

OPEN HOUSE

AT
COLLINS' DRUG STORE
The Ladies of Meyersdale and vicinity will be received

SATURDAY, MARCH 18th
FROM 1:30 P. M. UNTIL 9 P. M.

To inspect the line of toilet preparations now being shown by Mrs. Eldridge, the Toilet Goods Specialist, from Harmony of Boston.

This will be the last day Mrs. Eldridge will be in Meyersdale, and owing to the number of appointments we could not fill, we are holding Open House at our store so all may have an opportunity to meet her.

FREE FLOWERS for the Ladies and FREE CIGARS for the Men who make purchases of Harmony Toilet Articles.

COLLINS DRUG STORE,

The Rexall Store

MEYERSDALE,

PENN'A.

"STYLE SHOW"

WITH LIVING MODELS
THURSDAY, MARCH 30 FROM 3 to 5 P. M.

We have made extra preparations for this event, and will display an exceptionally attractive showing of the Season's Very Newest Styles—

Ladies', Misses' and Children's Coats, Dresses, Kimonos, Neckwear, Etc.

Pattern Hats of the very latest New York Styles.

Footwear including the Newest Novelties.

DON'T MISS THIS

The Greatest Style Showing of the Season

MILLER & COLLINS

SALISBURY

Stewart Smith.

Stewart Smith, for fifty years a resident of Salisbury, died suddenly at his desk in the Kaufman store in Pittsburg on Tuesday morning, March 7, aged 63 years, 8 months and 22 days.

Mr. Smith was a member of the Brethren Church of Salisbury, being one of the charter members and was one of the active workers in the congregation until the family moved from Salisbury in 1907. He remained a member of the local church during the time he resided elsewhere. Deceased was born in Salisbury, June 16, 1852. He was a son of William and Caroline Dively Smith. On July 27, 1872, he was married to Eliza Araminta Sipe, of Mill Run, who preceded him to the spirit world in 1914. Four daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Smith, one dying in infancy and Katherine, the youngest, died in 1900 at the age of 20 years. The daughters who survive are Mrs. S. P. Schell of Ambridge, and Mrs. C. H. Beale, who resides in Hazelwood. Mrs. Victoria Baumgartner and Mrs. Robt. Johnston, both of Salisbury, are sisters. Mr. Smith for a number of years was a successful teacher in the schools of Elk Lick township and Salisbury and later was operator for the Western Union Telegraph and manager in Eaton and Reeser's store. When death summoned him he was employed in Kaufman's store in Pittsburg. The funeral was conducted from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Johnston and interment made in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. The services were held in the Brethren Church on Thursday afternoon, at 2:30 by his pastor, Rev. Spughour assisted by Rev. Dr. Young and Rev. Monn.

Mrs. McKinley Surprised.

Mrs. S. R. McKinley was pleasantly surprised on Tuesday evening, March 7, when a number of her friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Petry to celebrate Mrs. McKinley's birthday. Those present were: Mesdames Wm. C. Lichtler, A. M. Lichty, Fred Petry, Frank Petry, Harry McClure, Savilla Boyer, H. H. Maust, J. C. Lichtler, P. L. Swank, John Brown, Geo. Livengood, O. W. Petry, Aaron Maust, Nevin Newman, M. J. Glotzky and Misses Edith and Almira Lichtler, Florence Maust, Charlotte Boyer, Grace Brown, Mary and Arline Petry. Refreshments were served.

Minor Mention

J. L. Barchus and E. H. Miller spent Tuesday evening of last week in Somerset to see "The Birth of a Nation."

Miss Helen Reitz of Meyersdale spent several days of last week in town the guest of her mother, Mrs. Lorena Reitz.

Mrs. Calvin Rumiser fell on a slippery pavement last Tuesday and sustained injuries which necessitated the calling of a physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fogie and Roy Fogie of Conneville passed through town on Thursday evening enroute to Grantsville to visit their sick sister, Mrs. J. J. Bender.

