THE ALL BROTHERS QUARTET.

The All Brothers Quartet is composed of four brothers, Albert B., Joseph A., Clyde J. and Glen A. Caskey. Not only are they full brothers, but they have unusual gift as musicians, and they have played and sung together about as long as they can remember.

They have shown remarkable ability in their voice work, and their instrumentation is most unusual.

They form an instrumental quartet with the first and second cornet, the saxophone and the trombone.

All four play the chimes. Their program includes solos on the violin and

RULE ON CREDITORS ET AL—

In Re Assigned Estate of S. D. Livengood: No. 377, September Term 1907.

January 25th, 1916, a petition was presented to the Court of Common Pleas of Somerset County by Charles H. Ealy, Assignee of S. D. Livengood, praying the Court for a rule upon creditors and others to show cause why said assignee should not grant an option to any one desiring the same, to purchase all their right, title, interest, claim and demand of the said S. D. Livengood of, in and to the coal and fireclay underlying certain tracts of land situate in Somerset and Stonycreek Townships, Somerset County, Pennsylvania, containing in the aggregate eleven hundred (1100) acres more or less, and known as the "Adams Mines Property," at and for a sum of not less than Sixteen Thousand ($16,000.00) Dollars. Said option to extend for a period, not more than ninety (90) days. And also to grant a rule to show cause why the said assignee should not have power and authority to sell, without previous option, the said interests of the said S. D. Livengood in and to the said tracts of land, and the coal and the fireclay underlying the same, at and for the price of not less than Sixteen Thousand ($16,000.00) Dollars.

Whereupon the Court granted a rule as prayed for upon all creditors and others to appear at Somerset, on the 14th of February, 1916, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to show cause why said option or sale should not be made as prayed for. Said rule to be served by publication in two newspapers by two or more insertions in each.

Attest: P. J. RUPPEL (P. J.)
JONAS M. COOK, Prothonotary.
