GRANTSVILLE.

A teachers' institute was held in the Schoolhouse on Friday evening which was one of the best ever held in this district for years. Several papers were read by the near-by teachers as follows: "The Teaching of English" by Angela D. Getty, "Drawing" by Ruth C. Keller, "Personality of the Teacher" by Lucretia Boucher and "Aesthetic Education" by Marie E. Conner. Blanche Miller, primary instructor in the Grantsville school, gave an hour of model teaching in her room which was very interesting and helpful to all. Many good points were brought out by the papers read and helpful suggestions made by Mr. Rathbun and Capt. R. R. Sanner. The latter presided over the meeting. Supt. F. E. Rathbun gave an instructive talk on "How to Teach History." An