Misses Mima Harding and Amanda Martin spent Wednesday afternoon in Somerset.

Mrs. John Reese is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Hunt, who is ill at Elizabeth, Pa.

Miss Josephine McMurdo went to Akron, Ohio, to spend several months with her aunt, Mrs. Arthur Emerick.

Russell Hay spent last week in New York and Philadelphia on business.

James Riley of Pittsburg spent the week-end at his home in West Salisbury

Quite a number of Salisbury people attended the funeral of Mrs. J. J. Bender at Grantsville last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Schell and son, Jack, of Ambridge. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Beale and son, William, of Hazelwood. Mrs. C. E. Spang, of Wilmerding. Willis B. Smith, E. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Pittsburg, Ellet S. Baumgartner of Morgantown, W. Va., Mrs. Cyrus Sipe of Mill Run, Mrs. Fred Stickell, Grant, Frank Dull of Conneville, were out of town people who attended the funeral of Stewart Smith on Thursday afternoon.

Revival meetings are in progress in the Boynton M. E. Church every evening during last and this week.

GARRETT.

Commencement.

The Teachers' Training Class of the Garrett Sunday Schools will hold their commencement exercises Friday evening, March 17, at 8 o'clock in the Opera House. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. The address will be given by Rev. Ira S. Monn of Salisbury. No admittance will be charged but an offering will be taken.

Recital.

The Piano recital held in Amity Hall, Meyersdale, last Thursday by Misses Rene Brant, Emma Merrill, Ruth Musser and Pansy Miller, assisted by J. Warren Erb, of Pittsburg, was a great success. The audience, which was large and very appreciative expressed its pleasure by its hearty applause. The musicians captivated their audience by their brilliant technique combined with expressive interpretation. Mr. Erb's numbers were very well liked especially "Rigoletto Fantasia" by Verdi-Liszt. The people of Garrett manifested their interest in "our girls" by turning out in goodly numbers for the recital.

Entertained Their Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kretzman of Meyersdale entertained some of their Garrett friends last Wednesday at a dinner. The present were: Mesdames A. R. Miller, W. A. Merrill, L. W. Pollard and daughter, Mary, S. P. Lease and son, Leroy, H. H. Naylor, E. Schrock, Fred Godel and daughter, Margaret. The ladies all report a lovely time.

Births.

Born to Rev. and Mrs. W. H. B. Carney, on Monday, a boy; to Mr. and Mrs. Al. Mason, last week, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, a son, on Sunday; to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pritts, a girl, on Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Judy on Tuesday, a girl.

Among the Sick.

Josie Romeo returned from the hospital at Cumberland last week.

Grace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Long, returned from the hospital recently after having undergone a successful operation for appendicitis.

John Fullerton, who recently broke a rib, is able to be out again.

Minor Mention.

Miss Jennie Graves of Meyersdale has been visiting Emma Merrill this week.

Mrs. Wallace Walker was visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Musser at Berlin last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Haines of Tennessee are visiting relatives and friends in Garrett.

Pierce B. Lowry, formerly of Somerset, is spending his vacation in Garrett. Mr. Lowry has been enlisted in the navy. He has re-enlisted

Wall Paper

MAKE YOUR HOME ATTRACTIVE

WITH

WALL PAPER FROM

P. J. Cover & Son.

and expects to leave for New York within the next ten or fifteen days.

W. L. Brant was a recent visitor in Roanoke, Va., looking after some lumber interests.

J. L. Bredeman of Chicago spent Tuesday and Wednesday visiting at the home of W. L. Brant.

Mrs. Louis Axe of Belleville, Pa. is visiting her brother, Rev. W. H. B. Carney, of this place.

Miss Rene Brant as a Salisbury visitor Tuesday.

