

SALISBURY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Knecht, of West Salisbury, was the scene of a happy social gathering on Wednesday last in the evening when their daughter, Helen, entertained the following friends: Misses Louise Comp ton, Orpha Baker, Pearl Dahlgren, Ada and Dorothy Giotfely, Pearl, Elizabeth, Florence and Mae Newman, Florence Hoffman, Julie Meese, Edna Smith, Josephine McMurdo, Effie Miller, Zilpha Statler, Mae Dickey, Mary Keim, Mary Riley of this place; Carrie Snyder of Rockwood; Nellie Bittner, Regina Reich, Jean Schardt, and Amelia Clothworthy of Meyersdale, Allen Compton, Christ Baker, Jerre Beachy, James, George and Morris Riley, George Beale, Dr. Lloyd Loechel, Merle Baldwin, Darrell Hicks, Frank and George Keim, Jno. Bunn, Frank Garlitz, Clay Newman, Floyd Stanton, Harry Wagner of this vicinity; Ed Christner and Clarence Sipple of St. Paul; Hagriff Nedrow, and Bryan Merrill of Garrett; Stanley and Lester Wilhelm, Robt. Hoffmeyer and Jno. Mosgraves, of Meyersdale. The evening was spent with music, games and lunch, the latter consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee.

One day last week four automobiles were pressed into service to convey an auto party to Bedford. The trip was made by way of Cumberland and home by way of the Lincoln highway and Stoyestown and Grandview. Those in the party were the following: Mr. and Mrs. C. M. May, Aileen and Mary Keim and Imogene Hay in the May car; Mr and Mrs. E. H. Miller, Mrs. Chas. Miller, Mrs. Wiley Ramey, Darrell and Edgar Miller in the Miller car; Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Lchty, Mrs. Edith Beachy, Mrs. O. W. Petry, Fay and Elizabeth Lichty, in the Lichty car; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barchus, Mrs. Lydia Shaw, Miss Emma McClure and McClure Barchus in the Barchus car.

Camp Casselman was occupied a part of last week by the following young people from Salisbury: Mrs. George Lowry and daughter, Lucile, Mrs. George Livengood, Misses Ruth and Helen Shaw, Flore and Effie Lichter, Nellie Statler, Romaine Dietz, Lorena Williams, Grace Brown Mary Reitz and Miss Helen Snyder of New Oxford, Pa. They returned home on Monday.

Miss Emma Rodomer returned to Pittsburg last Tuesday after spending her vacation with her father, Henry Rodomer and her sister, Miss Emma in West Salisbury.

Mrs. Philip Reich and children of Meyersdale visited at the home of the former's parents, Mr and Mrs. L. L. Beachy at West Salisbury last Wednesday.

Miss Thelma Yost of Roanoke, Va. spent last week in town the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wagner.

Stewart Smith who spent the summer in Salisbury returned to Pittsburg last Thursday.

Miss Ruth Hay spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. Rev. Perry in Washington Pa.

Miss Aleda Alexander and Miss Sue Simmons left Wednesday for Frostburg and Barton, Md to visit friends before returning to their respective homes at Rowlesburg and Grafton, W. Va.

Burgess Valentine Gress of Meyersdale, candidate for sheriff was calling on Salisbury voters on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ellenberger and two children of Johnstown and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Boyer, of Meyersdale motored to Salisbury on Thursday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dickey.

Miss Pauline Reese of Pittsburg is spending a two weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Reese. Miss Reese is a student in the nurses' training department of the Allegheny hospital.

Rev. Wm. Baumgartner of Pittsburg spent the past week with his mother, Mrs. Victoria Baumgartner and his sister Miss Lulu Baumgartner.

Miss Mary Shaw returned last week from a two weeks' visit with her uncle W. P. Shaw and family in Berlin.

Mrs. Chas. Miller and Mrs. Wiley Rainey of Claysville were guests of Mrs. Miller's son, E. H. Miller and family last week.

