

GARRETT
Society Notes

Last Wednesday afternoon Mrs. A. R. Miller gave a miscellaneous shower in honor of her daughter in-law, Mrs. Clara Durst Miller, the diversion of the afternoon being games and music. A dainty luncheon was served during the afternoon. Mrs. Miller is a charming hostess and every one had a lovely time. Those present were Mesdames W. M. Kistler, W. P. Blair, A. Bowly, J. L. Bowly, W. A. Merrill, R. M. Miller, C. D. Fritz, C. J. Bittner, R. Werner, G. W. Platter, W. L. Brant, C. Merrill, M. Bowly, L. W. Pollard; L. A. Phennice; J. Brown, Carrie Kennel; Geo. Christner; Sam Pritts C. S. Claar; Mrs. Cora Custer Pittsburg, Mrs. A. Falkner Berlin, The Misses Nell, Verda and Rene Brant, Emma Schrock and Matilda Bowly of Garrott.

Mrs. Milton Bowly entertained "The Willing Workers Society" at her home on Church street last Thursday afternoon; during the afternoon sewing and fancy work were done and late in the afternoon a dainty lunch was served. Those present were Mesdames, C. Merrill, W. A. Merrill, W. L. Brant, Jas. Brown, A. R. Miller, A. Bowly, Chas. Colbert, Cora Custer and Miss Matilda Bowly.

Mrs. L. A. Phennice entertained "The Sewing Circle" of the Brethren Church last Thursday. The ladies spent the afternoon sewing and did justice to the lunch which was served. Those present were Mesdames, Frank Phennice, L. W. Pollard, Chas. Grant, H. B. Spelcher, James Liberty.

Deaths

Leroy, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Nicola died at their home Saturday morning at 4:30 o'clock after a lingering illness of four years. The child was never able to sit up or walk and a few days ago contracted measles which caused his death. The funeral services were held Monday morning at 10:30 in the Lutheran Church. Rev. W. H. B. Carney the Pastor conducted the service. Sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

John the nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Nicola died Tuesday morning at six o'clock. John had been suffering with diabetes for several months but was able to attend the funeral of his brother Leroy Monday. It is thought that the shock of his brother's death hastened his death. The funeral service was held in the Lutheran Church Thursday morning at 10:30 by the pastor, Rev. W. H. B. Carney.

Heartfelt sympathy is extended to the Nicola family in their double bereavement.

Minor Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Miller and Mr. Charles Merrill spent Sunday at Jonners where the boys played base ball.

Mrs. Henry Swarner was shopping in Pittsburg last Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. McClellan spent Sunday with the doctor's parents Rev. and Mrs. McClellan at Rockwood.

Miss Mildred Swarner spent from Sunday to Tuesday visiting her friend Miss Maude Meyers at Somerset.

Miss Clara Bittner visited her uncle and family Mr. Mahlon Meyers at Somerset last week.

Friends of Mrs. Elizabeth Baxter were surprised to see her "license to wed" Mr. Jones of Vandergriff, Pa. in the Johnstown papers. Mrs. Baxter was a resident of Garrett for many years and her many friends extend their wishes for their future happiness.

B. J. Lynch of Meyersdale has been visiting in Garrett quite frequently the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Steinway who were visiting Mrs. Steinway's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson left Sunday for Pittsburg.

Miss Jessie Carney of Bellville, Pa. is visiting her brother Rev. W. B. Carney.

Mrs. W. J. Curry visited her mother Mrs. Burnsworth at Markleton Tuesday.

Mrs. Phil Weaver returned Tuesday from Jerome where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Scott.

Mrs. W. A. and Catherine Merrill were visiting in Berlin on Saturday.

Wilson and Charles McIntyre, the sons of Landford McIntyre spent the week-end visiting their uncle, Mr. C. H. McIntyre and family at Berlin.

Quite a few families are leaving Garrett to seek employment elsewhere. The mines have been closed down for several weeks and as yet there are no signs of their being reopened soon. However, we are living in hopes that the differences between the employers and the employees will soon be adjusted and that work at these mines soon will be resumed.

Madison Christner took his son Edward to the Western Maryland Hospital at Cumberland last Wednesday for appendicitis. The operation was successful and Edward is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Walter Rohm and daughter, Pansy of Pottsgrove, Pa. are visiting the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miller of this place.

Messrs. W. A. Merrill and W. L. Brant were transacting business at the county-seat on Saturday.

