Cumberland on Monday.

Archie Tressler is in the big Maryland town spending his coin with a dentist.

Karl A. Miller and son of Fairmont, W. Va., spent the week-end at the J. H. Miller home.