

GUS W. DYER, CHAUTAUQUA LECTURER, WHO WILL SPEAK HERE ON THE FIFTH DAY OF THE CHAUTAUQUA ON THE SUBJECT "MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE"

CASES FOR

SEPTEMBER COURT

The most important case scheduled for trial at the September term of court, is the charge of murder against Giuseppe D'Orozie, who shot and killed Umberto Gregorio at Harrison last week. The information against the defendant was made by County Detective Hancock. D'Orozie makes no denial that he did the shooting.

From Jenner Township comes a nasty case against D. Kenney, alias William Morrison, the charges being sodomy and disorderly conduct. Roy D. Hostetter is the prosecutor. The offense charged took place in George Baumgardner's barn recently.

Changes of immorality have been entered against Susan Porterfield of Confluence, and Katy Boyer of Hooversville. The returns in both cases were made by the constables from those districts.

John Jones, against whom W. E. Filmore made a charge of immorality, has settled the case by paying the prosecutor's daughter $200 and all costs.

John Koslick, assault and battery; J. E. Baker, prosecutor.
 Carl Schultz must answer two charges, preferred against him by Frances Gazney of Boswell.
 George Saylor Jr., who assaulted and beatup Lawrence A. Bowman at Somerset two weeks since is charged with aggravated assault and battery; Adam Tinkle, prosecutor.

The State Board of Game Commissioners have taken favorable action upon a large petition recently filed with them, which prayed for the protection of deer in Somerset county for a further period of two years, or until the opening of the deer season in the Commonwealth in the year 1918. Deer hunting, therefore is again prohibited in our county and it is hoped and fully expected that the expiration of the extended closed season will find a numerous herd of America's fascinating and beautiful game flourishing within our most picturesque hills.
