KILLED NEAR GLENCOE

Jesse Smith of Northampton Township Run Down by Special Train at Glencoe Station Monday Morning.

Jesse Smith, a well-known farmer of Northampton township, was instantly killed at the station at Glencoe Monday morning, being run down by the special train carrying veterans to Washington.

Mr. Smith had come to the station with a number of others and his step-daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clites who had been married on Sunday at the Smith home and who were leaving for a visit to Hyndman.

RALLY DAY FOR REFORMS

Last Sunday was an interesting occasion for the Sunday School of Amity Church. It was its Rally Day.

The opening services were conducted by F. A. Bittner, the superintendent. Afterwards the entire school with all of its departments was brought together. The curtains were removed and the primary department opened to the main room, and the Mens' class brought up from its room. A special service for the occasion was then conducted by the pastor Reverend Dr. Truxal. After some singing by the primary department, and by the entire school, male and female voices, separate at times, Elder H. C. Knievier delivered an appropriate address, commending the school for its efforts and accomplishment, urging it to aim at greater efficiency, expressing words of appreciation of the management by the pastor who acts as general over the church and school. The assistant superintendent, W. W. Nicholson read the report of Rally Day as follows: Total enrollment 670, distributed in the following manner: 249 in main room; 108 in the men's class; 240 in the primary department; 40 in the cradle roll; and 33 in the Home Department.

This first effort at Rally Day by this School was made without much preparation, yet it was quite a success. Thirteen new members were enrolled and 48 visitors were present. A number of members of the school made the mark: "Next year we will have a right Rally Day."

Services are being conducted in Amity Church this week to be conducted with the celebration of the holy communion next Sunday morning and evening.

SOMERSET BRAKEMAN GROUND TO PIECES.

A Baltimore & Ohio brakeman, Calvin Baker, of Somerset, aged 23 years, was ground to death under the wheels of a freight train in the Johnstown yards early Saturday evening. Baker was working on a shifter and stepped from his engine in front of a train going in an opposite direction. The remains were taken to his home in Somerset Sunday evening, and the funeral took place Monday afternoon.

The unfortunate young man was a son of Jere Baker, of Adams. For the past two years he has been living in Somerset. His wife and one child survive.

W. C. T. U. TO GIVE CHICK-EN AND WAFFLE SUPPER.

The local W. C. T. U. met in monthly session Tuesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. J. C. Matteson.

Mrs. Matteson and the secretary, Mrs. Mankamer, gave a very interesting account of the annual meeting at Windber where they had been sent as delegates. The work of Mrs. Shephard was particularly dwelt upon and it is hoped that it may be possible to have this noted W. C. T. U. and Suffrage leader in Meyersdale before long.

HOW PROHIBITION RUINED THE STATE OF KANSAS.

The editor of the Wichita (Kan.) Beacon tells the Distillers Association how Prohibition has ruined Kansas as follows: "The grape juice industry is not the only thing ruined by prohibition in Kansas. In fact, prohibition has killed about every industry in Kansas except the raising of wheat and corn, and alfalfa and fruit and livestock and potatoes and peas and cabbage and garden sass and chickens and ducks and geese and horses and mules and blooded cattle. It busted up quite all of our flourishing saloons and beer gardens and paralyzed many of our most prominent gamblers. It has absolutely killed the bartenders' union. When once the thriving saloon sent the clamorous odor of its prosperity out upon the sidewalks and clear across the streets we find nothing but shoe stores, drygoods stores, meat markets, clothing stores, grocery stores and other sordid activities of an unhappy people. Where once you saw long strings of men on Saturday night going joyfully into the rooms where the doors were closed securely, where there was sawdust on the floor and a merry crowd at the mahogany bar, treating all around, and a man could get his salary check cashed and spend it all right there on his boon companions and go enthusiastically home and break up the furniture and give his wife a black eye; instead of these manifestations of a prosperous and thrifty citizenship, as in our saloon days, we see men go quietly into the butcher shops and grocery stores, and then go lugging home great bundles of supplies for their wives and children—beefsteak for supper, Sunday dinner, etc. Ah what a sad result of the banishment of saloons! Prohibition has left little of Kansas except her fields and factories and schools and stoves and pens of fat cattle and her sober and happy and prosperous people.

REV. MATTESON TO LEAVE FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Rev. J. C. Matteson of the Methodist Episcopal church will leave next Tuesday evening for the Pittsburgh Annual Conference which will convene in Christ Church, Pittsburgh, on Wednesday morning. This closes a successful year for the church and the Fourth Quarterly Conference has extended a unanimous invitation for the return of the pastor in which it is expected that the Bishop will concur. Mrs. Matteson expects to visit her home in Venango county during the conference week, while Miss Ruth, their daughter will visit friends in and about town.

Nert Sabbath will be the last Sunday of the Conference Year. In the morning the theme will be, "The Changeless Christ" and in the evening, "The Scripture's Invitation."

THROUGHOUT THE COUNTY

The official count for the votes cast for county auditor has not been turned in yet, but from the looks of things E. L. Fox will win out over Edward Mosholder by two votes. The different candidate are busy filing their expenses and a report will be given out within a few days.

Fire of unknown origin broke out about 3 o'clock on Sunday morning in the East End hotel, Cumberland entailing a loss of about $3,000 partly covered by insurance. The building is owned by Mrs. Chairio Cario of Holsopple and besides the hotel contains a saloon and restaurant.

