

SALISBURY.

On account of the severe blizzard which raged on Saturday and Sunday, the P. and M. street car was tied up from Saturday night until Monday evening, parts of the road being blocked with snow.

Frank Petry has fully recovered from his recent attack of appendicitis.

At a reorganization meeting of the Salisbury Board of Health held recently, Frank Petry was re-elected president and James Harding, vice president.

James Harding and Joseph Hoover are newly appointed members. The election of a health officer and secretary was deferred until the next meeting when the quarter will be finished.

On March 22, John S. Walker will sell his personal things at public sale after which Mr. and Mrs. Walker and daughter, Miss Hazel, will go west, where another daughter and a son are located.

Father J. J. Brady, of Meyersdale, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Knecht at West Salisbury last Wednesday.

Albert Menhorn has returned home from Greensburg where he for some time worked at the baker trade and will again take charge of the Menhorn shop at this place. Clarence Menhorn, who conducted the shop lately, has secured other employment.

George Engle was a business visitor to Pittsburg the fore part of the week.

C. J. Engle until recently salesman for the 20th Century Mfg. Co., of Boynton, has gone to Pittsburg where he has secured another position.

Mrs. Bella Teirney, of Meyersdale, spent Wednesday with her children at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McKenzie.

Mrs. Annie Emerick who has been ill with grippe and lung trouble for about three weeks is able to be around again.

I. L. Eye, of Washington, D. C. visited his brother, William Frye, and family last week.

Mrs. H. C. McKinley, of Meyersdale, visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. McDowell, on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Miller, of Confluence, were guests last Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Livengood.

The Kings Daughters' Class of the M. E. Sunday school held a box social and supper in the McKinley building on Friday evening, February 25th, from 5 to 11 p. m. and there was a large turnout.

F. E. Livengood and Albert Reitz spent the forepart of last week in Pittsburg where on Monday evening they attended the twenty-first annual reception and banquet of Group 6 Pennsylvania Bankers' Association in the Hotel Schenly.

Mrs. E. E. Hasebarth is spending several weeks in Pittsburg.

E. S. Johnston, Jr., of Altoona, spent several days last week visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Johnston.

Mrs. Norman May and children, of Jerome, spent last week with the former's sister, Mrs. A. F. Ringler and family.

Mrs. Geo. W. May, of Buffalo Mills, spent several days last week visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Blake at Boynton.

Born to Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Waltz, Saturday, February 19th, a son.

Dr. A. M. Lichty spent Wednesday in Cumberland on professional business.

There are quite a number of cases of whooping cough in town. The chicken pox epidemic has subsided.

Rev. and Mrs. O. G. Frye and two children spent several days of last week at Garrett where Rev. Frye conducted meetings in the Evangelical church.

Mr. and Mrs. George Baer of Greenville township, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McKenzie several days last week.

Samuel Larue of Keystone, was a Salisbury visitor on Tuesday.

Mrs. P. W. Geidt and Mrs. A. F. Hammill, of Meyersdale, spent Wednesday with Mrs. C. W. Stotler.

The next number of the Salisbury Lecture Course will be given in Hay's Opera House on Thursday evening March 2, by Wilfred Joubert, subject, "The Mexican Situation." This is a timely subject and will no doubt be well presented for Mr. Joubert has spent twenty years in Mexico and South America and is therefore in position to know whereof he speaks.

GRANTSVILLE.

Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Bowen attended the funeral of Mrs. Bowen's aunt, Mrs. Mattingly of Cumberland last week. The funeral was held from St. Patrick's church.

Miss Vera Callahan and two brothers, Dorsey and Francis, of Dennison, Ohio, spent several days with their sister, Mrs. Bowen.

Misses Mary and Lavina Blocher, Urban Blocher, Mrs. Irene Hays, Mrs. Henry Bonig, Winifred Bonig, Myran Maust were among those who attended the "Birth of a Nation" in Cumberland given Thursday an Friday mornings. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller

SPECIAL
SATURDAY, MARCH 4TH
ORRIN JOHNSTON in
"SATAN SANDERSON"
A Big Metro Feature
MONDAY, MARCH 6TH
Big Four V.L.S.E.
"THE CAVE MAN"
TUESDAY, MARCH 7TH
Worlds Film
"BODY and SOUL"
THURSDAY, MARCH 9TH
V.L.S.E.
"THE GREAT DIV DE"
Don't Miss This.

and Mrs. J. O. Getty went down in Mr. Miller's car to the Saturday matinee. Mr. and Mrs. Menno Miller and little son accompanied by Misses Blanche Miller and Marie Conner and in another car, U. O. Blocher and Beulah Engle, were down for the evening performance on Saturday but owing to the severe snow storm and bad luck, the party did not arrive home until Sunday evening and then, not until after much shoveling of snow.

The storm of Saturday night and Sunday was the most severe that has visited this section for several years. Miss Hattie Morrell of Meyersdale is visiting Miss Lulu Shaw of Hillsdale Farm.

