

SALISBURY.

On Tuesday evening of last week a much enjoyed event in the shape of a corn roast took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas at Coal Run. There were plenty of good eats besides corn and every one present had a good time. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Meager, Mrs. P. M. Connor, Mr. and Mrs. George Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas and children, Mrs. Phyllis Swain, Misses Julia Meese, Violet James, Daisy James, Jean, Hazel, and Elizabeth Meager, Marie Cochran, Della Hoffman, Chas and John Meager, Harvey Wagner, Luke James and George Washington Valentine.

Andy Rungay and two children of Meyersdale were guests one day last week at home of the former's sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lichter.

Rev. E. E. Oney was a visitor to Jennings, Md. last Wednesday.

Jacob Blouch, of Youngstown, Ohio, was a Salisbury visitor the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Wells and Mr. Mrs. James Mitchell of Tyrone motored to Salisbury last Tuesday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wells until Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beggs and son, Donald and Miss Carrie Tissue of Confluence motored to town on Wednesday and spent the day with Mrs. Elizabeth Welfley and daughter, Miss Ida Welfley.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Baer and family of Meyersdale were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Engle and Miss Martha White on Sunday last.

Rev. Fr. Brady of Meyersdale was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Knecht at West Salisbury on Wednesday.

Rev. L. P. Young, D. D. Rev. E. E. Oney and Jere Kretzman of Elk Lick Township went to Huntingdon on Thursday to attend the annual sessions of the Allegheny Synod of the Lutheran Church.

Masters Emmett Stevanus, Paul Corbett and Wm Livengood Jr. took a little hike to the country on Sunday. They visited several hours at the home of the former's grandfather, J. S. Stevanus at Sand Flat.

Fred J. Harris, who with his family spent the summer on his farm in Delaware, has returned and is again holding his old job as clerk at Merchants Mine No. 3.

Merchants Mine No. 3 of the United Coal Co. resumed operations several weeks ago; after a long shut-down now about 30 coal diggers are employed. More men will be employed just as soon as places are made ready for them. It is thought that about 18 months steady work will finish up the coal left in that mine.

The Ajax Mine, at Coal Run, has also been put in operation again. It is being operated by Bowman Brothers, of Boynton.

J. Howard Meager and George James attended a conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Pittsburgh, the latter part of the week.

Dr. E. S. Johnston left on Tuesday for Altoona where he visited with his son, Edwin S. Johnston, until Wednesday afternoon, when he went to Huntingdon to attend the Allegheny Synod of the Lutheran Church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barchus, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McClure and Miss Emma McClure started for Washington, D. C., on Tuesday morning in the Barchus car. They will spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McClure and also intend to visit Baltimore during the trip.

Miss Stella Fair, of Akron, Ohio, visited Salisbury relatives and friends last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reiber visited their daughter, Mrs. Hary Garlitz, at the Western Maryland Hospital, Cumberland on Sunday and reported her recovering nicely from her recent operations.

Mrs. Alice Williams shipped her household goods last week to Akron, Ohio, where the family will make their future home. She has rented her little farm east of town to Chas. Grove, of Boynton.

Howard Meager Company, General Merchants, have put to service a Starns truck, with a hauling capacity of a ton and a half. The truck will be used for delivering goods to customers and freight hauling for the store.

Dr. P. J. Swank went to Somerset in his Ford run-a-bout last Thursday and was the guest of his brother, Jacob Swank, who is ill at present.

Mrs. D. F. Lopley and daughter, Bertha, of Uniontown, were visitors for several days last week at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. F. A. Maust.

Isaac Coughnour, of near Fritz Church and his brother, of Kansas, were guests on Wednesday, of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. N. Moser.

Mrs. E. E. Haselbarth entertained the members of the Lutheran Choir on Wednesday evening at her home on Ord street. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

Rev. Clyde V. Sparling attended the conference of the Methodist Episcopal church at Pittsburg last week.

Mrs. Savitz Boyer and daughter, Miss Charlotte spent Thursday afternoon in Meyersdale with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Boyer.

Claude Menser of Crawford, N. J. is visiting relatives in this place, having come on Wednesday from Somerset where he had been transacting business for several days.

Jacob Emerick went to Latrobe last week where he has steady employment.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Maust and family, Mrs. J. L. Barchus and Mrs. Zephia Glatfely motored to Cumberland on Tuesday of last week.

On Monday of the past week Constable B. F. Krause accompanied Mrs. Maggie Baker and her 12-yr. old daughter, Lucinda to Somerset where they were placed in the county home. They had been stopping for some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Brown.

RYE MIDDLING IS VERY GOOD FOR FATTENING HOGS—$1.60 per HUNDRED AT — C. E. DEAL'S

GLENCOE

Ed. Cober and family and Harvey Leydig and friend motored from Somerset to F. Webbeck's for a Sunday dinner.

Ida Bittner is home for a short time before returning to Cumberland for more electric treatments.

A goodly number of Cumberland people attended the funeral of Solomon Shiller at Johnsburg on Tuesday.

J. T. Shipley, of Meyersdale, arrived Monday noon to spend the week with the Merciers at Johnsburg.

Chas. Loose is in our town since Sunday hunting "big game"—the deer season opens October 15.

Mrs. J. L. Snyder and Mabel were Meyersdale visitors on Monday.

Frank Miller is taking his vacation at present. It takes the form of potato parties but he says his potatoes don't "turn out."

The Misses Carrie and Bess Harrison, of Cumberland, were week-end guests of Leah Leydig. An auto trip to Meyersdale on Sunday and a home runner to Cumberland on Monday, were the contributions of the Ford to their entertainment.

