

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

F. N. Shipley and Dr. C. P. Large were Cumberland visitors Tuesday. E. M. Swearman is back home after six weeks stay at Akron, Ohio.

Postmaster Shipley on Tuesday visited his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Floto at Connellsville. Miss Alice Friedline of North St. has as her guests, the Misses Tipper, of Pittsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lighty last week attended the funeral of an uncle at Orleans X-Roads, W. Va.

Misses Gertrude and Katherine Brooks of Pittsburg are guests of the J. M. Black family on Front St. Miss Myrtle Smiley has gone on a two weeks' visit with relatives at Clairton, Pa.

Mrs. George Wilhelm of Akron, O. is here for a few weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

J. O. Adams has exchanged his Alen car for an Oldsmobile, something pretty nice.

Game Protector Osmer is attending the Wild League Life convention at Oil City this week.

A son on Monday was born to Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Beal of Summit township.

Mrs. Samuel Gomer of Boswell is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. O. Adams and the latter's husband.

Misses Hazel and Pearl Friend have gone on a few weeks' visit with relatives and friends at Friendsville, Md.

Miss Hilda Broesecker of Brothersvalley is spending a week with her cousin, Miss Kate Kidel.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cox of Youngstown, O., are visiting relatives and friends here for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bonheimer of York, Pa. are here for a few weeks with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Robert Cook entertained very informally twenty of her friends this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis of Wilmerding have returned home after a visit here with relatives and friends.

George H. Bentford, who for the past two months had been visiting in the West, returned home Saturday.

Barney Wilmoth of Glen Campbell has been visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Jennie Wilmoth, for several days.

W. H. Lighty and Harry Welsh, who are employed at tunnel work in Ohio, have been spending their vacation with their families here.

Miss Loise Madian of Connellsville is a guest at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Dixon.

Miss Fanny Graves of Cleveland, O., is here for a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Graves.

Mrs. William Graney and three children of Lonaconing, Md., are the guests of Mrs. Graney's brother, Rev. Father Brady at the Catholic rectory.

Miss Nancy Deal returned Tuesday to her home in Grove City, after a visit of ten days with Miss Hester Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stratton returned to their home in Charlevoix after spending a few days here with relatives and friends.

Luther Shultz has sold his home at Glade City to Daniel Long and has now the cellar excavated for an attractive home on his lot on North street below Grant.

Miss Ada Lint of Johnstown is enjoying a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Lint in this place.

Miss Margaret Bowman, who had been visiting her uncle, Frank Bowman and family at Star Junction, returned home Saturday.

Miss Adalide Reich, after a four weeks' visit with her aunt, Miss Mary Smith in Pittsburg, returned home Monday.

Rev. Father J. J. Brady left Tuesday morning for Loretto to attend the annual retreat for the Catholic priests of the Altoona diocese.

Mrs. C. R. Rodabaugh and three children of Logan, O., are here for an extended visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Smith.

Mrs. Emily Lockard and daughter Ida who have been visiting at the Olinger home for the past two weeks returned to Westminster, Md., on Tuesday.

The S. S. C. E. of the Brethren church, will hold a Food Sale in the basement of the Main Street Brethren church, on Saturday, July 15. Sale begins at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Hott is spending two weeks visiting at Crellin, Md.

Mrs. Charles McNamara of Cumberland, is visiting relatives and friends here for a few days.

Mrs. J. C. Pearsons and two children of Dawson, are visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hocking of Meyers avenue.

Mrs. Anna Hurley and sister, Miss Margaret Weber have returned home from a three weeks' visit with relatives and friends in different parts of Michigan and Ohio.

Miss Mary Spence returned Tuesday from a ten-day visit in Johnstown. Her friend, Miss Jane Ann Therkle, accompanied Miss Spence home.

Mrs. George Shultz and sister-in-law, Miss Martha Shultz yesterday went to Akron where Mr. Shultz is employed with one of the rubber companies. They expect to go to house-keeping.

Farmers' Day at Somerset Chautauqua will be on Tuesday, July 25, and it is expected to be a big event. State Agricultural speakers will be present.

A civil service examination will be held at Somerset on July 22nd for applicants for the position of postmaster at Shanksville, where there is a vacancy. The office paid $548 during the last fiscal year.

Mrs. W. H. Teas and three small sons, of Marion, West Virginia, arrived in Meyersdale on Wednesday to spend some time with Mrs. Teas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hohlitzell.

