

GRANTSVILLE.

Horace Frost of Uniontown is passing a few days with Mrs. Miriam Broadwater.

Miss Elizabeth Smith of Waynesboro is the guest of Miss Viola Broadwater.

A very enjoyable picnic was held by the Woodmen on Saturday. All parts of the county seem to be pretty well represented, despite the fact that there were several other large picnics in adjoining towns.

A base ball game was played on Saturday afternoon between the Jennings and the Davis teams resulting in a victory for the latter, score was 8-12.

The schools of Garrett county opened on Monday. The interior of the Grantsville school has been improved by the addition of a new coat of plaster and paint. It is hoped that a new heating plant will soon be installed as it is much needed.

Mayor Matthews, mother and Merchant Little of Oakland spent a few days of last week in Grantsville. Mrs. Mary Miller returned with them going from Oakland to Corinth and Keyser, W. Va. to spend a few weeks.

Edward Pendergast, of Piedmont spent Sunday in Grantsville.

Mrs. Wm. Weimer was run over by an auto belonging to Webster Frost on Saturday evening a short distance east of town. Dr. Carney rendered the first aid. Though badly bruised no bones were broken and she is recovering nicely.

Miss Ruth Stanton spent last week with friends in Frostburg.

F. G. Fox and family of Friendsville were in Grantsville on Saturday. Others from the same place to attend the picnic here were—Albert Kolb, Ernest Kamp, Lawrence and Ernest Friend, all of Friendsville took in the picnic at our town.

Capt. R. R. Sanner of Oakland is stopping at the Casselman. As a teacher, Capt. Sanner is too well known to the people of Garrett county to need any recommendation and Grantsville is indeed fortunate in securing him as a Principal. It is expected that with his assistance, the school will soon be made a State High School.

Dr. and Mrs. MacDonald with their two children have been spending a few days at the Casselman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Betz of Frostburg were in town last week.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Meachy on Sept. 4.

U. O. Blocher, Miss Mary Blocher and mother were Oakland visitors last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Getty made a business trip to Carlos on Saturday.

Mrs. Winterberg is visiting her daughter Mrs. Tom Wiley at Bittner.

Dr. Murray and wife, of Mt. Savage took supper at the Casselman on Friday.

Capt. Casteel and wife, Texas City, also Mrs. Gonder of Oakland passed through Grantsville last week stopping over for a short time to renew old acquaintances.

The Schaeffer Bros., merchants of Frostburg, Mrs. Schaeffer and a party of friends spent a few hours in Grantsville taking supper at the Dorsey house Mrs. Schaeffer though 83 years of age is very active and was calling on a number of friends here.

Miss Maggie McKinzie of Avilton is the guest of Mrs. McKinzie.

Milton Younklin and family spent Sunday at the home of Henry McKenzie of Jennings.

Miss Cora Bittinger is the guest of Mrs. Fred Livengood for a few days. Miss Nettie Pope is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Zehner.

Mrs. Chas. Bill and Mrs. John Zehner spent Wednesday with their sister, Mrs. David Pope, of Sutton.

R. D. Johnson of Cumberland is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Clayborne James.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Welch and child left this week for Oakland. Irvin Schumaker and family are moving into the house vacated.

Dennis and Leonard Kurtz have sold their town property to Charles Mrs. Rush Montgomery, and daughter Myrtle of Cumberland, Mrs. Wiley, Lenora Wiley and Mrs. John Waldron were guests of Miss Lina Winterberg last week.

J. J. Bender and family were Frostburg visitors this week.

Mrs. Zahlhaus and two daughters have been spending a few weeks at the Victoria.

Mrs. Edwin Quarrils and companion of Mt. Savage spent a few weeks at the Victoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Menno Miller were business visitors to Cumberland this week.

The young people held a corn roast at the river on Thursday evening.

VIM

C. R. Martens, who was hurt in the mines last Thursday, is getting along well under the circumstances.

Mrs. A. T. Hammill, of Meyersdale, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of C. W. Tressler.

Herman Tressler and family, of Larimer township, spent Sunday at Vim.

Mr. Henry Suder, a sufferer of typhoid fever is improving very slowly. Mrs. Mary Shober and children, of Cumberland, Md., is visiting at the home of C. W. Tressler several days.

George Bangard took an active part in the First Aid in Boswell last Saturday and made a good record.

Lou. Mankamier and family, of Larimer township, spent Sunday at the home of C. R. Martens.

Mrs. Annie Spence, and daughter, Ethel and Miss Martha Bangard spent last Sunday in Salisbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fike and little daughter, Pauline made a trip to W. Va., on Monday.

