Poetry.

Sometimes as even stills the world, and darkness o'er us falls, I think of the poems we used to compose Within the high school walls. 'Tis o'er; no more do we entrance our hearts with those melodies rare. We dream no more of nature's dance, Nor the poems beyond compare.

Alas! our spirits of poetic love have declined and met their doom. Farewell, dear myths, we bid thee bye No more does the writer boom. J. W. A. H., '16

(We do not wish to discourage youthful poets, but when this cry of anguish breaks loose from a Senior, it is time to protect the names of Shakespeare, Longfellow, Dorothy Dix and others. Ed.)

School Spirit.

What is school spirit? First of all what is spirit? Spirit is life, animation. One who lacks spirit, lacks animation, life and courage. School spirit means lively, interested and loyal support of every project undertaken by a school. Shall it be said that we are wanting life? Life is the foundation of everything in the universe, and is, to our sorrow, lacking in our school. Will you students stand for so terrible an accusation? If you think the charge is wrong you will have to prove it by supporting the various activities undertaken for the good of the school.

With the last few months the coal traffic of the Western Maryland has shown a large increase, due, in part, to the heavy tonnage which the Consolidation Coal Company is diverting to its line.

Bathing in Ancient Times.

The ancient Spartans were very definite as to the right and wrong kinds of bath. A daily dip in the river was permissible and so was a dry bath in a chamber heated with warm air by means of a stove. But the warm-water bath remained a mark of effeminacy, as it had been in Homeric times. No public wash baths were permitted in the vigorous days of early Athens. Antiquity comprises the extremes of practices in this matter of bathing. There were the Dardanians, a Balkan people, who were said to bathe only three times, at birth, at marriage and after death. At the other end of the scale stood the later Roman emperors, who would indulge in seven or eight baths a day. And they use all kinds.—London Chronicle.

VOTE NO [X] NEXT TUESDAY

On Woman Suffrage, the FIRST Amendment on the Ballot.

GIVE THE HOME A SQUARE DEAL

There was a time-right in this State, too-when no man had a right to vote, unless he was the possessor of houses and lands and had a regular income from property.

How would you like to have such a doctrine applied today? Wouldn't it make you mad?

Well, women need the vote just as much as you do. They need it to see that the home, which is a woman's place, gets a square deal. You can't "represent" a woman in such a matter. She needs a vote of her own. To deprive her of it is just as unfair as it would be to deprive you of your ballot right now.

Remember that when you enter the voting booth on Election Day.

Remember, also, that the amendments are printed at the bottom of the ballot, and vote "YES" on the first of them.