Mrs. Cora Custer and daughter, Margaret who had been visiting relatives and friends in Garret, returned to their home in Pittsburg last Friday afternoon.

C. T. Bittner who is employed in Pittsburg spent a few days last week with his family.

Mrs. Hervey Sturtz and grand children Robert and Pauline Cochraïne left Sunday for Cooks Mills where they will visit Mrs. Sturtz Mother and other relatives.

Mrs. F. E. Judy and son Ernest were Meyersdale visitors Saturday.

Quite a few of our people went to Meyersdale Tuesday evening to see the Picture, Peace at any Price.

Mr. A. Christner is building an up to date brick house on the "Hill" The masons will begin laying the brick in a few days.

SALISBURY

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner entertained at dinner last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Donges and little son Edward of Meyersdale, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wagner, and Mr. and Mrs. Silas Wagner of town.

Our Normal School is moving along nicely with Prof. O. O. Saylor as instructor, also because as some of the pupils are prone to think it is strictly a ladies school.

The men of town are preparing to do their duty on Good Roads Day, Thursday 25.

Mrs. Beal, from Waterloo, Iowa, is visiting her sister Mrs. Peter Livengood.

Miss Dorothy Glotfelty is spending a few days this week in Pittsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wagner are preparing to move into the flat near Barchus and Livengoods store.

The Church of the Brethren is organizing two classes in Teacher Training Normal and Third Seal course. There are prospects for good classes in both courses.

Among those from this place who attended the funeral of Jonas Spelcher, Accident, Md. were W. J. Vought, Roy and Lloyd, Vought and Mrs. Annie Beachy and daughter Miss Orpha.

Mrs. B. F. Waltz who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Meyers, near Hagerstown, Md., reports that she found her partially paralyzed which will no doubt hinder Mrs. Waltz's early return.

Miss Edith Mort is suffering from an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. J. J. Keim also is not well, being afflicted with frequent fainting spells.

Prof. Beahm is experimenting in raising sweet potatoes in this climate, having received some thrifty plants from a brother in Virginia.

Miss Edna Cline of Latrobe, Pa. is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Livengood on Ord St.

The building of the new Garage and bank is progressing very well; this and the other changes made since the fire will make quite a difference in the appearance of our little town.

The different Sunday Schools have appointed their delegates to the convention to be held in Meyersdale on Friday.

Prof. Beahm filled Elder W. M. Howe's pulpit in Meyersdale last Sunday evening.

WELLERSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hostlerode of Glencoe spent last Sunday as the guest of the latter's mother, Mrs. Catharine Delbrook.

Miss Helen Wingert, Edna and Earl Witt, were callers in Mt. Savage Sunday.

Mrs. F. P. Shaffer and daughter Eleanor of near Deal were callers in town Friday, also in Cumberland.

Mr. Joseph Kuhlman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder and son Edward, Mr. and Mrs. John Sweeney and Miss Kate Snyder of Mt. Savage spent Sunday with friends and relatives in town.

Miss Mildred Long, Helen Wingert Edna Witt and Ralph Poorbaugh attended the Sunday School convention held at White Oak Saturday night.

Mrs. Russell Emrick and sons Victor and Lester of Connellsville are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Baker.

A horse isn't the only thing that balks. The new Maxwell car owned by Levi Beal and the two Hostlerode Ford's backed down the steep hill above G. G. Witt's Sunday before getting half way up; it's a hill when a Ford can't climb it.

Mrs. James Reddig and family were shopping in Cumberland on Friday.

Homer Hay of Berlin was a caller at the home of G. W. Witt one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Neubelser of Cumberland spent Tuesday with friends in town.

The Young Men's Store

The work we are doing in behalf of young men who want smart, distinct style, is meeting with overwhelming endorsement, young men consider this the style and value center of Meyersdale. They like the new vigorous ideas in Hart Schaffner and Marx Clothes; the way we sell them; the furnishings chosen with their ideas in mind.

Men who are not young in years but who are young in spirit, are also enjoying this unusual service.

Hartley & Baldwin

The home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

WASH SKIRTS
—FOR—
DECORATION DAY

Decoration Day is the accepted time for donning White Skirts—the first Holiday of Summer. This week we have received new shipments of the popular priced Wash Skirts in all newest materials, weaves and styles.

White Skirts in pique, cotton corduroy, gabardine, and linens in either plain white or trimmed in colors, and several new numbers in colored skirts in tan, copen and rose.

