

GRANTSVILLE.

Death of Mrs. J. J. Bender.
Mrs. J. Bender died on Friday evening, March 10 after an illness lasting over a year. She is survived by her husband and six children, ranging in age from two to seventeen years. Interment was made in the Grantsville Cemetery, after which funeral services were held in the M. E. church of which she had been a long-time member. The sermon was preached by Rev. Morris, a former pastor of the deceased. Mrs. Bender was well known here and at Salisbury her girlhood home. The funeral procession was one of the largest in this place for years.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ringler, February 24, a daughter. Glenn, the two-year old son of Clarence J. Miller, has been very sick for the past week.

Rev. Carder, assisted by Rev. Stephen of Friendsville is holding a revival in the M. E. church this week. Miss Mollie Dorsey is able to be out again after a slight indisposition lasting for several days.

Miss Ruby Beachy entertained a number of friends on Tuesday evening. Several persons were present from Grantsville and Cove. Games were played and at the close of the evening a delicious collation was served by the hostess.

Services were held in the Catholic church on Sunday and Monday and also in the Lutheran church on Sunday.

A sleighing party composed of the 7th and 8th grades, chaperoned by Misses Evelyn Beachy and Dorothy Younkun, drove to Salisbury one evening last week.

Mrs. Menno Miller is spending the week with her mother, Mrs. Maust of Springs.

GLENCOE.

Mrs. I. D. Leydig spent Sunday with her brother, Chas. Coleman, of Somerset. Mr. Coleman is a victim of pneumonia but was improving by the last report.

The Band was suddenly dismissed from the Upper Room on Monday night by Boss Henry calling for aid at Roddy, where eight cars arranged themselves for a rest. Some Japanese bath the weather man gave the boys.

Alfred Bittner contends that the horse, Frank, is still dead and doing nicely. So he beats it across the mountain on Sunday night for consolation.

Merchant I. D.'s domicile on Sunday was the scene of some more Clan gathering combined with a few foreigners to the family tree. Emma Tayman will testify that Ben, Bob and Simon are truly flesh and blood "garbage cans" spelled with capital letters.

Ruth Bittner spent Sunday night in Glencoe because her brothers were otherwise engaged with some other fellow's sister.

In memory of a Meyersdale Sophomore:

Elisabeth Leydig stood on the deck waiting for No. 57, by heck. Her hat blew off, but—she had to go because "Bill Kretschman" told her so. Alice Webreck gathered her nurse's garb together on Wednesday and wended her way by B. & O. to the Smoky City.

Dr. I. C. Miller left Monday for a few days' sojourn in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Detwiler, of Scottsdale, spent last week with Mrs. I. L. Snyder.

A combination Spelling Bee and Educational Meet will be an event of April 1st at Southampton school. This is the one day of the year that has a claim on most folks, so we will sure expect ye.

FAIR HOPE

Rain and mud are the order of the day.

Mrs. Simon Poorbaugh returned home after spending a week with her daughter Mrs. Vick Emerick of Rockwood.

Miss Emma and Ruth Loney spent over Sunday with friends in Meyersdale.

Mrs. Elmer Devore and Mrs. Albright of Cumberland spent Wednesday with Mrs. Ralph Shaffer.

Dr. R. T. Pollard was a business caller in our town to-day.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Emerick is very sick at this writing with lung fever.

Mr. Ed. Shumaker is wearing a smile that won't come off. It's a girl mother and baby doing fine.

Mrs. Chas. Baker was a business visitor to Cumberland a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vibert Perdue left to-day for Florida where they will make their future home.

Mr. Ralph Shaffer attended the funeral of his uncle, Mr. Simon Tressler, of Meyersdale, last week.

Harry Williams, of Mt. Union, spent over Sunday with friends here.

Mrs. George Brown, of Cumberland, spent Sunday with her mother here.

Mr. and Mrs. Raupach, of Glencoe, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith.

Joe Schroyer had the misfortune to fall and break his arm last week.

M. H. S. Boys Defeated at Windber
On Friday March 10, the Meyersdale High School quintet, accompanied by Coach Reich and Prof. Weaver, traveled to Windber to play a return engagement with the High School team of that city. On the 25th of February our boys defeated the Windber High School by the score of 28-23, but were forced to defeat at Windber to the tune of 50-14.

The M. H. S. team tried to stop the scoring, but the floor was so slippery that they could not make any headway. Our boys bought some "dope" for their shoes, but it did not help, while the Windber boys had shoes special for their floor which held firm. After the game the Windber team held a dance for our boys.

Then on Saturday the M. H. S. boys traveled to Huntingdon to play Juniata College Reserves. Although the visitors are conquered, they made the Reserves to go a lively pace. The first half ended with the score deadlocked 12-12, but in the second half our boys had to play the intercollegiate rules and in the end were conquered only a few minutes before time was called, score 41-22. After the game, the college students entertained the visiting team in the "Gym". The boys said that they were treated royally. On Saturday afternoon, Meyers Horner, a teacher at Juniata College, took the team to the Reformatory. When the guard had finished showing the boys through the large prison, they stated that the things which they saw within the massive walls were of great interest. Later they were conducted through the Juniata College buildings. On Sunday morning at 7:40 a. m. our boys left for home over the Huntingdon & Broad Top Railroad.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend the exercises of the Sophomore Class Day, to-morrow, March 17.

The Commercial Seniors are busily engaged taking dictation in stenography, and in preparing for another speed test in typewriting, when some of them hope to average 55 words to the minute with only ten errors in a ten-minute writing contest.

Estelle Rowe—"I can't be the President of the United States."
Mr. Arnold—"You may when women get the chance to vote."

Brilliant Freshman discovered a new term for algebra which Prof. Weaver never heard of it. It is called H. C. N. (Highest Common Multiple).

The P. & M. is considering the advisability of running an early car, about 4 a. m., to Garrett for the benefit of Mr. R. Saylor who often visits that city.

Frank Hocking had his left arm badly out of place on Monday. We didn't mean to say that his arm was dislocated, but he is resting easy since.

Can any one tell us what requires Mary Siehl's attention in the rear of Room 14? Is it possible there is something on the roof of the Brethren church?

One day last week Fred Naugle and Carl Daugherty were found embracing each other in Room 11. Fred said "Oh! but isn't this lovely." Carl responded "Yes, I really think it is beautiful." Perhaps, the poor boys were dreaming.