Sol Martz acted guard to a party of four girls enroute to Cumberland on last Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Bittner was a Meyersdale caller last Friday.

Mrs. Dickerhoof and Mrs. Walter Martz, of Cumberland, attended the funeral of the Amos Martz infant, last Friday.

Harry Snider and wife made social and business calls last Wednesday at I. D. Leydig's and W. T. Mercier's.

Allen Bittner made a trip to a Cumberland doctor on Tuesday to have a piece of steel taken from his right arm.

I. D. Leydig was a Fairhope business caller on Tuesday.

CORN & BARLEY CHOP $1.70 at C. E. DEAL.

EDUCATIONAL RALLY AT SUMMIT MILLS.

The following is the program for an Educational Rally to be held at Summit Mills schoolhouse on Friday evening, October 29.

Song—

The Importance of Skill—S. C. Witt.

Economy in Supplies—R. J. Engle.

Recitation—Mae Moore.

The Teacher on the School Grounds—Lloyd Shumac.

Current Events—Sadie Schrock.

Benefit of Examinations—F. E. Witt.

Character Building—A. L. Fike.

Duet—Anna Miller and Ella Witt.

Qualifications and Duties of School Directors—W. E. Walker.

Essay—Ruth Commons.

Impromptu Class—Velma Beals.

Recitation—Marie Shultz.

The Importance of Knowledge—E. R. Hay.

Grading Schools—D. C. Handwerk.

Debate—Resolved, That Women should Have the Right of Suffrage—Affirmative, W. W. Nicholson, and D. M. Lee; Negative, H. L. Maust and George Growall.

All interested in the subject of education are invited.

Committee.

POCAHONTAS.

Jack Frost has done a good deal of damage in this vicinity in the last week.

Farmers are busy cutting corn and digging potatoes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baker and daughter, Edna of Sippleville were visitors at John Rembold's on Sunday last.

William Miller spent Saturday night and Sunday with a friend in Frostburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sipple and daughters, Florence and Gladys and Ervin Engle of St. Paul were the guests of J. H. Snyder last Sunday.

Wm. Tressler and Norman Zimmerman removed their drilling machine to Boynton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Werner returned from Youngstown, Ohio, last Sunday.

LOOK RIGHT WHEN YOU BUY THEM

STAY RIGHT WHEN YOU WEAR THEM

The Last Word in Clothes Perfection

BEFORE we ever thought of selling these clothes to you men and young men—these clothes had to be sold to us.

We're mighty close traders—and we're very exacting—for therein lies the secret of our success.

$18 "High Art" Style Clothes $25

looked mighty good to us—going and coming. There's where you'll agree.

HIGH ART Style Clothes set the pace in the better class clothing world. Their style, their finish, their durability and their very reasonable price represent the acme of clothing perfection.

For young men—models with snap and go to them, in Roman Stripes, Plaids and mixtures.

For men—models built for conservative or extreme tastes—and models for every build—fabrics to meet every demand.

Slip on these remarkable clothes and your faith in our claim for them will be established—once wear them and you'll use no others.

ONE OF THE MANY HIGH ART MODELS

MILLER & COLLINS,

MEYERSDALE,

PENN'A.

"Watch Your Step"

"INDIVIDUALITY"

"Watch Your Step"

Is an enviable attribute and is occasionally expressed in various articles of wearing apparel, including Shoes. But rarely is it combined with comfort. In the model shown here, the designers, Tom & Jim have been particularly fortunate.

We Submit Them for Your Consideration If You Will Call

TOM & JIM,

Hartley Block,

Meyersdale, Pa.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We desire to announce to the women of this community that we have secured the agency for the popular

Pictorial Review Patterns.

The November patterns are now in stock in our Dry Goods Department.

$10,000 IN CASH PRIZES

WILL BE AWARDED BY THE PICTORIAL REVIEW CO.

DURING THE NEXT YEAR.

For further particulars, read The Pictorial Review.

HARTLEY, CLUTTON CO.

GARRETT

Mr. Clinton Vought, who had been on the sick list for some time, is slowly improving.

Donald Craig, of Ralphton, spent Sunday with his family here.

Mrs. J. D. Hoffert and family left on Saturday morning for Akron, O., where they will make their future home, Mr. Hoffert being employed there.

Wedding bells will ring in town in the near future.

Prof. and Mrs. H. B. Speicher spent several hours on Monday evening at Meyersdale.

Mahlon Christner spent Saturday at Somerset on business.

Our sportsmen are now procuring their Hunters' Licenses and making preparations for the opening of the season on Friday.

On Sunday, October 17, 1915, a Rally Day Service will be held in the Evangelical Lutheran Church here and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Earl Christner, Misses Blanche and "Babe" Bittner motored in the car of the first named to Summit Mills on Sunday where they attended the love feast of the Church of the Brethren.

A piano has been purchased for the Grace Reformed church and it has already been installed. The instrument was bought from Joseph Hoffert. It is likely that a musical entertainment will be held in the near future.

HOMINY FEED, GOOD FOR ALL STOCK. $1.70 per Cwt. C. E. DEAL

APPRECIATION

My thanks are due and they are hereby publicly extended to the Republican Voters, of Somerset County, (especially including the Union Veterans of the Civil War and the Sons of Veterans) for the magnificent vote given me at the recent Primary Election for my nomination to the office of Prothonotary, and now, may we hope for solid ranks at the General Election November 2nd, 1915, for which all voters have my lasting gratitude.

Respectfully, Jonas M. Cook.

RALLY DAY AT SUMMIT MILLS.

Rally Day will be observed in the Brethren Church at Summit Mills, Sunday, October 18, at 9:30 A. M. The "Male Quartette" from Meyersdale will furnish some special music and singing. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.