Misses Mary Cover and Margaret Shipley of the South Side entertained a party of young folks to supper at 'Riverside' on Thursday evening in honor of Misses Gertrude and Katherine Brooks of Pittsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Black left Meyersdale on Monday morning in their new Buick roadster for Hagerstown, Gettysburg, York and other eastern points. They were accompanied by their nephew, George J. Black, who drove the car.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryan Bittner of Washington, D. C., are guests of the latter's brother, George Blake; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Long, of Connellsville spent Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. George Blake and last week Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lisinger of Uniontown, were visitors at the same home.

Jacob D. Spaugy took his son, Edgar aged nine years to a Cumberland hospital where an operation for an abscess of the thigh was performed. The surgeon said that it was well that the matter was attended to as promptly as it was, as otherwise serious results would have followed. The lad as brought home on Wednesday evening on High street.

Mrs. Harry Snider has returned from a visit with friends at Ebensburg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Houck and the latter's mother, Mrs. C. W. Blanke left Friday by automobile for a trip to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York where they will visit relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Black entertained informally on Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hohlitzell, of Andrews, N. C., who were married very recently at the latter place.

Miss Pearl McNamara, a trained nurse in a Baltimore hospital, is visiting here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hohlitzell gave a dinner of twelve covers on Saturday evening, the guests of honor being Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hohlitzell of Andrews, N. C. who have been the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hohlitzell's parents for a week.

The little child of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Getty was prostrated a few days ago with what at first was thought by the attending physician, Dr. Lichy, infantile paralysis but the later symptoms indicated that such was not the case. The little one is rallying from its prostration nicely.

Co. C. of Somerset reached El Paso, Texas Friday morning and all are well in spite of the terrific heat. There will be big military maneuvers held there since danger of war, is past. The Tenth, however has been ordered to Marathon, Texas, where bandits are making trouble.

Miss Annie Black of Oakland, Cal., arrived here Saturday and expects to remain for several months visiting at the home of her brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hohlitzell and with other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Edward Mumma of Harnedsville, who had been visiting relatives and friends here left for her home on Saturday. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Harvey Saylor who will visit at Harnedsville for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Grabenstein with their family and Miss Esther Stacer of Cumberland and Sister Alonza a nun in the St. Joseph order at Philadelphia, motored here Monday morning and spent the day with Mrs. Grabenstein's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Stacer.

At a meeting of the Chautauqua Association, Monday evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing year. President H. M. Cook; Vice President R. T. Mason; Secretary P. D. Clutton; Treasurer C. Q. Griffith.

Mrs. Eva Everline of Cumberland, is visiting at the home of her niece, Mrs. H. C. Krierlem.

Miss Bernadette Bell of Piedmont, W. Va., was a guest of her friend, Miss Florence Middleton for the past few days. Miss Bell is a very fine vocalist and rendered two beautiful solos at the morning service in St. Phillip and James Catholic Church Sunday morning.

The Wilmoth mill is to be rebuilt in height and shape as the structure just partly burned. The loss is about $6,000 covered by insurance. The work has been begun under Henry Mankamer.

The George W. Collins family and their guests, the Ludwig family, of Pittsburg picnicked at Stanton's dam yesterday.

Minnie, the 9-year old daughter of Lewis Mazer of Deal had one of her hands badly bruised and several fingers cut yesterday while riding on a Western Maryland train, when a window fell on her hand. Dr. C. P. Large the company's physician dressed the injuries.

A dinner will be given this Thursday evening at Fort Stanwix Hotel Johnstown to the newly appointed Highway Commission F. B. Black, by the Good Roads Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and County Highway officials of that section.

Chief Engineer R. D. Uhler, of the State Department will also be present. Oscar Gurley returned the first part of the week from Flint Michigan, where he had been looking up his new position in the experimental department of the Buick Motor Co. Mr. Gurley is certainly a wizard in correcting tangled autos. His salary offered him is something very flattering. He and his wife are to be there by Aug. 25.

The sound of the mowing machine is heard all around. George A. Reed of Washington, D. C. and Mrs. E. R. Grimes, Bessie and Mae Jeffreys of Addison were guests at dinner on Saturday at the home of Mrs. Flora Turney. After dinner the evening was spent with vocal and instrumental music.

George A. Reed who has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. A. C. Jeffreys and grandmother, Mrs. E. R. Grimes left on Sunday morning for his home at Washington. He is inspecting British shells and expects to enter the navy next month.

The many friends of Mrs. Jasper Augustine will be pleased to learn that her injuries in the auto wreck on July 4 were not of a serious nature resulting more as nervous prostration; her son who was the chauffeur was in no way to blame, it being the reckless driving of another car. This matter should be disposed of in accordance with the law.

