Some leading citizens of Clearfield are agitating for the formation of a farm bureau in the county and the employment of a farm agent.

The Mormons are planning to build a church in Buck Valley 10 miles North of Hancock, Md., where they have made a number of converts, including several of the leading residents of that section.

Orders were drawn last week at Uniontown on the county treasurer for $119 for mothers pensions in Fayette county. Eighteen women were paid amounts ranging from $4 to $9. The same amount was paid out of the county treasury on June 4 for mothers' pensions for May.

After a sixteen-hour session, the coroner's jury in the matter of the death of Roy Mellott, of Gapsville in Bedford County, who was instantly killed near Everett Tuesday afternoon, returned a verdict of death by unavoidable accident and the young men who were driving the car, James Porter, of Easton, and John Vilsack, of Pittsburg, were released.

Announcement has been made that the state has authorized the oiling of various highways, in Fayette county. Work began last week on the oiling of the Connellsville road leading out of Uniontown. The material to be used is explosive and for that reason warnings have been issued to employees not to use matches or fire when applying it.

THE LAST OF FIRE BALLOONS.
 The Fourth of July this year will be the last Independence Day on which it will be lawful to send up balloons containing fire. The practice of sending up paper balloons for the edification of children and the public in general is to be stopped after the first of January 1916. A law to this effect was enacted by the recent legislature and signed by the Governor.

The law reads: "On and after the first day of January, 1916, it shall be unlawful to sell or expose for sale, or buy, or exchange, or give away or have in possession, any balloon made or intended to contain fire for the purpose of ascension, or send up or cause to ascend, any balloon containing in or about it any fire. This section does not apply to a balloon in which a human being ascends."

Violation of the act is punishable by a fine not to exceed $200, or an imprisonment not exceeding 60 days or both.

SHERIFF'S BILLS TO BE CUT DOWN.
 The sheriffs of Blair, Indiana, Somerset, Clearfield and other counties of that size will find their receipts cut down materially as the result of the signing of a fee-reducing bill signed by Gov. Brumbaugh. The new bill provides that when a sheriff transfers prisoners from jail to the penitentiary he shall receive ten cents a mile to and from the penitentiary whether he take one prisoner or ten prisoners. Heretofore he was allowed ten cents per mile for each prisoner taken, as his own pay.

ST. PAUL.
 A baby girl came to take up its residence at the home of Chas. Wise on Sunday morning.

Chas. Harding of West Salisbury was visiting friends in St. Paul over Sunday.

The Busy Bee class of the Reformed Sunday School held a lawn fete on Saturday evening. We understand the venture was a grand success.

Mr. George Ringler, who was severely bruised under a heavy fall of slate some time ago is slowly improving and we hope he will soon be able to be about again.

Mr. C. J. Engle, who was very ill several days ago is slowly regaining his usual health.

Who can deny that wars are caused by greed, declared by politicians, and fought by workmen? In them the workers commit wholesale suicide to protect the economic interests of the ruling class.

CONFLUENCE
 Mrs. H. P. Meyers and son Paul have returned from a visit with Mrs. Meyers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Thomas at Markleysburg. Mr. Wm. Bowers returned from Wilkinsburg on Friday where his little Ethel is very ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ruth Hosmer. The doctor advises that she cannot get well and Mr. Hosmer is arranging to have her brought home. Messrs. Noville Speelman and Dick Liston, of Gelesco, Md., were recent visitors here, on their way home from the Panama exposition. Mr. and Mrs. George Munson, of Connellsville are spending a few days here at their home along the Yough. Misses Edith and Louise Augustine are visiting their uncle Charles Bird, near Listonburg at present. Mrs. Alvia Morrison and little son Harold visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Beal at Ursina recently.

GLENCOE.
 The Mt Lebanon section is teeming with excitement and furnishing the whole township with "feeds" twice a week. Anna Smith and Ross Coughenour were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony at high noon on Tuesday. George Staley and bride, of McKeesport, honeymooned on the Staley farm here for a week. Quite an extensive warming was given them on Monday night.

I. D. Leydig is a very busy man with the Wellersburg Bankruptcy sale on. He kept Alfred Broadwater and his daughter, Marion, the clerks right after sales with Wm. Powell as auctioneer.

Ralph and John Poorbaugh were Chautauqua goers on Sunday.

The Leydig Ford bit the dust and snapped at loose stones enroute to Chautauqua, this week.

Mrs. Dan Shumaker spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Wm Tressler.

While sparring on Sunday evening, Charles Leydig was thrown to the ground thus dislocating the left shoulder bones. An X-ray treatment, showed lacerated ligaments but nothing more serious.

Leah Leydig with her Grandmother Leydig spent Tuesday in Cumberland with friends.

Mrs. W. A. Raupach and Phyllis were visitors at Fairhope on Tuesday.

Chas. Love came over from Pittsburg on Saturday to see how the Snyder garden is progressing.

NOTICE—Is hereby given that my wife, Nellie Knepp has left my bed and board without just cause. I will not pay any bills contracted by her. W. A. Knepp, Meyersdale, Pa.

VIM

Mrs. Pearl Boyer of Berkley's Mill visited her sister, Mrs. Bruce Fike, several days of last week. Samuel, son of P. C. Miller, while coming home from plowing corn for his father, the cap that held the neck yoke dropped off, thereby leaving the tongue drop which frightened the horses and they ran away; Samuel tried his best to hold them until he was thrown off the plow, falling so hard that he was rendered unconscious for a time, having received several severe bruises on his body and face. The horses escaped injuring themselves; the plow was broken. It might have been a fatal accident. Miss Mary Bangard, who is studying to become a nurse in Baltimore, is at home at present enjoying a much needed vacation. Mr. Henry Miller and Miss Irene Broadwater, of Glencoe, spent last Thursday at the home of C. W. Tressler.

ONE VERY SILENT FOURTH. No stary banner was unfurled; No patriots whooped a cheer; No bells rang out to tell the world The glorious Fourth was here. No grand parades marched up and down The stary spangled ways, To stand for liberty and crown The day of all our days. No popping crackers raised a din From Oregon to Maine; No reckless little boys got in The list of maimed and slain. No eagle screamed from height to height; No bands were out to play; No blazing fireworks made the night As brilliant as the day. No Declaration anywhere Was read to cheering throngs, No oratory filled the air, Nor patriotic songs. And yet it was July the Fourth, As sure as you're alive, But listen—it was July 4th Of 1775. See? —W. J. Lampton in New York World.

The Magic of Pyrotechnics. Strange, fantastic, beautiful and wonderful things are imprisoned in the fireworks experts in the dull pasteboard cases that cover their magical compounds, as the fisherman's flask of Arabian tradition held the mighty Afrid. The fiery dragons, clouds of light, meteoric blazons of stars, dazzling streamers and coronations of ethereal light that fill the air are so many ministers of delight to millions on every Independence day, bringing weird and startling sensations with every fresh glimpse of swiftly fading beauty and glory.