A handkerchief shower was held last week for Mrs. J. A. Beachy in honor of her birthday. She was the recipient of many beautiful handkerchiefs.

A sale was held at the Enoch Bender farm on Friday. Mr. Daniel Beachy the son-in-law will take charge of the farm.

The entertainment held at the Beachy or Shade Run school proved quite a success. A very large crowd was present—a number of people from the Cove, Springs and many of the surroundings sections being represented.

Norman Yoder and family from Pinto, attended the sale at Enoch Bender's and the entertainment at the Beachy school.

Mrs. Fred Hackman, Mrs. Alfred Schlossnagle, John Schlossnagle, Jno. Will George took supper with Mrs. J. A. Beachy on Friday.

An auction was held on Thursday of this week at the store of Henry Boning. On Saturday evening of this week an auction will be held in Gilthead Broadwater's store.

WOODLAWN

Mrs. Harvey Wahl and two children spent last Thursday at the home of Ralph Moser.

Miss Nancy Albright is going to work in the household of Cyrus Fike this summer.

Miss Harriet Nicholson, who had been staying in Woodlawn at the home of Cyrus Fike for the past few weeks, has returned home.

Lloyd and Allen Fike attended the Bender Sale at Chestnut Springs on Friday.

Mr. Hillery Shuck, of Woodlawn, moved to Vim in part of the house which is now occupied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shuck.

Mr. Kimmel, who has been farming for the Wilmoth Bros. the past years, is moving to Somerville in the Elmer Walker house.

Harry Dietle spent Sunday in Greenville with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Dietle.

Mrs. John Brown and two children spent last Monday afternoon at the home John W. Miller's.

Last Monday when Morris Brown was crossing the railroad with a load of mine props his wagon got fast at the rail and a train ran into it demolishing the wagon but the driver and horses escaped unhurt.

WELLERSBURG

Mrs. Wm. Bradower of Cumberland is spending the week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kneriem. Mr. Kneriem is said to be in a very weak condition.

Mr. H. P. Hay and son Horner of Berlin Pa. R. F. D. spent a few days last week near town, purchasing a very fine horse from Levi Beal and two of G. W. Witt.

Among those from town who witnessed the "Birth of a Nation" at the Maryland Theatre Saturday night were Earl and Harry Witt, David Close, Walter Sturtz, Homer and Ellsworth Beal Ralph Poorbaugh and Edna Witt.

Miss Elthea Wilhelm spent Saturday evening and Sunday as a guest of relatives and friends in Frostburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus McKenzie after spending a few days with relatives near town returned to Mr. McKenzie's home near Deal.

Foreign Missionary Service was held in the Reformed church Sunday morning by Rev. Kresge.

Harry Delbrook assisted by Philip

Smith are busy getting out timber for their new barn.

Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Damm of Narrows Park spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sturtz.

Mrs. G. W. Witt was shopping in Cumberland Tuesday.

GLENCOE.

Alice Webreck, a recent graduate of the West Penn Hospital, of Pittsburg, arrived here Saturday to spend a week with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hostetler left on No. 5 Monday for their future home in Iowa.

Mrs. H. M. Poorbaugh returned from a visit to Cumberland on Sunday accompanied by her niece, Ollie Poorbaugh, and the latter's friend, Mr. Fike, of Meyersdale.

"Hello Central!"—Marion Leydig has at last put in appearance from a two weeks' tour of western territory. Bert Raupach and family, of Cumberland, are guests of relatives here this week.

The following were in attendance at the House warming at Somerset in H. A. Leydig's first and new home on Friday night: J. T. Leydig and wife, Mrs. W. H. Miller and son, Wilber, and Leah R. Leydig.

Southampton School again was the victim of bad weather conditions on Saturday night when the blizzard hit this section.

Mesdames B. F. Bittner and J. L. Snyder spent Saturday with Mrs. Noah Martz, of Hyndman.

Mrs. W. H. Cook spent a few days of last week at Mt. Savage.

WITTENBERG.

Misses Anna Geiger and Mary Mazer were visiting friends and relatives in Berlin last week.

Grace Muray spent Saturday and Sunday with Meyersdale friends, Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Ramhoff and son Charles were callers at Alfred Knapp's on Tuesday.

The following were present at Henry Geiger's last Tuesday: Mrs. Susan Smith and daughter, Eliza, Mrs. C. C. Housel and son, Karl, Mrs. Owen Murray, Nannie Murray and daughter, Alma.

Miss Martha Smith has returned from a two-months visit with relatives in Humbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Dia of Portsmouth are the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Seville Geiger.

Mrs. Herman Beal was a recent caller at the Ezra Geiger home.

Eliz and Wm. Smith spent Sunday at the home of their brother Francis in Deal.

ELK LICK TOWNSHIP

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.
The following is the program for an institute to be held at Boynton on March 11, 1916 to begin at 9:15 in the morning.

Song—A Song the World is Singing.

Possibilities of a District School, Prof. O. O. Saylor.

The World's Work Done by Great Men, A. G. Maust.

Music, An Essential, Florence Maust.