The Fourth was spent very quietly here yet nevertheless pleasantly. Old Glory paid tribute to the day.

On Sunday last 360 autos passed through Addison going east or west. Harry McCullough and family of Piedmont are guests of Mrs. A. C. Jeffreys.

VICINITY OF MEYERSDALE A birthday party was given at the home of John Zimmerman's Saturday evening July 8, in honor of their son Pius. A happy evening was spent in playing games. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sell and family, Mrs. Elmer Engle, Misses Florence and Ruth Faidley, Eva, Sadie, Florence and Martha Maust, Nellie Beals, Nellie Nemiller, Tillie Pugh, Florence and May Kretzman, Eva, Gursie and Hazel Engle, Mary and Erma Zimmerman, Idella and Florence Klink and Erma Bockes; Edward Hay, Harry and Charley Burkholder, John, Irvin and Roy Beals, Roy and Sylvester Maust, James, Irvin, Homer and Paul Klink, Alvin and Ellis Kretzman, Marilog Gragey, Donald Friend, Web Ducker, Perry Maust Walter Bockes, Clark Pritts, Carl and Clyde Engle, Dewey Herwig, Emanuel Fressler, Gurnie Styanus, Clarence Rhodes, Norman, William and Pius Zimmerman, Galen Handwerk, Preston Firl, Preston Lindaman and Edward Sutters.

Mr. Donald Friend spent Sunday at William Miller's.

Miss Mary Zimmerman who was working in Meyersdale spent last week with her parents.

Mr. Louis Spelcher, Albert, Fisher and George Henry spent last week at their homes in Accident.

Mr. and Mrs. James Beals spent Sunday at Robert Staubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Christ, Maust spent Sunday at Summit Mills.

Norman Zimmerman is helping John Mimmie to make hay.

Ephraim Klink will soon have his new house completed and ready to move in.

The Muncy Lumber Co. who had a vacation over the 4th began to saw again Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Barnical who had spent a few days with their parents returned home Monday.

Dr. E. H. Cook, wife and daughter of Watertown, Wisconsin, arrived in Meyersdale this evening to visit at the home of the Doctor's brother, Mr. J. M. Cook.

ADDISON. The sound of the mowing machine is heard all around.

George A. Reed of Washington, D. C. and Mrs. E. R. Grimes, Bessie and Mae Jeffreys of Addison were guests at dinner on Saturday at the home of Mrs. Flora Turney. After dinner the evening was spent with vocal and instrumental music.

George A. Reed who has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. A. C. Jeffreys and grandmother, Mrs. E. R. Grimes left on Sunday morning for his home at Washington. He is inspecting British shells and expects to enter the navy next month.

The many friends of Mrs. Jasper Augustine will be pleased to learn that her injuries in the auto wreck on July 4 were not of a serious nature resulting more as nervous prostration; her son who was the chauffeur was in no way to blame, it being the reckless driving of another car. This matter should be disposed of in accordance with the law.

The Fourth was spent very quietly here yet nevertheless pleasantly. Old

Mid Summer CLEARANCE SALE

MILLER & COLLINS ALL DEPARTMENTS

July 14th to 31st

If you are wise you will take advantage of this sale.

Only first class goods will be offered

MISCELLANEOUS.

For Sale—A Summit Range, practically new, Oscar Gurley

For Sale—Ford Autos—First or Second hand. Apply to F. J. Hemminger or O. L. Plot.

FOR SALE—A second hand automobile, Five Passenger Car, in first class condition, cheap. Any one anticipating the purchase of a car, will do well to investigate this offer. Inquire at this office.. 6-22-31*

AUTO FOR SALE—30—H. P. Roadster; this is a Classy car, fully equipped and in the finest shape. The price is so low you can not afford to miss this bargain. Inquire at this Office.

FOR SALE—AUTOMOBILE in first class condition. Inquire at this office.

For Rent—Good 5-room House centrally located, modern conveniences. Apply at This Office.

GROUND HOG COAL—J. L. Bittner has opened up a new place for mining the famous Ground Hog Coal at Glade City. He has erected a platform and a chute and is prepared to serve the public at all times as he maintains a supply on hand. Get his prices.

For Rent—A good six-room house near center of town; hot and cold water and bath. Reasonable Rent. Apply at Commercial Office.

