Why "all wool?"

Here's why

When you think of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes as all wool garments, don't stop there; just consider the bearing of all wool goods on the way the suit wears, fits, keeps its shape

The difference between wool fabric and part cotton doesn't appear until after the clothes are worn a while.

You want all wool; you'll get it when you buy a suit with the Hart Schaffner & Marx label in it

"JUST DAVID"

A Pretty Story You Must Not Miss Probably the prettiest story written in a generation is "Just David." It is by Mrs. Eleanor H. Porter, author of "Pollyanna," "Miss Billy," "Cross Currents," etc.

The story will start serially in the Pittsburg Dispatch, Monday, May 1, 1916, and you will miss a great treat if you fail to read "Just David."

The hero is a lad of 10, who from the age of 4, has been reared in the mountains, close to nature, where, with his father, a great musician, he meets few persons and communes with the birds and bees and flowers. He knows and loves only which is good.

The tale is a brand new one, full of romance, sentiment, happiness, music, tenderness and boyish enthusiasm. Don't miss the opening chapters. Apply to your newsdealer or communicate with

AT THE SUMMER GARDEN

Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival, which comes with an entire new program at the AUDITORIUM SUMMER GARDEN, on Monday, May 8th, is inimitable not only because of the scenes themselves, but also because of the way they are presented. Mr. Howe links the sense of sound with the sense of sight so precisely and yet so naturally that the effect is hypnotic in its compelling power. He knows how to imbue the mere lights and shadows of electric rays with a vitality that is akin to life itself. Hidden corners of the earth, life and customs in strange climes and the scenic spots of the earth are all produced in picture form that is perfection. It teaches without dryness and imparts a certain knowledge which no books or lecturer could.