Mrs. W. P. Meyers of Summit township spent Wednesday with relatives in this city.

W.B. Hanna spent several days of last week with his parents at Harndesville.

Mrs. E. E. Hasselbarth and Miss Charlotte Boyer spent the past week in Baltimore getting ready for the fall millinery trade.

Miss Margaret Alexander returned last week from a visit with friends in Clarksburg, W. Va.

Quite a number of people from this section including some of the merchants have been motoring to Pinto, Md. the past week to return loaded with peaches.

Rev. Wm. Baumgartner pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church in Pittsburg preached a very impressive sermon in the Salisbury M. E. church on Sunday evening, se-

Handsomeness a Specialty

SHOES for all the family here. We buy direct from the factories and thus can afford to make prices that will suit any pocket-book. In men's shoes we have fine values at prices which must be considered very inviting in these days when leather goods have become more expensive.

The women's, misses' and children's shoes will be found truly serviceable. High topped boots, button or laced, and ties in white or black or tan and white canvas shoes or comfortable outing footwear of prominent makes.

Patent leather and enamel shoes in all sizes with fashionably shaped toes.

Shoes of Comfort That Wear.

MILLER & COLLINS

Fresh Eggs Direct From Farm

HIGHEST quality eggs for the table; fine cooking eggs—we have them. No left overs in our stock. Inferior eggs are strangers in this store. Every day a new supply from reliable poultry raisers. You can depend on us for service that meets your wants.

McKenzie & Smith
Meyersdale, Penn'a

lecting for his text the shortest verse in the Bible, namely "Jesus Wept," recorded in St. John-11:35.

Mrs. and Mr. Oscar Hause and child and Wm. Hause, of Boynton, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Schramm on Sunday.

After spending several months here with friends and relatives, Mrs. J. Hess Baker and children returned to their home in Lancaster, the latter part of the week.

Frank Miller, of Coal Run, was the guest of his brother, Lewis Miller and family and his sister, Mrs. H. Menhorn and family on Sunday, last.

Mrs. Harry Shaffer and two children Burton and Elizabeth, of Hyndman, were guests, one day last week, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dersch. Burton remained here for a week's stay with Mr. and Mrs. Dersch.

Miss Minnie Livengood who has been spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Livengood on Thursday went to Uniontown where she will spend several weeks with friends before returning to the school for the Deaf at Edgewood.

Last Wednesday Mrs. Annie Kretzman and daughters, Misses Della, Edith and Orpha were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Newman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dickey and family motored to Oakland last Wednesday. While there some driver of a car backed into the Dickey car and did considerable damage to it.

Miss Emma Margroff spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Margroff, in Cove, Md.

Jonas M. Cook, candidate for the nomination on the Republican ticket, for prothonotary was calling on his Republican voters in town Tuesday evening.

Norman E. Berkey, candidate for commissioner, was a Salisbury visitor on Tuesday. He was accompanied by his wife.

David Harris, of Delaware, is visiting friends here and in West Salisbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Menhorn arrived from Somerset on Monday to visit the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Menhorn.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Cal. Rumiser entertained at dinner Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reitz and children of town and Miss Hilda Shultz, of Meyersdale. Miss Shultz is spending several days with the Rumiser family.

WELLERSBURG.

Misses Grace and Pearl Cook and Miss Edna Witt attended the A. C. C. picnic held at Narrows Park on Friday.

Mr. Gus McKenzie, of Mt. Savage, was a caller in town on Sunday.

Miss Lillian Thomas of Cumberland is visiting her friend Miss Edna Witt.

Miss Carrie Robinette, Edna Witt and Albert Sturtz attended campmeeting in Cumberland Valley on Sunday.

Mrs. Laura Leath and daughter, Blanche of Meyersdale spent a week at the Wellersburg hotel.

Mrs. A. Glessner of Mt. Savage was a caller in town on Sunday.

Mr. Clarence Christinger, of Sand Patch was a caller here on Sunday evening.

