Princess Ratibos and the Countess of Wartenstein and has played a great deal with and for the German nobility. During the present war he played in many military hospitals for the wounded soldiers, but later left Germany to become a member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

AT ELK LICK CHAUTAUQUA

GOOD GAME OF BALL

An interesting game of base ball took place on the Slicer grounds in this place on Saturday afternoon. The contestants were the home team and the Berlin club. The resulting score was 13 to 8 in favor of the home team. Berlin's ball grounds having been taken up for other purpose that team had not been on the field for two years and as a consequence they had to take second place in the game. There were about 200 present.

FRITZ KREISLER PREDICTS BRIGHT FUTURE FOR VIOLINIST WHO PLAYS HERE

DONALD McBEATH.

DONALD McBEATH, the young Australian violinist, who will be heard here on the seventh day of the Chautauqua, may be classed as one of the most gifted and popular of the younger school of instrumentalists. He has only recently completed his third season as chief assisting artist with John McCormack, world renowned tenor, and is a prime favorite with McCormack audiences everywhere.
 Fritz Kreisler, who is generally regarded as the greatest living violinist, has taken a keen interest in Mr. McBeath because he recognizes the unusual talents of the young Australian. Mr. Kreisler has been coaching him during the past year and predicts for McBeath, who is barely in his twenties, a very bright future.
