One of the matters awaiting the governor's consideration is the appointment of a success to County Treasurer Markle. The county commissioners last week forwarded a petition asking for the appointment of Clayton Markle, the late treasurer's son. The action of the commissioners represented public sentiment throughout the county as soon as it became known that the appointment would cover only the unexpired term.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR RECORDER OF DEEDS
John E. Custer of Hooversville Boro. John E. Custer, a popular candidate for Recorder of Deeds and a successful business man of that place, was born and reared on a farm in Quemahoning township near Stoyestown. His father, Adam Custer who comes from a family of early settlers of this county was a Civil war veteran of the 142nd Regiment under Colonel R. P. Cummins.

Mr. Custer has always been a loyal Republican and is at present a member of the Republican County Committee and also a member of the Executive Republican County Committee. He received his education in the common schools and at State Normals; was engaged as a teacher in the schools of this county for a period of seven years, was later employed by the postoffice department as rural mail carrier through Quemahoning and Jenner township townships for a period of six years; and has served continuously for the past seven years as one of the school directors of Hooversville Borough, where he now lives. He has also filled many important positions, such as secretary, trustee, etc. in the different fraternal organizations of which he is a member.

Mr. Custer is an example of the self made country boy, who wins position by pure merit and strength of character. He has been obliging honest and capable in doing all the work which the public has entrusted him with. He is a young man of fine abilities and has achieved success in his various endeavors by dint of hard work and unflagging ambition. He has all the qualifications necessary to make a faithful public official and by his ability, industry and public spirit should win deserved consideration at the hands of the voters Tuesday, September 21st.

WHY DISTRICT ATTORNEY SAYLOR SHOULD RECEIVE THE REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR THE OFFICE OF DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

FIRST. He is a Republican and is seeking the nomination on but one ticket, The Republican ticket. His opponent is not a Republican and is seeking the nomination on three tickets—The Prohibition, Democratic and Republican.

SECOND. It was generally conceded that if Mr. Saylor would become a candidate for the Republican nomination that he would be unopposed.

THIRD. The Republican members of the Somerset County Bar signed his petition for the official Republican primary ballot. Here are their names in the order in which they signed:

H. F. Yost, R. E. Meyers, L. C. Colborn, J. G. Ogle, P. C. Cober, Norman T. Boose, J. C. Lowry, Jno. R. Scott, M. J. Pritts, Ros R. Scott, A. L. G. Hay, A. C. Holbert, F. A. Holbert, Chas. H. Ealy, Fred W. Bie-secker, Geo. R. Scull, Alexander King, John A. Hartman, F. A. Millott, C. A. Bernhard, Clarence L. Shaver, J. A. Berkey, Frank Cooper, W. Curtis Truxal, John S. Miller.

Lawyers who signed for James B. Landis' Three petitions—NONE.

FOURTH. Republicans everywhere are declaring that they will not support any candidates who have their names on more than one party ticket at the primaries.

FIFTH. Mr. Saylor's record is sufficient guarantee that he will not disappoint the people of Somerset county. The criminal work in this county has grown to such an extent that the office of District Attorney should be filled by one with experience. Adv.