As a result of the Rockwood wreck last week, when a car of oats was strewn all over the Baltimore & Ohio tracks, many Rockwood people laid in a winter's supply of oats free of charge. It is said bushels and bushels of oats were carried away by people who gathered after the wreck.

George F. Baer, late president of the Reading railroad, who died in 1914 was worth $3,239,192.32. This became known through court proceedings in Philadelphia the past week. Under the will, the widow gets $400,000, outright and the family residence Hawthorne in that city. Each of the five daughters gets $540,000. Mr. Baer spent his early life in Somerset county.

ANTI-SUFFRAGISTS NOT JOINED WITH LIQUOR INTERESTS

"I am very glad to have this opportunity of correcting a few misapprehensions about Anti-Suffragists," said Miss Margaret Scully of the Pittsburg Association opposed to Woman Suffrage, now visiting Mrs. Frank S. Bissell at Elk Lick.

"In spite of Suffragists' assertions to the contrary—Anti-Suffragists everywhere are earnest women who are working hard for the practical good of the family and home—and are not waiting until women get the ballot to use their influence towards the betterment of conditions generally."

"Contrary to the oft repeated assertion that anti-suffragists are seeking the support of the liquor interests exactly the contrary is the case. For years suffragists have been assiduously courting the brewers, brewery workers and their affiliated interests. Susan B. Anthony, 25 years ago, appealed to the brewers for help for the suffrage cause. Crystal Eastman Benedict, when a paid suffrage worker in Wisconsin during the campaign there, made earnest efforts to secure the support of the Milwaukee brewers, assuring them that woman suffrage would be better for their interests since all the suffrage states were wet (as they were at that time). In the Montana campaign the suffragists would not allow the W. C. T. U. to participate in their demonstrations or march in their parades, so fearful so fearful were they of alienating the liquor dealers.—Adv.

DEATHS IN THE COUNTY.

Of Conemaugh township died on Monday at the age of 56 years. The funeral was held on Wednesday at the Centennial church on the Somerset pike and interment was made in the Yoder cemetery. He is survived by his father, John W. Shaffer who is 82 years of age and his mother is also living and is aged 77. Josiah Shaffer was a brother, Isaac Shaffer and Mrs. Wm. Croyle of Conemaugh township; Frank Shaffer of Johnstown; John W. Shaffer of Millcreek and Miss Mary Shaffer at home. The wife of the deceased whose maiden name was Barbara Keefer died in 1899. Two sons and two daughters are living: Mrs. Webster Mishler and Mrs. Susan Grasser and Chas. and John A. Shaffer.

ELMER E. MOORE.

Of Milford township who had been in the Johnstown Memorial Hospital for the past several weeks, died on Sept. 21 from injuries he received when he fell from his buggy near Blackfield. He was taken to the hospital suffering with a broken jaw, but later it developed that he was more seriously injured than was at first thought. His condition did not improve and he sank slowly until the end came. He is survived by his wife and these children—Harry, Jesse, Lyda John and Elmer Moore, all at home

CHESTNUTS WANTED AT HABEL & PHILLIPS.

NEW BUILDING TO BE OPENED

On Saturday, Mr. E. L. Donges will have his opening in his new up-to-date quarters in the Donges block, erected by his father, Mr. George Donges. The building is a solid brick structure, artistically and substantially built and reflects much credit upon the owner. It is located at the corner of Centre street and Meyers avenue. There are two commodious store rooms on the first floor and two apartments on the second floor.

The room to be occupied by the meatmarket is at the upper side of the building and is without doubt one of most finely finished and thoroughly equipped rooms for the purpose to be found anywhere not excepting those of our large cities. In the front from a fine cement pavement, one step of elevation is necessary to enter the market. The entrance is flanked on each side with large display windows of display plate glass 188 inches by 60 inches with marble slab base and tiled with fine piece work and the wainscoting is of tile. The walls and ceiling have 7 coats of enamel plastering, and all the furnishings are of marble shelves and counters so that the whole room can be cleaned by the use of a hose. The refrigerator is of such capacity that it requires two and one-half tons of ice to fill it.

The whole market is a strong invitation from its sanitary and neat and cleanly condition for one to deal there. It is a big advertisement for this line of business and the proprietor, Mr. E. L. Donges is deserving of much credit for his enterprise in giving the people of Meyersdale such a superior meatmarket. The opening is on Saturday

LINEN SHOWER FOR BRIDE

The C. E. N. Club gave a linen shower for Mrs. Chas. Dia, formerly Miss Edna Baldwin, at the home of her father, Mr. C. W. Baldwin, last evening.

The evening was pleasantly spent in examining the numerous pieces of beautiful linen and in reviewing the past linen showers of the C. E. N. Club. A two-course lunch was served. Those present were: Mesdames C. E. Deal, Oscar Gurley, Clarence Rowe, D. A. Floto, George Benford; Misses Maude Saylor, Cora Bittner, Sana and Daisy Ebbecke, Emma Brosecker, Zella Sides and Alpha Gill. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Walter Koontz of Somerset and Miss Bert Statler of Salisbury.

Misses Esther and Mary Conrad who are conducting the Conrad Art studio, attended the National Photographic Convention in Pittsburg a few days ago and received many interesting and profitable suggestions pertaining to their work.