Christ Martens of Wellersburg, Pa., spent several days with his son, C. R. Martens, the latter part of last week.

Rev. A. E. Truxal, D. D. and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Phillips, of Meyersdale, took dinner with Martin Meyer's on Monday.

The following young people attended a corn roasting at the home of D. M. Lee last Friday night:—Misses Grace, Margaret, Mary and Helen Fike, Margaret Lee, Ethel Egolf, Myrtle Ray, Sarah Nicholson, Ruth Kimball, Sadie Swearman, Orpha Tressler, Ethel Seigner and Edna Tressler; Messrs. Irvin Engle, Andrew Seigner, John Tressler, George Lee, Robert Lindeman, Wm. Horning, Harry Dietle, James Tressler, James Seggie, Robert Gnagey, Charles Shuck and John Seigner.

Robert Ringler entertained quite a number of young folks at a corn roasting last Friday night.

S. M. Gnagey and family, of near Handwork School, spent last Sunday at the home of Howard Fike.

Ira Shuck and family spent Saturday and Sunday in Greenville township at the home of James Thomas.

Mrs. Mary Jones and Mrs. James Corfield, of Roumania, visited Frostburg, Eckard Mines and Cumberland last week.

GARRETT.

Miss Clara Bittner, of Pittsburg, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Cyrus Bittner, of Walker street.

Misses Ruth Sturtz and Nina Cochran were Holsopple visitors Sunday.

Mrs. James Liberty was the guest of relatives at Casselman Sunday and Monday.

The 13-month son of Humphrey Lehman who had been in the Western Maryland hospital, Cumberland, for an operation of an abscess of the brain, was brought home Sunday in an improved condition.

Miss Mildred Swarner is visiting relatives at Cumberland, Md.

Mrs. R. B. Ellis and young son David returned the latter part of the week from Elkins, W. Va., where they had been visiting the former's grandmother.

Charles Darrah, of Meyersdale, called on friends here Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Phenicie and son William, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miller, returned recently from a two weeks' visit to friends in the eastern part of the state.

Richard Pollard has returned to his home in Geneva, O., after spending several months with his grand parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Pollard.

Humphrey Lehman moved on Tuesday to the Barney Miller farm which was recently purchased by Bruce Walker.

Misses Nell and Verda Brant returned recently from a visit to friends in Dixon and Chicago, Ill.

B. S. Rush, the B. & O. agent, visited his parents at Hyndman Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Currie left Saturday morning for Toronto, Can., where they will visit relatives for two weeks.

Miss Anna Romsburg, of Pittsburg, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Romsburg.

Ray Parsons, of Rockwood, is working second trick in the B. & O. tower during the absence of W. J. Currie.

The First National Bank building has been given a new coat of paint, the work being done by S. P. Lease.

H. E. DeVore went to Bedford Sunday morning to join his wife and remain for a week's visit.

F. D. Godel and family left Monday for Reymersburg, where they will reside permanently, Mr. Godel having purchased a hotel there.

James Murray, of Blackfield visited relatives in Garrett on Saturday.

Dr. W. R. McClellan spent Sunday in Rockwood as the guest of his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. McClellan.

James Liberty spent Sunday in Meyersdale as the guest of his brother.

Miss Dorothy Green, of Baltimore, Md., is visiting her friend, Miss Emma Merrill.

Miss Maud Twigg, of Cumberland, spent Sunday with Lulu Walters.

Miss "Christie" Taylor, of Somerset, is spending a few days in town with friends.

Miss Lenora Kistler spent Sunday and Monday in Rockwood with friends.

3-10 CENT CANS, BEST BAKED BEANS for 25 CENTS, at BITTNER'S GROCERY.

We print sale bills quick.

SUMMIT TOWNSHIP.

Our nineteen public schools opened on Monday for a nine-months term.

R. J. Engle, one of our popular auctioneers, conducted the sale of Mrs. C. J. Engle at St. Paul last Saturday.

Mrs. Norman Kinsinger, of near Berlin, spent over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown.

Mrs. C. D. Lichty and family are visiting at Canton, Ohio at present. Miss Stella Miller left on Sunday evening for Stoyestown where she will teach the primary room in that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Hay of near Rockwood; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Zuffall, of Somerset; Mrs. S. A. Kretchman, Byron Kretchman and John Hay of also near Rockwood, spent Sunday at the home of H. E. Hershberger and family.

W. P. Meyers, C. C. Heckle, H. R. Kretchman, D. W. Long, John Mimma M. W. Lindeman, E. R. Hay, Chas. Weller and Quinter Gnagey spent Sunday night in Somerset to hear Bois Penrose.

