Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

HERE'S A MYSTERY HARD TO SOLVE.

A beautiful actress is found unconscious beside the body of a man that she hated. Near by is her revolver with one cartridge exploded. In the dead man's heart is a bullet from that revolver.
Did she murder him?
That's the question that is causing great discussion among patrons of the SUMMER GARDEN where "The Strange Case of Mary Page," featuring Henry Walthall and Edna Mayo is being shown every Saturday night.
Essay series of fifteen episodes, each a complete story, promises to be the most successful mystery tale yet produced in the films. The cast is a notable one and the tale is gripping.
Henry Walthall plays the part of the attorney for the defense, the man who is in love with the accused girl. By a sudden twist in the evidence the attorney suddenly finds suspicion turned towards him.
The general feeling among the movie fans now is that the attorney will confess to a crime he did not commit and save his sweetheart.

GLENCOE

The main event of the week was the "barn raising" of J. K. Kessler. Some Northampton Dutch muscle and cord-necking were there exhibited.
Mrs. Schrock damaged the B. & O. tracks quite a bit here on Saturday night when she fell. At any rate, the Company has been laying steel ever since.
Messrs. Oscar, Thomas and Earle Poorbaugh of Pittsburgh and Akron spent part of the week with their parents.
Mrs. Ralph Cook and son with Naomi Aldrich, Mt. Savage, are visiting Mrs. William Cook.
Say! did you hear what happened at I. D. Leydig's and Samuel Bauman's this week? Isn't it pitiful!

The body will be on a short vacation, while Manager Alfred supervises the laying of a narrow gauge railway. Rates to Seldom Seen are two and a half cents per mile to compete with our other steamboat line.
Confirmation Services on Sunday afternoon were well attended and the work very effective. A class of nine joined the Reformed Church. The girls put on an excellent Children's Day Program at night.
Hazel and Thelma Miller go to Cumberland every Tuesday for instructions on the piano.
W. H. Heselrode and wife were delegates to the Reformed Sunday School Convention at Hay's Church on June 15 and 16.

QUITE LIKELY
Sunday-School Teacher—It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter heaven. Do you know why that is, Bobby?
Bobby—Yes, Ma'am! I s'pose it's 'cause a rich man always has so many women tagging after him!

A DRAWBACK.
The Captain—Oh, yes, this is the right boat! It's the most comfortable trip a newly-married couple could take except for just one thing.
The Groom—What is that?
The Captain—Well, of course, we can't get the other passengers to mind their own business.

NEW IDEA NOT WELL RECEIVED.
"Jonas, they keep furs in cold storage now."
"They do! Well I don't think we are going to take extra ice for that little scuffed-out rabbit-skin seal-coat of yours; I've got all I can do to meet the regular bills!"

WHY HE DID IT.
First Pickpocket—If you knowed he only had a nickel, it was hardly worth while pinchin' it.
Second Pickpocket—Oh! I tuk it on principle.
HIS MASCOT.
Mrs. Farmer—Why is it a big, strong man like you doesn't get wot?
Tramp—Why, it's dis rabbit's foot, Mum! Dat's all wot saves me!

PERHAPS.
First Convict—De unions object to us doin' any kind of work dat competes wit' "honest labor."
Second Convict—May be dey'd be willin' to let us spend our time makin' burglars' tools.
ABSOLUTELY DEPENDABLE.
"Can you depend on what Bond-wort says?"
"You bet your life! Why, man, I've known him to quit a poker game loser just because he'd promised his wife he'd be home early!"