Miss Verda Brant spent Thursday evening and Friday morning with Mrs. Clarence Rowe, in Meyersdale. Meyers Bitner spent Sunday in Rockwood.

Miss Pearl Phennice visited her sister, Clara, in Pittsburg, Friday and Saturday.

SATURDAY SPECIAL AT THE WOMEN'S STORE—HILL MUSLIN AT 8 cents per YARD.

SPECIAL PRICES ON REVERE PRESERVED FRUITS THIS WEEK AT BITTNER'S GROCERY.

AUDITORIUM

MONDAY — 20TH

GOLD ROOSTER

"MADAME X"

TUESDAY — 21ST

MASTERPICTURE

"SEVENTH NOON"

WEDNESDAY — 22ND

V.L.S.E.

"NO GREATER LOVE"

THURSDAY — 23RD

"THREE WEEKS"

FRIDAY — 24TH

MASTERPICTURE

"END OF THE ROAD"

SATURDAY — 25TH

METRO

"THE VAMPIRE"

No Roller Skating this week, Mar. 20

SUMMER GARDEN

Marguerite Show & Bushman -- Saturday, March 18

WELLERSBURG.

Miss Florence Sturtz of Cumberland spent the latter part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stutz.

Levi Witt of Roanoke Va. after spending a few days with his brother Mr. G. W. Witt of this place returned to his home Saturday last.

Mrs. M. E. Kennell witnessed the burial of her granddaughter, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Kennell of Cumberland. Burial was made at Meyersdale.

Mrs. Angeline Glessner of Mt. Savage spent the latter part of last week with relatives in town.

Miss Bessie Law was shopping in Cumberland one day this week.

Miss Naomi Emerick teacher of Cook's school spent Saturday and Sunday at Geo Fechtigs.

Mrs. Frank Snyder and her son, Edward were the guest of Mrs. Snyders parents Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Baker last week.

Mrs. O. E. Mull was in Cumberland Tuesday.

The funeral of Peter Kneriem who died at his home last Tuesday morning took place Friday afternoon with service in the Reformed church by Rev. Koske. Burial was made in the Cook cemetery. The Pallbearers, being I. O. O. F. members were Chas. Mont, Milton Snyder, William Steele, Henry Crump, James Buckley and John Miller all of Mt Savage, the flowerbearers were James Rolfe and L. Winebenners of Mt. Savage and Edward Wilhelm of this place.

A SPECIAL EVERY SATURDAY AT THE WOMEN'S STORE — THIS WEEK HILL'S MUSLIN AT 8 CENTS PER YARD.

TRY OUR FINE JOB WORK

EVERY MAN IN TOWN or COUNTRY

can find what he wants in this big stock; it is made up of fine quality only. The best on earth:--

Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes

Knox Hats — Emery Shirts

Wilson Brothers' Underwear

Interwoven Hose — Double Triangle Collars

Room Size Rugs 9 x 12

Tapestry, Axminster, Velvet and Body Brussels

COME IN AND HAVE A LOOK

Hartley & Baldwin

The Home of "HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX CLOTHES"

UNION VALLEY.

The robin and bluebird have made their appearance in our valley which makes us think of the good old spring-time.

P. W. White made a business trip to Sommerville on Saturday last.

We have 21 days more for the school bell to ring. The attendance is somewhat poor of late; some people need a copy of the school laws to read them up.

Peter Felker made a business trip to Meyersdale on Saturday. Henry Tidenburg was out trading horses and came home with two very fine ponies. He says he can go almost as fast as an auto.

DEAD LETTER LIST.

C. W. Beal, Mrs. Frank Harding, Jas. L. Swadley, Dr. Williams, Geo. F.M. Kennell, Cards—Peter Caville, Mrs. Alda Gray, Wm. D. Miller, Mrs. Blanche Sweet.

GET PRICES ON D. H. WEISEL'S SPECIAL MADE-TO-ORDER TEAM HARNESS BEFORE BUYING ELSEWHERE.