Mr. and Mrs. Yost Summy and Mrs. N. J. Kinsinger who spent a few weeks at Norfolk, Va., returned home last Saturday.

The S. S. C. E. of Summit Mills, will hold a lawn fete and parcels post Sale on Saturday evening, September 11, in the I. H. Fike grove.

GLENCOE.

Conrad Webreck and family of Frostburg, spent the week-end at F. W. Webreck's.

David C. Alston of Pittsburg returned home on Wednesday after a week's visit at the Beachy camp.

Elizabeth Leydig began her second year's work in the Meyersdale high school this week.

Wm. Deist left on Saturday for employment in Akron, Ohio.

Chas. Leydig returned home from Cumberland on Sunday.

An auto party of Somerset folks to Dan's Rock, Md. passed this way on Sunday making a "feed" stop at J. T. Leydig's.

Allen Bittner and Archie Tressler were Cumberland peach buyers on Saturday.

Harry Cook and Carl Raupach tucked a rain stick under the arm and walked to prayermeeting at Pink's church on Sunday night.

H. E. Bittner spent Sunday with his parents.

Mrs. S. A. Coughenour of Connellsville Sundayed at F. M. Coughenour's.

Gideon Poorbaugh of Nebraska is visiting his many relatives here.

Ralph Poorbaugh spent Labor Day motoring thru parts of Penna. and Maryland with his parents, two sisters and Gideon Poorbaugh.

OWL'S GLORY

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Maust and daughter are visiting relatives and friends at Berlin.

Homer Maust's, who were living in one of Norman Hay's tenant houses, moved to Russel Engle's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Duecker made a visit to Cumberland on Sunday to their daughter, Idella, who underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Henry Maust is working for Jerry Kretchman at present.

Our public schools opened on Monday.

Hay and Fullem started their apple butter factory last week.

William Sechler thinks it will pay to fatten hogs this fall.

A good number of our people attended Mrs. C. J. Engle's sale on Saturday.

Rev. Wilson will take charge of the Wilhelm charge the first of October.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Maust.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Engle returned home well pleased with their visit to Akron, Ohio.

Christ Maust and family were Meyersdale visitors on Monday.

Benjamin Bender and family and John Boyer with his auto made a visit to Berlin on Sunday.

Howard Seils moved to Jonas Klink's again.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sechler were visitors at Christ Maust's on Sunday.

Peter Maust sold one of his horses to Perry K. Maust.

POCAHONTAS.

Threshing is the order of the day in this vicinity at present.

Services in St. Mary's Catholic Church every evening this week.

Mrs. Dr. F. E. Sass who has been visiting for the past few weeks, returned home on last Sunday.

Noah McKenzie of near Pocahontas was taken suddenly ill one day last week and was removed to the Miners' Hospital at Frostburg where he was operated upon for appendicitis. He is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Snyder of Eckhart Mines, Md., spent several days with the former's brother last week.

Mr. Wesley Wilhelm while engaged in driving at Mine No. 7 of the Union Mining Co. was thrown from his mule last Tuesday and received a bruised leg and four fractured ribs. We are glad to say that he is able to be up and about again.

Mr. Elmer Landis, son of Wm. Landis and Miss Elsie McKenzie, daughter of Mr. Joshua took a trip to Frostburg Sunday and were united in holy matrimony. We wish them a long and prosperous life.

Miss Nellie Albright was the guest of her friend, Miss Minnie Rembold a few days last week.

Sunday School in St. Mark's Reformed Church next Sunday at 1 o'clock; services at 2 o'clock.

BOYNTON

Wednesday evening about fifty young people of Boynton and Salisbury collected in the Boynton Grove to enjoy a corn roast given by Engle. The evening was delightfully spent and much corn was "done away with."

Miss Ella Turney, who has been visiting at R. F. Thomas' several weeks, returned to her home in Ashland, Ohio, Friday morning.

L. F. Engle and Oscar Haus have made several trips to Pinto, W. Va., bringing back a large number of crates of peaches.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Schramm and daughter, of Salisbury, were Sunday visitors at the home of Michael Bowman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Bowman and son, Harry, and Mrs. Chauncy Bowman made a trip to Maryland Wednesday.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pyle was the scene of a pleasant surprise party given by a number of young people of Salisbury in honor of Miss Velma, who is going away. The evening was pleasantly spent and refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served. Those present were: Margaret, Sarah, Christina, and Edith Robertson; Margie Trent, Velma and Essie Pyle, Mary Shaw, Daisy and Violet James, Carrie Meese, Martha Reiber, Ola and Lulu Wagner, Marie Cochran, Ruth Beahm, Mabel Livengood, Minnie Diehl, Margaret Carlitz, George R. Winters, Clyde Smalley, Hubert Christner, Emerson Beals, David Harris, and Oscar Swank.

