1917 AUTO LICENSE TAGS TO BE 'CHOCOLATE' BROWN

Chocolate brown has been selected by the state highway department as the color for the 1917 automobile license tags, and the same size and style of plate will be used as this year, the figures being in white. The contract will be let within a few days. The selection of this brown was made because of well-grounded reports which had been received that there might be a shortage of reds, greens, blues and yellows, as a result of the dye situation. The chocolate-colored tags will be used in New Jersey.

Over a half million dollars has since been subscribed by the citizens, some corporations agreeing to give $50,000. This amount was subscribed by hundreds of men canvassing the town. This plant would mean the employment of 5,000 men.

CONFLUENCE MAN ENDS HIS LIFE

Despondent because of ill health O. F. McKee, 48 years old, of Confluence, hanged himself in the cellar of his home some time during Friday night. His body was discovered Saturday morning when the children missed him, hanging from a beam in the cellar. U. M. Phillippl, a neighbor, found the man, having been aroused when McKee's children became alarmed at his absence.

Mrs. McKee had not been at home during the night and it is not known at what time McKee went to the cellar. He had been hanging for several hours was the verdict of a physician. McKee was well known in Confluence, having lived there for 15 years. He was a pop manufacturer. For the past two months his health had been failing him and it is thought that despondency over it was the cause of his action.

He is survived by his widow and four children, three boys and one girl. They are Frank, 22 years, Carl 19 years, Finley, 5 years, and Josephine, 20 years, all at home. Mrs. McKee was before her marriage Miss Allie Frederick.

General improvement was noted throughout the state in the condition of the wheat and rye on June 1 and every condition points to a crop above the average.
