

Winter Coats of Distinction

The Styles are Correct.
The Workmanship is the Best.
The Prices are Low.

The Models are of a good variety including the belted, loose back and semi-fitted styles—all garments are cut with ample fullness and flare. I do not claim to carry the largest line but I do handle the new effects and am constantly adding the newest garments as they come into the market. Prices $5.00 to $25.

NEW DRESS GOODS

Exclusiveness of Style Dominates This Entire Display of New Fall Dress Goods.

This is a real Dress Goods Store; comparisons prove the unmistakable leadership of this store in all matters of style, of assortment, wealth and timeliness of suggestions, price and value of the goods themselves. Then remember, too, this is the only Day-light Dress Goods Store in the town—always enough light to discern colors and qualities.

Butterick Patterns

The Style Leaders of the World Today.

Did you ever have trouble with a Butterick pattern? No, you never will because they are designed on correct lines. That's why all good dressmakers prefer them.

We have just added one third more patterns to our stock—you can now select with pleasure and comfort

Albert S. Glessner

Successor to Appel & Glessner
Meyersdale, Penn'a.

SALISBURY.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hyatt of West Salisbury died last Wednesday and was buried in the I. O. O. F. cemetery on Friday forenoon. Funeral services were held at the house at 10 a. m. Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smearman and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lowry attended the Garrett County fair at Oakland last Thursday. The trip was made in Smearman's car.

Rev. and Mrs. I. S. Monn and son, Joe, returned last Wednesday from an extended visit to Chambersburg. The former seems to have fully recovered from the threatened attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. E. H. and Mrs. S. H. Chalfant and Jim Hill on Wednesday returned to their winter home in Brownsville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barchus and son, McClure, Miss Emma McClure of town and Miss Nancy Walton of Pittsburg motored to Berlin on Wednesday. Mr. Barchus and son returned the same day and the rest of the party remained until Friday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Saylor.

Archie F. Zimmerman and Miss Myrtle McKenzie of Davis, Md. were married Sunday, Sept. 26, at the home of Jonas Folk, Grantsville by Rev. E. E. Oney.

Mrs. C. T. Hay and daughter, Edna, went to Washington, Pa. last Wednesday to spend several weeks with the former's daughter, Mrs. Hunter Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Meager, Mrs. Phyllis Swain and Miss Julia Meese spent Wednesday of last week at the Cumberland Fair.

Samuel Kimmel, after spending several months with relatives and friends in Salisbury left on Thursday morning to return to Nevada. Before leaving Pennsylvania he will visit Somerset and transact business in other parts of the state.

Mrs. Emma Feiman of Chambersburg, is visiting her uncle, R. S. Johns and family.

D. E. Folk, of Pittsburg, arrived Wednesday to visit his father at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Beachy.

John Kern, who for some time was employed by a coal company at Harrison but is now working at Blackfield, spent Sunday with his family at this place.

James Winter and family attended the funeral of Joshua Furner at New Germany on Sunday forenoon at 11 o'clock.

Peter Breig, of Meyersdale, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Curtin Chaney.

E. L. Miller, of Garrett, was a Salisbury visitor on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lichter entertained at 6 o'clock dinner on Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Smith and Miss Florence Smith, of Pittsburg, Mrs. A. M. Lichty and Miss Edith Lichter, of town.

Mrs. Harry Garlitz of Darrah, Pa., who with her husband was recovering from typhoid fever, went to the Western Maryland Hospital, Cumberland on Tuesday to have several operations performed.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Hanna are visiting Mr. Hanna's parents at Harnedsville.

Frank Tedrow and family moved to Bradenville, Pa. last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellet Baumgartner, of Morgantown, W. Va., who had been visiting relatives in town, returned home on Tuesday.

Ellet Smith and family, of Pittsburg, after visiting relatives and friends for a week returned home on Tuesday.

GLUTEN FEED IS GOOD FOR CATTLE & HOGS. $1.50 Per Cwt. at C. E. DEAL.

CHURNGOLD AT— DONGES' MARKET.

Just received a lot of Tuna Fish in 10, 15 and 25 ct. sizes at BITTNER'S GROCERY.

GRANTSVILLE.

A number of people who had intended to take in the Oakland Fair on Friday were disappointed owing to a continued downpour of rain. As this was to have been rally day the most of the schools of the county were closed, expecting to take part in the exercises. The fair was postponed until Saturday but with no better success as the weather remained the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Raley, Misses Blanche Miller and Maud Bevans spent Friday in Oakland.

