Don't get mad at the butcher, if some day soon you see a sign on his counter forbidding you to finger the meat, 5,000 cards are being mailed to butchers of the state to be hung conspicuously. These cards state in substance that you may not test quality of meat by poking fingers into it. C. R. Martin, a miner employed at No. 1, Consolidation Coal Co. Herman Lottig of Sand Patch on Saturday night had an upset with his Maxwell car near Keystone Junction. Liveryman E. E. Klingaman with his team pulled the errand vehicle up to the highway and when it was righted the auto responded to the touch of the chauffeur as if nothing had happened. In other words but little damage was done to the machine, a Maxwell or injury to the driver. The second annual picnic of the Temperance Cadets and the first annual outing of the Young Ladies' sodality of St. Philip and James Catholic church was held Wednesday at Stanton's Dam near Grantsville. Bowman, of Berlin is one of them, the other being a Mr. Shaver of Somerset Borough. In the first place Mr. Bowman is a man of the right die and stamp. He was brought up on a farm in Brothersvalley township. He qualified for teaching and became one of the successful teachers of the county for a number of terms. At present he is engaged in the insurance business. He is making friends and voters for himself wherever he goes. C. H. Schmucker announces in this issue for County Auditor and he has a reasonable right to ask for a return to the same office for he it was that first dispensed with the expensive services of the auditors' clerk, taking the stand that the auditors ought to be able to transact that part of the county's business themselves. He is fitted to do that for the county but we understand that some of the present candidates would need some outside assistance. A. J. Weimer, of Friedens, candidate for county treasurer, is in the southern end of the county this week and his many friends are telling us that he is a winner. This is not being told for political effect but as a matter of news.

Murray and family spent last Sunday at Christ Mankameyer's. Rev. A. W. Smith was transacting business in Meyersdale Monday. UNION VALLEY. The most of the farmers are through cutting oats and now the sound of the thrashing machine can be heard shelling out the golden grain. Leroy Crissy got busy one day last week and hustled a few tons of hay to Meyersdale; he says that the hay market is booming. Miss Anni Feiker is working at P. W. White's. Herman Lottig says the Smoky Hollow road is somewhat rough for his new bug wagon. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. White made a trip to Berlin to pay a visit to Henry Baer who is who is Mr. White's uncle and who is a sufferer from cancer on his face. Don't forget the Reformed Sunday School on September 11th. Everybody is invited. Larimer township seems to be flooded with office seekers. When asked if they belong to the right party, they can hardly speak for they find that Larimer is for Prohibition. Leroy Crissy and family were welcome callers on Peter Folk's on Sunday afternoon. Herman Lottig had quite an accident while going to Meyersdale on Saturday night; his car went over the bank but as luck happened no one was hurt. MR. GLESSNER WAS EQUAL TO THE EMERGENCY. Dr. Truxal, the venerable pastor of Amity Reformed Church, has been somewhat indisposed for the past several weeks. Last Sunday morning at the advice of his family physician he yielded to the protest of his friends and did not preach. As the large congregation was already assembling the matter of holding the service was put up to Albert S. Glessner who reluctantly consented to the e[...]. He arrived at the appointed hour and was present and to the delight of the congregation, preached a thoughtful and interesting sermon on the miraculous feeding of Elijah.