UNION VALLEY

Our public schools will open on September 20th.

Leroy Crissey and J. E. Geiger made a business trip to Somerset on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wasmuth of Meyersdale spent Saturday and Sunday with P. W. White.

Mrs. H. B. Beals is suffering from a severe cold.

Bud Ravenscraft is busily engaged in hauling props.

Rev. Smith will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday, Sept. 12th after which he will leave for college to complete his course for the ministry.

A wise old owl sat on an oak. The more he heard the less he spoke, The less he spoke the more he heard. Why ain't we all like this wise old bird?

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR RECORDER OF DEEDS

John E. Custer of Hooversville Boro. John E. Custer, a popular candidate for Recorder of Deeds and a successful business man of that place, was born and reared on a farm in Quemahoning township near Stoyestown His father, Adam Custer who comes from a family of early settlers of this county was a Civil war veteran of the 142nd Regiment under Colonel R. P. Cummins.

Mr. Custer has always been a loyal Republican and is at present a member of the Republican County Committee and also a member of the Executive Republican County Committee. He received his education in the common schools and at State Normals; was engaged as a teacher in the schools of this county for a period of seven years, was later employed by the postoffice department as rural mail carrier through Quemahoning and Jenner township townships for a period of six years; and has served continuously for the past seven years as one of the school directors of Hooversville Borough, where he now lives. He has also filled many important positions, such as secretary, trustee, etc. in the different fraternal organizations of which he is a member.

Mr. Custer is an example of the self made country boy, who wins position by pure merit and strength of character. He has been obliging honest and capable in doing all the work which the public has entrusted him with. He is a young man of fine abilities and has achieved success in his various endeavors by dint of hard work and unflagging ambition. He has all the qualifications necessary to make a faithful public official and by his ability, industry and public spirit should win deserved consideration at the hands of the voters Tuesday, September 21st.

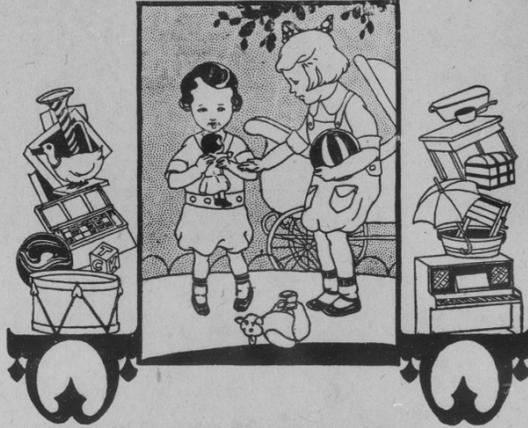

30-CENT JAR CHIPPED BEEF FOR 25CENTS, at BITTNER'S GROCERY.

Big Bargains For Little Folks

THE children's hour comes when they are brought to this store. We have gone to great trouble to equip this popular department with a full supply of everything desired for and by them.

Clothing for boys and girls, rompers, waists, one and two piece suits, middy costumes, etc. Toys enough here, there are, to make Santa Claus appear like a beginner at his own business. Instructive games that teach them how to think and at the same time amuse them.

Baby carriages, bottles and nipples, bibs, napkin rings and high chairs. Cradles and brass railed beds. Dolls of every imaginable kind and size.

Happiness For the Children.

MILLER & COLLINS

Soapy Soap That Cleanses All

SOAP is soap. That is a truism known to every person. But there is soap AND SOAP. We have the kinds that clean without injuring the skin or the fabrics on which they may be used. No alkalis. Cleaning fluids and brushes. You will find our prices satisfactory.

McKenzie & Smith

Meyersdale, Penn'a

CANDIES AND CIGARS

CANDIES and soda | not glucose. Just the water of pure fruit | thing for gifts. Try a flavor here.

No chemical imitations of what it should be. We use real oranges and real lemons, etc., and our ice cream has the same highly desired quality. Our candies are made of sugar, to be depended on.

SWEET THINGS FOR A SWEET TOOTH

F. B. THOMAS, Leading Druggist,

MEYERSDALE, PA.

Mrs. Robert Forney and daughter, Miss Grace, of Pittsburg, are visiting with the former's mother, Mrs. Eliza Miller, and sister, Mrs. Jacob Opel of the South Side.

W. C. Hatton of Lexington, Va., came up for a few days' visit at the home of his parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Stein, where Mrs. Hatton and their little son had been for several weeks.

W. C. Hatton of Lexington, Va., came up for a few days' visit at the home of his parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Stein, where Mrs. Hatton and their little son had been for several weeks.

NEX WE