Mayor A. T. Matthews and Dr. Grant of Oakland were Grantsville callers on Sunday.

A. A. Fezenmeter and Miss Mary O'Halloran motored up from Cumberland on Sunday spending the day with Maud Bevans.

Lewis and Lizzie Klutz spent Sunday with Lewis Dieffenbaugh and family.

Olin Broadwater has returned to Baltimore to resume his studies in dentistry.

Mrs. J. O. Getty is spending a few days in Cumberland having accompanied her daughter, Wilda, who will enter Tri-State Business College.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bill entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Getty and family to a chicken and waffle supper on Saturday evening.

Messrs Joe and Arthur Hitchins with their wives and Paul Hitchins took supper at the Casselman on Sunday.

Mr. Sylvester H. Ryland of Meyersdale spent a few days of last week with his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Younk.

Miss Viola Broadwater has returned to Warren, Ohio, to resume her musical studies at Dana's Musical Institute.

Ethel Broadwater, Chas. Keller, and Menno Miller were Meyersdale visitors on Saturday.

VIM.

Mr. John White, a veteran of the Civil War, of Salisbury, was a guest at the Albert Baer home last Sunday.

Wm. Martens of near Frostburg, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of his brother, C. R. Martens.

Bruce Wetzel of Thurmond spent a week at the home of Eugene Weller.

Mrs. Wm. Johnson of Cumberland and Mrs. H. B. Hechler and daughter of near Meyersdale spent Monday at the home of C. W. Tressler.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hemright of Eckard, Md. spent last week at the home of C. R. Martens.

Mrs. Eugene Weller and Mrs. Wm. Seggie made a business trip to Boynton on Tuesday evening.

The mines are running full time when they have railroad cars.

Mrs. Mary Seggie spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Milton Meyer of near Hay's Mill.

Misses Marion and Jessie Saylor of Meyersdale spent Tuesday at the Eugene Weller home.

Three 10-cent Cans best Baked Beans for 25 cts. BITTNER'S GROCERY.

CHURNGOLD AT— DONGES' MARKET.

DEWEY'S HORSE & MULE FEED at $1.75 Per Hundred Weight. C. E. DEAL.

Special Price on Chipped Beef at— BITTNER'S GROCERY.

POCAHONTAS.

Watch Pocahontas in ten years from now and see the difference!
Plenty of rain in this vicinity last week.

Readers of the Commercial are all invited to come and bring their friends along to Pocahontas on Friday October 8th and take in the Old Dominion Show which has a fine reputation. Doors will be open at 1 and at 8 p. m.

John Cross who is operating for the Western Maryland Railway Co. at Colmar and boarding at the George Shockey home was accidentally shot through the hand by his brother last Friday while examining a revolver. The wound is healing nicely.

Fred Durr, Greenville's energetic and up-to-date roadmaster was working the highways through Pocahontas last week. Mr. Yaist was on hand with the two-horse land roller to make it solid. This is a good start for state roads. Congratulations, Mr. Durr.

Austin Friedline and his friend, Miss Annie Suder spent Sunday and Monday in Berlin.

Wm. R. Snyder was a guest over Sunday at the home of his friend, Leroy Rembold.

Dr. F. E. Sass is examining the pupils in the schools of Fairhope township; also in Northampton and Southampton townships.

Miss Ada Shockey of Stoyestown is spending a few days with her uncle George Shockey.

The Sunshine Club will hold a festival in the grove in Pocahontas, on Saturday, August 9th. Everybody cordially invited.

Painters and drillers are very busy in this section at present. It is hoped that the drillers will strike gas or oil instead of water—then look out for our burg!

Subscribe for the Commercial and get wise.

FEED DEWEY'S READY RATION TO YOUR COWS FOR MORE MILK $1.75 per Hundred Weight C. E. Deal.

GLENCOE

Mrs. Albert Raupach and children and Mrs. Cochran of Cumberland are spending a fortnight with J. T. Leydig's and with other relatives.

G. G. Delozier was a visitor to the Cumberland fair a few days of last week.

H. M. Poorbaugh and wife spent last week with their daughter, Mrs. Henry Smith of Cumberland.

Milton Webreck of Friedens Sundayed at F. W. Webreck's.

Charles Leydig of Johnstown was home over Sunday. He is nursing a finger afflicted with blood poisoning.