Mr. Guy Witt spent Sunday evening in Cumberland.

Rev. H. L. Goughnour is spending the week at Winona Lake, Ind., attending general conference. Besides the Meyersdale minister the other main attractions there this week are: Billy Sunday, Schuman-Heink and William Jennings Bryan.

"Tough as Whit-Leather"

Soft as Down.

We picked this Hosiery out of many lines offered us, because we believe it in keeping with the high standard of merchandise offered in this store.

WHIT-LEATHER
GUARANTEED
HOSIERY 10c

Will "half" your hosiery bills. No 25c stocking outwears it. Try a box of six pairs—if they show holes in 4 months you get new ones free.

HARTLEY, CLUTTON CO.,

THE WOMEN'S STORE,

Hartley Block,

Meyersdale, Pa.

POCAHONTAS.

Farmers in this vicinity are being held back with their crops on account of rainy weather.

Harry Yaist who had been seriously for the last week is now improving. William and Lawrence Snyder spent Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives in Eckhart, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Steiny and family spent Sunday with the latter's father, Adam Dettle.

The home of Mr. Lewis Knepps was the scene of a pretty wedding last Sunday evening when their daughter, Elizabeth was married to Mr. Edgar Hochstetler, a prominent young teacher of this place. We wish them a long and prosperous life.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Werner, moved to Mt. Savage, Md. last week and will make their future home there.

Mrs. Clara Paul, central lady for the Economy Telephone Company who had been sick for the past week is able to be up and about again.

Our public schools will open about September 15th. Miss Mary Shockey of Stoyestown is visiting with her uncle, George and Herman Shockey.

GLENCOE

Mrs. John Weaver and children of Connellsville are spending the week at S. J. Tayman's.

Katherine Gross of Cumberland is visiting at J. K. Kessler's. Frances Rhodes and Eugene Caplan of Connellsville are the guests of Marion Leydig.

Dr. I. C. Miller piloted Nora Keefe who is a victim of acute appendicitis to the Allegheny Hospital of Cumberland on Tuesday.

The new concrete bridge of Main street is in course of construction and the boys are far from nappers. It rests between G. G. DeLozier and Glencoe's mayor, J. K. Kessler as to who will christen it.

Mrs. Alice Baer, of Sand Patch, is living at the hotel at present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miller were Cumberland visitors on Tuesday.

Doctors Spicer and Edwards of Cumberland spent Thursday night at I. D. Leydig's.

Clara Leydig is spending a fortnight with Cumberland relatives.

OWL'S GLORY

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Maust went to Berlin on a visit.

Wilson Maust is working for J. J. Firl.

John Hostetler is wishing for nice weather so he can finish hay making.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Faidley, a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Maust a son.

N. D. Hay is building a shed for his automobile.

Misses Nancy and Etta Lepley made a visit to Richard Nicholson's on Sunday.

TO CURE BURNS AND SPRAINS

LET us stock up your household medicine chest with the remedies that come into daily use. Thus you will save time and worry when emergencies occur. Even simple sprains, burns, scalds, bruises, cuts or stiff-joints can cause a deal of pain and suffering. Our liniments and lotions should be in every home, together with bandages, adhesive plaster and antiseptic solutions. Witch hazel is almost as essential as any article.

DO IT NOW IF YOU ARE WISE
F. B. THOMAS, Leading Druggist,
MEYERSDALE, PA.

Fall Millinery Opening!

Thursday and Friday,
SEPTEMBER 9-10

AT
The Tressler Millinery
South Side.

There will be a Sunday School picnic at Mt. Olivet one-eighth of a mile from Mt. Lebanon on September 11. There will be plenty of good music and speeches made by able speakers. Everybody is cordially invited to be present.

There will be an ice cream social at Mt. Lebanon church on Saturday evening, September 4th. Everybody is invited.

Miss Agnes Deal of Johnstown, is visiting her brother, L. H. Deal.