SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

A Farewell Dance Given.

One of the most delightful affairs ever given in Meyersdale, was the dance held in Reich's Auditorium Monday night as a farewell to two of this town's most popular young ladies, Miss Nelle R. Leonard and Miss Edna M. Payne, whose weddings are events scheduled for this week.

The Auditorium, with its myriad colored lights, was a picture from Fairyland, with its bevy of beautiful girls and the delicacy of their frocks was accentuated by the conventional black and greys of their escorts.

A number of guests came from a distance despite the inclement weather. Frostburg, Lonaconing, Grantsville, Salisbury, Garrett, Berlin, Somerset, Boswell, Uniontown, and Morristown, Pa. were among the towns represented.

The patrons were Mrs. Kennedy Price, Mrs. Wm. Hocking, Mrs. E. D. Leonard, Mrs. Wm. Sturgiss and Mrs. W. F. Payne. The committee in charge Messrs. Claude Stotler, Ralph Rowe and George H. Hocking Jr. are to be congratulated on the success of the whole affair.

Miss Beatrice Truxal, in her usual charming and gracious manner, sang a few selections during the entertainment, which delighted all her hearers.

Mrs. Jane Wilmoth and daughter gave a dinner party at "Hillcrest" the pretty Wilmoth home on the South Side, supplementing the dance, Monday night, in honor of their house guests, Miss Alice Quillman of Morristown, Pa., and the Misses Motter of Frederick, Md.

THE CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM.

Music will be a big feature. You love music. Ever see anybody that didn't? Well, if you know anybody who doesn't, somehow get them into that Chautauqua tent, and they will come out CONVERTED to music. Music is the thing that puts the throbs in the heart-beat and makes life just a little sweeter and a little more worth while.

So we're going to have a musical festival in this 6-day Chautauqua program with an entirely different company each day. No two days will be alike. One will be a band. That will be on the big fourth day. Don't forget that. Another will be something else and another something else.

Here's the Program—

All in a nutshell. Study the whole list carefully and then refer to your booklet for the story of the men and women that are listed here: Rolo McBride, Chief Tahan, Dr. R. P. Shepherd, Harold Morton Kramer, Reno B. Welbourn, Dr. E. L. Eaton, Prof. Dyer, Strickland, Gillilan.

Entertainers—Beatrice Weller Company, Maude Willis.

Musical Numbers—Beatrice Weller Co., Craven Orchestra, Brooks Band, Lyceum Arts Conservatory Orchestra, Ora Padgett Langer and Company.

We are ASSUMING here that of course you are going to be at this Chautauqua. Our purpose in printing this is to LAY THE FACTS before you.

THE MEN AND WOMEN BACK OF THIS CHAUTAUQUA ARE LOCAL PEOPLE. You perhaps know everyone of them. They are men and women who live right here in this town and community. Most of them are busy, busy people. They are out hustling to make this thing go and will get just as much out of it as you have opportunity to get and no more. You will have an opportunity to enjoy a Chautauqua program for a few days, to get a bit of wholesome inspiration, to get something of a boost out of the rut into which every man and woman is BOUND to fall, whether they're busy or idle—rich or poor isn't it a fact?

Now then, if you want to do the right thing by yourself and by these others who are working for this Chautauqua's success, buy your tickets T-O-D-A-Y, and let's make this Chautauqua the bang-up, biggest success that it's possible to make it.

And keep the date in mind—June 28, the hours of the program and the location and the big inspiration and community stimulus and the great good you are going to get out of it, and we'll see you at the big tent on the opening afternoon and at each of the eleven sessions to follow.

PLAN YOUR TIME SO THAT YOU CAN COME IN AND WELL TALK IT OVER FURTHER.

The price of the season's ticket is $2-12 sessions—if you're over 15, $1 if you're under 15. No charge if you're under 8.
