ARE YOU FOR MEYERSDALE?
A few days ago, Postmaster Nangle said that he had received that day for distribution in Meyersdale and vicinity 1500 lbs. of mail order house catalogues. As it costs these houses considerable to get them out and distributed by the mails, the evidence is conclusive that there is much purchasing done by the residents in this locality of mail order houses.

Agents of all kinds traverse our streets and even out into the country taking orders for what they represent, such as clothing, groceries, printing material, drugs, hardware and every other line of business.

The supposed motive of sending away from home for these things is that they may be gotten cheaper than at home. This may be true in some cases and in other instances the goods are inferior and the purchaser is deceived.

Persons will get trust or credit from the home merchants and then pay cash for those things they get from the mail order houses. They expect to make their living off of the people of this community and they in turn will send their money away from town, which they will never see again.

The person who deals away from home, is simply mean and selfish and he ought to be treated by the public as they are treating the public. Even the railroad man is paid in part by the local people in their fares and freight.

Do you care a snap for the success of Meyersdale? Are you interested about the other people of this community? Do you realize that the schools, the churches, the streets, the peace of the town are all paid for by the people who make their living here. Of the thousands of dollars which you send away, perhaps combined every month, never in the history of the town has one dollar come back to help you or the interests of the town and there is so much that we have in common.

Things can be bought in Meyersdale just as cheap as elsewhere. Be loyal to your town. Would you like to be classed in the face of your fellow members of society as an out-of-town buyer? Let's stick together. We sing "America" as it applies to the whole country to Meyersdale in particular and let us show our loyalty to home interest as we burst forth with enthusiasm to the whole country.

While the most of the merchants of the town have their printing done at home there are others who give it to be done away from Meyersdale and at the same time they send in material to be published by the editor to score those who deal out of town. Consistency, eh?

The potato bug need not fear its extermination by the use of Paris Green this year as insecticide manufacturer have suspended making it on account of the high price of the materials used. Even potato bugs are affected by the war. The farmer will have to use arsenate of lead which is better and cheaper. The factory employes in this line will be pleased not to handle Paris green as it is a very disagreeable and injurious occupation.

FORT HILL
M. H. Vought went to Connellsville on Saturday to hear Robert Jones preach; he listened to three sermons. Milton says that Mr. Jones is the finest talker that he ever heard. Milton returned home on Monday.
Miss Leah Hall of Confluence visited from Friday evening till Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Eicher.
Lloyd Vought, Harry Miller, Grant Snyder and Tony Farro went to the Savage mountains on Saturday to look at a tract of timber where Mr. Vought intends to operate in the near future.

The M. H. S. Basketball team is planning for their trip to Windber on Friday when they play the High School of that place. From there they go on to Juniata, where on Saturday they play the second team of Juniata College. The trip will no doubt be an enjoyable one to the team which is justly deserved. We hope that victory will be theirs in both Windber and Juniata.

The Juniors are now taking up "The Sir Roger De Coverly Papers," from "The Spectator." They will soon be able to take the parts of n-lookers and discern the errors in the economy business and diversion of others better than those who are now engaged in them.

Claude Deal, seeing that the girls were not taking advantage of leap year, decided to do the deed himself but by his downcast countenance we rightly guess that he was flatly refused.

Earl Opel insists that Hamlet cannot be judged by what Ophelia says of him, because she is in love with him and is consequently prejudiced. What's the reason Earl thinks so? Is it possible that he has been disappointed in love and now realizes how exaggerated were his ideas of the fair one? Nothing but experience could give him such an idea.

Yes! Yes! We know the Freshmen are "deers," but we are so sorry that they don't know the proper way to spell it.

It is quite evident that our news column is read with interest by a lot of people. Even the children read it. The other day Mary Will was accosted by Joseph Foley with this question, "Say, Mary, are you still engaged?" "Engaged," gasped Mary blankly. "Yes," said Joseph, "engaged—to Frank Hocking. I read it in the paper."

"She is the sweetest, truest, purest, most beautiful, gentlest girl in the whole play." She is likened to the lily among a bed of thistles. Don't be shocked. It is only F. Boucher collecting his thoughts, preparatory to writing a character sketch of Ophelia, not a rhapsody on some chorus girl as you would be led to think.

David Noel who sometimes does slight hand stunts, is going to write a "biology" of Hamlet. Noel will probably be another Darwin.

"Joey" has been very much interested in the B. & O. time table; some one has suggested that he is planning a trip to Cumberland.

Last Friday evening when Earl Opel came for his sky-pine, it was not to be found anywhere. After a long search he found an old slouch hat in one of the cloak rooms. He says that he didn't mind the joke, but the wind didn't respect that at all.

John McKenzie wants to know why women propose in leap year. Will someone please tell him.

Miss Livengood is constantly giving the Seniors papers to read. She is trying to amuse them and deserves credit.

FOUR DROWNED IN HOT WATER TANK
At a shop meeting in connection with the Bob Jones evangelistic campaign at Connellsville, Tuesday afternoon four young men were drowned in a vat of hot water. One other was painfully injured and six more were saved by clinging to ropes thrown by rescuers.
The Rev. W. M. Curtis and Loren Jones, choir leader of the party, were conducting the meeting in the yard of the B. & O. shops when the shed over a hot water tank gave way, projecting a dozen young men into the vat. The last words of "Jesus Includes Me," were hardly uttered when the accident occurred. The boys killed were Arthur Wagner, Harry Lucas, Harry Crossland and John Bromio. None was over 18 yrs. The men had been warned that the roof was unsafe. More than 1200 persons have "hit the trail" at these meetings the past three weeks.
Mrs. Sarah Jane Pritts, Wife of Henry Pritts, died Feb. 26 at her home near Trent, aged 36 yrs. as the result of confinement. Her husband and eight children survive. The body was taken to Fayette county for interment.
