

ARRETT. Deaths.

Mrs. Lydia (Neggie) Brant, wife of John Henry Brant, born in Summit Township, May 15, 1861, aged 55 years, 1 month and 12 days, died in the Kellam Institution at Richmond, Va., June 27, 1916. Some months prior to her going to the hospital she became paralyzed but she recovered and then went to the Kellam institution for treatment of cancer. From the time she entered the institution her condition seemed to improve and a day or so before her death, the family was much surprised when they received a telegram that her condition had become very serious. Her husband left immediately for the hospital upon receiving the telegram, but before he reached the hospital she had passed away. She is survived besides her husband, the following children: Mrs. Ada Knupp, of Canton, Ohio; Mrs. Nora Brant of Johnstown; Emma, Alveda, Nettie, Daniel, Harvey, Edward, all at home and the following brothers—John D. and Samuel Neggie of Summit township and Rev. A. B. Neggie of Ashland, O. Mrs. Brant was a faithful member of the Brethren church and the funeral services were conducted in the Beachdale church by Elder Howe on Saturday morning at ten o'clock. Interment was made in the cemetery on the Elk Cober farm near her home.

Operation for Appendicitis. Wallace Walker went to Cumberland on Sunday and returned with his wife who had been an inmate of the Allegheny hospital for the past ten days. Mrs. Walker had been operated upon a week ago last Friday for appendicitis. Dr. E. B. Claybrook, an eminent surgeon of Cumberland performed the operation which was very successful. Mrs. Walker is improving rapidly although she is in a very weak condition.

Skull Injured. Samuel Burkholder who is employed at the slope met with a serious accident on Wednesday morning in digging coal. A large rock fell on his head and injured his skull. Dr. W. R. McClellan was summoned at once and found Mr. Burkholder to be in a very critical condition; later reports are that he is slowly improving.

Society Notes. Mrs. Charles Colbert entertained the Willing Workers Society Thursday afternoon at her home on Walker street. The time was spent in sewing and doing fancy work, after which a dainty lunch was served. Those present were as follows: Mesdames W. L. Brant, Milton Bowby, L. A. Phenicle, Charles Claar, W. A. Merrill, James Brown, A. R. Miller, W. M. Kistler, Catherine Merrill, D. C. Craig, W. R. McClellan, Misses Sarah and Anna Wiant and Rev. H. H. Wiant.

Sewing Club. The Sewing Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. C. T. Bittner on Friday evening at 5:30; the evening was spent in crocheting and in social intercourse and a sumptuous lunch was served. The guests departed about 9:30 after proving Mrs. Bittner a delightful hostess. The following were present: Mesdames L. A. Phenicle, L. W. Pollard, H. B. Speicher, Miss Sheba Mitchell; children, Dorothy and Frances Speicher, Mary P. Ford and William Phenicle.

Minor Mention. On Tuesday afternoon, Rev. O. G. Eye preached the funeral sermon of Mr. Bittner of Boynton who broke his neck while on his way home from Meyersdale on his motorcycle. It seems Mr. Bittner had been going very fast on the late road and on suddenly striking softer ground was hurled from his machine, thus bringing death very suddenly to him.

Personal. Miss Pansy Miller returned to her home Thursday evening after having spent several days visiting friends and relatives at Indiana, Pa. Hugh McIntyre, of Riddlesburg, Pa. is visiting his father, Mr. Jas. McIntyre. Miss Clara Bittner who had been visiting her parents for several days has again returned to the country. Dewey Phenicle of Donora, Pa., is a guest of his uncle Frank Phenicle. Mrs. Sam Blair returned to her home at Six Mile Run following a visit of a few days in town with relatives. She accompanied by Mrs. Charles Stevenson and son, Robert. Mrs. W. J. Currie was a visitor to Cumberland last Thursday.

Harry Swarner spent Sunday with his family.

Miss Anna Romesburg of Pittsburg is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Romesburg.

Later Convention Events. The big events of Wednesday's program was the automobile parade and Dr. Woolston evening lecture. In the parade were 65 cars; they went through St. Paul, Keim and Meyersdale. As soon as they returned the portals of the church were unlocked to admit the waiting throng, who immediately pressed in to hear the charming Dr. Woolston deliver his wonderful lecture "Off to Wonderland," and the older folks as well as the little tots were charmed. Dr. Woolston has a most winning way with children and can interest grown-ups as well.

Altogether this convention was a grand success. The largest number of delegates yet at any of our county conventions was present, there being over 350.

On Tuesday afternoon, Rev. O. G. Eye preached the funeral sermon of Mr. Bittner of Boynton who broke his neck while on his way home from Meyersdale on his motorcycle. It seems Mr. Bittner had been going very fast on the late road and on suddenly striking softer ground was hurled from his machine, thus bringing death very suddenly to him.