Time for the turkeys and squirrels to get shy, if all of this gun cleaning and shell buying for prospective hunting we hear about is true.

Harvest Home services were appropriately celebrated in the Reformed church last Sunday. The church was splendidly arrayed in all of the fruits and farm products.

Again John Hochstetler of Greenville township was a welcome caller at F. Webreck's on Sunday.

Mrs. J. L. Snyder is not well at present. Dr. Lichty of Meyersdale was called down to see her last Friday.

Mrs. I. D. Leydig and Miss Leah were Cumberland shoppers on Friday.

Dr. Beachy broke camp on Saturday and is now back to city life in Cumberland again.

Mrs. H. M. Bittner spent several days of last week with her mother, Mrs. Herman Hasselrode.

Mrs. W. A. Raupach was home at Fairhope over Sunday to attend a birthday surprise party on her mother.

Dora and Karl Raupach took in a few days of the Cumberland fair.

CHURNGOLD AT— DONGES' MARKET.

SUMMIT MILLS.

The weather favorable especially for the farmers who are cutting corn and digging potatoes.

Mr. Adam Lepley, well known resident of Elk Lick township, died Monday, at the age of 80 years.

David Miller and family spent Sunday at the home of W. B. Schrock.

Mr. Marlin Gnagey was noticed in our midst on Friday.

James Davis is spending the week at Cumberland visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. Irvin Eichnor spent Saturday night at the home of H. L. Maust.

William Miller paid his tenant house occupied by Oran Lindeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hostetter and son, Elmer, paid their daughter and sister, Mrs. Wilson Shumao a visit Sunday.

Mr. Homer Lindeman is working for Harvey Fike at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Newman were seen here Sunday.

The series of meetings which are conducted in the Church of the Brethren, by Rev. Holsinger, are well attended. They will come to a close Sunday night when the communion service will be held.

CHURNGOLD BUTTERINE

SOLD ONLY BY

Donges Market

There is None as Good or as Pure.

These Cotton Blankets Have the Warmth of Wool—at 1/3 the Price

You would think they were wool if we didn't tell you differently. They have a deep, curly nap that lasts through wear and washing, and they're remarkably strong—won't tear out easily as do most inexpensive blankets. Nashua Woolnap Blanket is one of the very best values we have to offer our customers.

Nashua

Woolnap Blankets

HARTLEY,
CLUTTON CO.

Canned Goods With True Flavor

GREATEST care should be exercised in purchasing canned fruits and vegetables. Many cases of ptomaine poisoning and indigestion are the result of using negligently put up goods. We specialize in canned articles of choicest quality—peaches, plums and pears; peas, beans, corn, succotash, etc. They have the "fresh from the farm" flavor.

McKenzie & Smith

Meyersdale, Penn'a

HERE'S SOME STRAIGHT TALK

When you call on us for new clothes, you'll see that our idea is to show what you want, not what we want to sell.

First and last, our idea is to satisfy you.

For instance, we carry HART SCHAFFNER & MARX clothes because they're guaranteed to satisfy you, besides many other good reasons.

So always remember that the only purchase that you need to keep is the one that satisfies you entirely.

You'll find some very striking fabrics in fall suits and overcoats here now.

THE PLACE IS.

HARTLEY & BALDWIN,

MEYERSDALE, PENN'A.

WELLERSBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Kennell and children Della and Hazel, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Long, Helen Wingert, Mildred, Hattie, Elva, Bertha, Pearl and Nyna Long and Edna Witt motored to the Clover Hill dairy about eight miles east of Cumberland on Sunday.

Miss Mary Chisholm of Cumberland spent Sunday evening with relatives near town.

Earl Witt, after spending several days with friends in Pittsburg and Crafton, returned home Sunday.

Frank Delbrook of Mt. Savage was a Sunday caller on relatives near here.

Mrs. Carrie Weigley and son of Somerset spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Sturtz.

Mrs. G. W. Witt was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Delbrook, of Mt. Savage Sunday.

Miss Carrie Robinette, an employee at the woolen mills of Cumberland spent Saturday night and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robinette of this place.

Mr. Archie Elrick of Thomas, W. Va. is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Emma Eggleston.

A number of people from town attended the Cumberland fair last week.

HOMINY FEED, GOOD FOR ALL STOCK. $1.70 per Cwt. C. E. DEAL

RYE MIDDLING IS VERY GOOD FOR FATTENING HOGS—$1.60 per HUNDRED AT — C. E. DEAL'S