HARTLEY, CLUTTON CO.,

THE WOMEN'S STORE

HARTLEY BLOCK.

MEYERSDALE, PA.

SALISBURY.

The Salisbury Chautauqua opened on Sunday with immense crowds at each of the three sessions and the attendance on Monday and Tuesday was larger than it was last year at the opening days. So far the programs were fine and it bids fair to be a success both to the Chautauqua people and the patrons.

Salisbury never presented a better appearance than it does this Chautauqua week. Nearly everybody tried to improve the appearance of their homes in some way or other—some by painting, others by remodeling, others by a general cleaning up and in many other ways that would help the general appearance of the town. Our borough is well lighted and the streets were never in as good a condition as now. So should the Chautauqua do no other good, it has made its presence worth while in our community by the "sprucing up" that it has given to the place.

There are many out of town people spending the week or part of it with relatives and friends in Salisbury of whom mention is made below.

J. C. Ballet, of Elizabeth, Pa., with his daughter, Mrs. Harvey Fogle.—Mrs. Mary Koontz, of Braddock with her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Stevanus and her sister, Mrs. A. B. Lowry.

Mrs. M. C. Kann and two little daughters, with her sister, Mrs. W. B. Stevanus.—Miss Salome Martin, H. L. Martin, Dr. and Mrs. John Martin, of Pittsburg, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Martin.—Mrs. Fred Livengood, of Grantsville at George Lowry's.—Miss Gertrude Reed of Scottsdale at George Livengood's.—Rev. Hunter Perry, M. D. and wife and children, of Washington, Pa. at C. T. Hay's.—Dr. William B. McClure of Chicago.—James McClure of Pittsburg at the McClure residence on Union street.—Mrs. Harry Repler and daughter, Nellie, of Rockwood with the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Newman.—Mrs. Harry Anderson and children with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Easton.—Mrs. Louisa Hawk, at Aden Blocher's.—Mr. and Mrs. Hess Baker and family, of Lancaster, at Samuel Engle's.—Mrs. Irene Hayes, of Grantsville, with Mrs. Ida Schramm.—Austin Brown and son, of Akron, Ohio, with Mrs. Robinson and other relatives.

Editor W. S. Livengood, of the Meyersdale Republican, attended the Chautauqua here, on Sunday, and was the guest of his brother, P. L. Livengood.

J. S. Stevanus, Miss Rose Tressler and Miss Jennie Stevanus, of Sand Flat, were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stevanus.

Chauncey Meese is adding greatly to the appearance of the home on Union street by remodeling and painting the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burkhardt and child, of Akron, Ohio, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Burkhardt, in West Salisbury.

Homer Baumgartner, of Morgantown, W. Va., is spending Chautauqua week with his mother, Mrs. Victoria Baumgartner.

Mrs. W. D. Keller and children, of Pittsburg, arrived last week for an extended visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Lichtler.

We print sale bills quick.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Livengood, of Meyersdale were Chautauqua visitors, Sunday.