Every garment made to fit, an exceptionally values

AT
$1.00 -- A DOLLAR -- $1.00

See them on the first table by the door downstairs

HARTLEY CLUTTON CO.
THE WOMEN'S STORE

SALISBURY

Mrs. Druella Hay is having the hotel property and opera house building repainted where the recent fire damaged the paint. They are also replacing the broken windows and putting a cement floor in front of the restaurant and opera house.

Miss Bessie Miller of Friedens spent several days of last week with her sister Mrs. E. E. Heselbarth.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Martin are making preparations to move to Meyersdale into the Morrell property on the South Side of Town.

Harry Walker who had been at Listie for several months visiting his sick grandfather returned to Salisbury recently.

Rev. B. F. Waltz spent last week at Garrett where he and Rev. W. M. Howe held meetings in the Church of the Brethren.

John Miller of McKees Rocks spent part of last week in town The guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Miller.

Miss Jennie Livengood of Meyersdale spent part of last week here visiting Misses Sarah and Mary Beachy.

Mrs. H. B. Stevanus has been very ill for the past week but has improved a little since Tuesday.

James Winters has been suffering with an attack of pleurisy.

Miss Dottie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Urias Brown has been ailing for some time and her physician thinks of sending her to a sanitarium for treatment.

Herbert Wagner spent last week at Exposition Park, Pa. as a representative of Salisbury Lodge No. 982 I. O. F. is the ninety third annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

Marion Glotfelty of W. Vo. is spending several weeks with relatives and friends in this vicinity.

There was a Good Roads mass meeting held in Hays Opera House last Friday evening and arrangements were there made to conduct the work to be done on the streets of Salisbury It now remains to be seen how much will be accomplished on Good Roads day. Last year there was a good turnout and all efforts are being made by those at the head of the movement here to make a success of it again. Let's hope that they succeed.

Mrs. Samuel Engle visited her sister, Mrs. J. Hess Baker at Lancaster Pa. last week.

Harvey Hay attended the races at Baltimore last week.

George Hay of Pittsburg spent the forepart of last week in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wagner started house-keeping in part of the Chalfont property on Ord street.

GLENCOE

John Hosteler and wife are back to their families after a three month's stay at Ames, Iowa.

Wes Shipley and Ben Leydig spent the week-end at home, departing on Sunday for Greensburg, where they started on regular work with the West Penn Railway Co. on Monday.

Mrs. Bert Raupach and babies of Cumberland are spending the week with her parents.

H. M. Poorbaugh on Monday purchased a real live Buick automobile from the Meyersdale Auto Company.

Dr. Spicer, of Cumberland, transported his immediate family across the Savage mountain on Sunday to spend the day with Merchant I. D. Leydig and family.

The Misses Bessie, Laura and Nanette Martz visited Jacob Martz of Mountain Valley on Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Raupach returned from Cumberland on Monday where she was called to the bedside of her father, Wm. Grines.

Mrs. G. G. Delozier was a Sunday visitor of A. A. Sharp at Sand Patch.

Our Sunday base ball sports, Fred, Carl and Arthur attended the Meyersdale-Sand Patch game on Sunday. They made the trip in a "boycar special."

Bill Addis of Connellsville was a Sunday visitor at J. T. Leydig's.

FORT HILL

Farmers are busy with their spring work.

Ben Matthews a fireman of Connellsville spent Sunday with his father-in-law J. M. Bonnell.

George McClintock was a business visitor to Confluence Saturday.

Jonas Shoemaker was a business visitor to Meyersdale last Tuesday and took in the Battle Cry of Peace.

Charles Mead and son of New Castle spent a couple of days here fishing last week.

Elmer Snyder a fireman of Cumberland spent Sunday and Monday with his family.

Toilie Snyder and Nell Vought who are attending normal school at Rockwood spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents.

SHADY LAWN.

Mrs. Rufus Tressler and son, Merle spent one day last week with Mrs. Tressler's sister, Mrs. Hurley Fike in Meyersdale.

Mrs. Clarence Stotler and daughters, Alberta and Marion of Salisbury spent Thursday with her aunt, Mrs. Edna Shelbaer.

Jesse Clapper and family moved to Meyersdale, one day last week

SUMMER GARDEN

Scene from "EMMY OF STORK'S NEST" with that Winsome flower of the scree Mary Miles Minter, a Metro feature at the Summer Garden, Sat., May 27

Scene from "THE GOOSE GIRL" the big Paramount feature at the Summer Garden, Monday Evening, May 29th, featuring Marguerite Clark, a drama of love and adventure in realms of romance.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shultz and daughter, Etelle of town enjoyed last Sunday at the Rufus Tressler home.