The Teacher's Place in Society, Clyde Smalley.

Reading, Lizzie Yoder.

The Benefit of a Study Period, To the Pupil—To the Teacher, Ada Grotfelty.

The Spirit of Instruction, Elizabeth Beals.

Song, Brighten the Corner.

Address, Prof. M. F. Schrock.

Importance of Diversifying Methods, Guy Wahl.

Our Needs in Rural Education, C. E. Butler.

Reading, Grace Blough.

Patriotism, Floyd Beeghly.

Country School Sanitation, Mary James.

COMMITTEE.

GARRETT.

W. L. Brant was in Pittsburg last week on business.

Miss Marie Weller of Rockwood is visiting her friends, Misses Nelle and Verda Brant this week.

Friday was Parents' Day in the schools—quite a few of the parents

—ANNOUNCEMENT—

Our buyer, Mr. Clutton, is in the Eastern Markets this week, looking up the new things in Women's Wearables for Spring and Summer.

It is one of the aims of the Women's Store to feature Distinction in Dress, and we ask you to inspect our stock before selecting garments for Spring When You See It at the Women's Store the Price is Right.

HARTLEY, CLUTTON CO.
The Women's Store

Two Minds With But a Single Thought— "STETSON for Mine"

Young men and their elders appreciate a Stetson not merely as a HAT, but because it IS A STETSON.

There's a world of difference. You'll know it the minute you step into our store.

STETSONS THIS SPRING

have a touch of vigorous youth that will quickly catch your fancy.

You will find here the hat that suits your head as well as your ideas of good dress.

Miller & Collins

DAINTY & ARTISTIC EFFECT.

Can be produced by the use of Attractive Wall Paper.

We Show Large and Varied Assortment

P. J. COVER & SON.

manifested their interest in education by visiting the schools but it seems as if more interest could be shown. If the parents co-operate more with the teachers concerning the welfare of their children and go to school and see just what they are doing—the children would make more progress in their school work.

Frank Judy was in Pittsburg last week to consult a specialist. He will take treatment under Dr. Lichty.

B. S. Rush was a Garrett caller on Monday.

Nina Cochrane went to Cumberland Sunday to see her mother who recently underwent an operation in the Allegany hospital.

Elmer Walker of Holsopple spent the week-end with Garrett friends.

There will be a school entertainment in the opera house next Saturday night at 7:30. Let all come and have a good time.

PREPAREDNESS

Against the inefficiency of poor clothing is our thought.

Two things are necessary for your genteel appearance--

1st—Inspect our display of $10.00 Suits in our Show Window.

2nd—Any Old Worn Ten Dollar Bill you may have around for the Latest 1916 Spring Styles. That's All

Nuf Ced"

Hartley & Baldwin

—Your Eyes!—

Like your teeth require attention every little while—Eyes like teeth Ache and Deteriorate.

Have your Eyes been giving you any uneasiness or do you feel them giving way. Don't neglect-these very important Organs—treat them fair.

My Specialty is to aid your Eyes to be at their very best.

If you need Eye Help—Come to see me.

COOK, THE OPTOMETRIST
Eye Sight Specialist

VALUABLE ADVICE FREE

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Phenice and son William, left on Sunday for Baltimore where they will visit Mr. Phenice's sister, Mrs. Joe Burns.

AMUSEMENTS AT THE SUMMER GARDEN.

Satan Sanderson.
The Metro feature in which Orrin Johnston, the prominent star plays the title role, comes to the Summer Garden on Saturday evening, March 4 when the local theatre goers will have their first look at Mr. Johnston, a typical matinee idol. Satan Sanderson in book form was the seller of its period. This was a marvel of a story of mistaken identity. Also Chaplin will be there too.

The Cave Man.

This Big Four attraction starts another all-star program for the week of March 6. No roller skating. Music to suit the photo-plays by Prof. Bittner. The opening program for the week will feature Robert Edeson and other eminent Vitagraph stars in the "Cave Man" It is all so true to life.

Body and Soul.

Another of those interesting appealing World films with the popular screen star Florence Rockwell in this great play. See it next Tuesday evening.

THROUGHOUT THE COUNTY

Items of Interest Culled From Our Exchanges

Harry Heshler, who recently sold his farm in Upper Turkeyfoot township to Chas. Meyers, has purchased the 122-acre farm of R. A. Snyder of New Lexington, for $8,000.

State authorities recently analyzed the water from the stream at Shawtown and found typhoid fever germs. Six samples from water at Berlin were pronounced impure.

A new building of brick will soon be erected on the site of the Andy Bittner restaurant at Boswell wrecked by a gas explosion several months ago.

The tenth anniversary of the Rockwood Lodge of Odd Fellows was observed Thursday evening at a banquet served in the auditorium of the Rockwood High School. Rev. John Erlar was toastmaster. Covers were laid for 150 and the dinner was served by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Lutheran church.

TRY HEINZ'S FIG PUDDING AT BITTNER'S GROCERY; YOUR MONEY BACK IF YOU ARE NOT SATISFIED.

Our job work is sure to please.