1890. 1916

You can send wool and get any of the following made, also for sale—Home-made woollens, batting for comforts, cushions etc. Blankets, flannels for skirts, shirts, underwear and dresses, hose, carpets, rugs, yarns for weaving and knitting, all plain and fancy, wholesale and retail. Lemuel R. Barkley, Somerset, Pa. Cook Wollen and Hosiery Mills. 6-22-31.

EXCHANGE AUTO

—Will give a 1912 Overland car with all new gearing for small car. Apply at this office.

SALE OF HOUSEHOLD GOODS

my residence 113 Meyers avenue at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon July 15th, Fine Walnut Combination book case and writing desk with French plate mirror; Walnut hall rack with French plate mirror, combination umbrella stand, marble slab; Set of 5 pieces a parlor furniture, solid walnut upholstered in silk plush in like condition, heavy oak dining table, sewing machine, almost new, chairs, rustic porch rocker, book case, wardrobe wash machine chairs, cook range, bed child's bed, carpet, Thoroughbred Shetland pony, cart and harness for same

MARY B. APPEL 113 Meyers Avenue

FUNERAL OF MRS. CHRISTNER.

A very large concourse of people followed the remains of Mrs. Calvin Christner to their final resting place on Sunday last, account of whose death appeared in last issue of the Commercial. The funeral was conducted by Rev. E. K. Hochstetler assisted by Rev. E. C. Miller. The services were held at The Temple. The following are the names of the children: Clarence, Walter, Miles, Mrs. Lena Weimer, Mrs. Mary Shook, Margaret and Sadie.

The Somerset Chautauqua will be held July 23-30 in Edgewood Grove. The Association has announced the program as follows: Berlin Concert Band, Dr. Carolyn E. Geisel, the Apollo Concert Company, the Wells Entertainers, Master of State Grange John A. McSparran, Prof. J. A. Burns, Dr. Wirt Lowther, the Famous Suvance River Quartet, the Zodeler Symphonic Quartet, Dr. James Whitcomb Brougher, Davenny Festival Quintet, Dr. G. Whitfield Hay, P. M. Neilson, and Glenn Frank.

State Highway Commissioner Black the new appointee to that position was sincerely congratulated by his townspeople on last Saturday when he arrived in a Pierce Arrow car, the finest made, provided for the Commissioner's use, and run by a chauffeur provided by the department. It was Mr. Black's first run from Harrisburg since taking the oath of office on 5th inst.

For Sale—Two good second hand Indian Motor Cycles. Also all kinds of bicycle and auto supplies. GURLEY'S Sporting Goods Store.

GLENCOE

I. D. Leydig and Alice Webreck attended the funeral of Chas Ridenour of Rock Falls, Ill., at Hagerstown, Md., on Sunday. Mrs. Ridenour will visit here with relatives for a few weeks before returning to Illinois.

Mrs. Lewis Little and two children of Friedens were guests of Mrs. W. H. Miller over Sunday.

Born to H. M. Bittner and wife of our town on Thursday last a bouncing baby boy.

Pearl Schrock is spending the week with Garrett and Somerset friends. That makes Allen a "solemnly" chap.

Ben Leydig is back to the 'all timbers to assist with the harvest before going on to Pittsburg for employment.

Mabel Bittner was tendered a happy birthday surprise on Thursday night. Some layout of refreshments and a real crowd! Even the "blacks" were there!

"Somebody lied" about the date of the Band's Picnic a few weeks ago, so now is your time to prepare for the festive occasion of July 15 at Johnsburg.

Mrs. Wm. Hoffman of Morgantown W. Va. arrived on Saturday to spend a fortnight with her mother, Mrs. Sara Bittner.

N. B. Poorbaugh purchased a fine Maxwell touring car this week. Girls turn your eyes in that direction for a season.

COURT SENTENCES

William Morrison of Jenner township, who had been in jail at Somerset for several weeks charged with sodomy, Monday morning entered a plea of guilty before Judge Ruppel in court and was sentenced to serve not less than one year nor more than two years in the penitentiary. Morrison says his home is in Front Royal, Va.

As the result of a hearing held by Justice Robert S. Meyers, Friday morning, the case against Stanley Wilson, Holsopple councilman, charged with embezzlement, was discharged for lack of evidence.

Peter Broschenk of Jerome pleaded guilty to assault and battery and was released on parole.

DON'T WAIT UNTIL YOUR NEIGHBOR HAS BEEN HERE—GET HERE FIRST MILLER & COLLINS' SALE OPENS FRIDAY, JULY 14.

DON'T MISS MILLER & COLLINS' SALE—ALL DEPARTMENTS—IT MEANS A SAVING TO YOU.