COST OF LIVING

GREATER THAN EVER

The cost of living is higher than ever before in the United States as far as government statistics show and is increasing each year. In 1914 the year's cost of filling the market basket of the average workman's family was $6.68 or 2 per cent higher than it was in 1913 and $6.43 or 24.5 per cent higher than it was in 1907 calculating on relative price figures announced a few days ago by the Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics as a result of its most recent investigation of retail prices. These figures represent prices of fifteen articles aggregating approximately two-thirds of the expenditure for food by the average workman's family. The cost of these articles in 1913 was $333.90 making the 1914 cost $340.58 while in 1907 it was $280.15. Calculating these amounts as two-thirds of the workman's family food expenditure, the total spent for food in these years would be: In 1913, $500.85; 1914, $510.87 and in 1907, $410.20. The bureau's investigation covered prices in 44 important industrial cities representing 33 of the states of the Union.

At a regular meeting of the Stoyestown lodge No. 372, I. O. O. F. held on Tuesday evening it was decided to begin on the lot recently purchased by the order from the David Zimmerman estate, a lodge building. The following members were appointed on the building committee: C. H. Shockey, George Lohr, H. X. Mostoller, Geo. Hunt, Geo. Kimmel, Nathaniel Horner and Dr. W. H. Schrock.

WITNESS AFTER WITNESS

IN MEYERSDALE.

Such Evidence our Readers Cannot Dispute.

As we take up the Commercial we are struck by the hearty, unmistakable way in which witness after witness speaks out as Mr. Bowman, does here. If these people were strangers living miles away, we might take little notice of them. But they are not. They are our neighbors, living among us. Their word is too easily proven to admit of any doubt. They speak out in the hope that their experience may be a guide to others.

S. W. Bowman, engineer in mines Meyersdale, says: "I was attacked with terrible pains in my back and couldn't sleep well. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and painful. I couldn't stoop over or lift anything. One box on Doan's Kidney Pills gave me relief and a couple of boxes made me feel all right. I always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to my friends and keep them on hand."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bowman had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