H. L. Miller was a visitor at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Ezra Berkley of Berkley.

Gladys and Hilda Shultz of Meyersdale passed Sunday afternoon with their friend, Maud Gnagey.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hittle and son spent Sunday at the home of Joe Shelbaer's.

Mrs. George Kuhs of Meyersdale, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Parker and son, of Pittsburg, were recent welcome callers at the home of Harry Jones.

Elizabeth Bittner was a caller at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Alex. Downey recently.

Esther and Zelma Shumaker spent part of Sunday at the Orville Shelbaer home.

NOTICES IN REGARD TO COMING ENTERTAINMENT

The following notices will show the success of Miss Kathleen Bach, an impersonator and reader, who will assist in an entertainment in the Methodist Episcopal church on Tuesday evening, June 6.

"The Kanyon Concert Kompany of the Forrence Entertainment Bureau of Elmira, N. Y. was greeted by an appreciative audience and the Keystone Firemen are proud of the fact that they had the opportunity of presenting such high class artists. It was pronounced the best appearing here for some time. Miss Bach, reader, won merited approval as a reciter. Her winsome manner added zest to the program and her ability as a performer in her line is unquestioned.

"The reader, Miss Bach, won warm and repeated applause by her delightful renditions and captivated her hearers with her charming personality."

SIPPLEVILLE.

F. J. Brown, Miss Margaret Sipple, H. M. Sipple, and L. R. Sipple attended the lawn fete at St. Paul on Saturday evening. Mrs. J. I. Tressler and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Crowe and little son were guests of George Sipple's on Sunday.

Miss Mary, Miss Martha and Miss Edith Frense attended church at Summit Mills on Sunday evening. There must be some attraction for going so far to attend church.

Supervisor Fike has made some improvements on the roads at this end of the township.

Mrs. Susan Helwig visited her niece, Mrs. A. H. Hersh, last Sunday.

Harry Vogtman who is working in Gilsans garage in Cumberland, passed through this burg, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Shober of Cumberland were visiting at M. B. Heckler's last Saturday.

Miss Margaret Sipple of this burg, and Miss Almada Opel of Summit Mills were visiting friends and relatives at St. Paul over Saturday and Sunday. They say St. Paul is some attractive place. Did you get that?

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Smith visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. and Mr. John Harding.

AT THE SUMMER GARDEN.
"The Sign of the Cross."

Paramount program for Wednesday evening featuring the popular screen star, Wm. Farnum in the famous player production "The Sign of the Cross."

"Triangle Program."
Marle Doro in the Fine Arts Production, "The Wood Nymphs" and the two part comedy, "The Perils of the Dark" with the clever comedy star, Harry Gibbon, Thursday June 1st, don't miss this program, where the coil breezes blow, and music to suit the pictures, by Prof. Lew Bittner.

"The Thoroughbred"
A vital drama of Vindication featuring the popular stars William Russell and Charlotte Burton, five acts of dashing adventure and smashing climax Tuesday May 30th.

Coming Attractions.
Mary Pickford, in "Mistress Nell," Blanche Sweet, in the Warrens of Virginia" W. H. Crane in "David Harum." Betty Hart, in "The Bait."

FAIR HOPE

Mrs. Nick Emeric of Rockwood is visiting her mother Mrs. Poorbaugh.

Mrs. J. W. Williams returned home after spending a few days with relatives in Hyndman.

Mrs. Ella Stern of Connellsville is visiting at the home of J. A. Lowrey.

Mrs. Shanon Burket of Hyndman spent last week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Emrick.

Earl Poorbaugh of Boswell is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Frank Barkley of Glen Savage spent Saturday with Mrs. A. F. Berkley.

Miss Emma Perdue of Glencoe is visiting her mother here.

Arch Kennel of Boswell is visiting his mother, Mrs. Chas. Tipton.

Howard Shafer was a visitor at Merkle home on Saturday evening.

CIVIC LEAGUE MEETING.

The Civic League will hold its regular business meeting on Thursday, June 1, at 2:30 p. m. in Council Chamber. Important business. Every woman in town should be interested in this good work.

Rev. A. S. Kresge, pastor of the Willis Creek Charge will assist Rev. L. N. Wilson, by preaching at St. Paul on Thursday evening.