

SALISBURY

A goodly number of our baseball fans went by automobile to Frostburg on Sunday to see the game between the Pittsburgh Federals and the Frostburg team and the game between Frostburg and Lonaconing. The principal thing that drew our boys that way was that John Krause a former Salisbury boy pitched the latter game for Frostburg and all erly of Rockwood, has been asked to Frostburgers to victory by a score of 2 to 1. The first game was won by the Federals with the score 9-0.

Petry Brothers, contractors, are now putting the wood work to the brick structure of the Elk Lick Township Municipal Building at West Salisbury and the building already shows that it will be a fine building for the purpose intended. When finished your scribe will give the readers a full description of the much needed township building.

After a shut-down of about eight months, the Cooke & Seahler saw mill, near West Salisbury, resumed operations last week under its new management. It is hoped that it will soon run full time since a good many men are employed there and need steady work.
