SALISBURY.
A Fine Chautauqua.

Our Chautauqua is surpassing our greatest expectations this year. Our superintendent, the best on this circuit, is Rev. L. P. Young; he is a great favorite of the entertainers and also of the people. Mr. Immel, the morning hour lecturer is giving us some very fine food for thought and Miss Whiteside who has charge of the children certainly can tell the most delightful stories in such a charming way. She is also training them for the Mother Goose Pageant to be presented on Saturday morning.

Among the speakers we have every variety; Mr. Sears with his irresistible cheerfulness; Dr. Poole to instruct in his lecture on modern China and to entertain in his rendition of the first act of "The Yellow Jacket"; Mr. Mason to tell us of the Mexican situation and Mr. Batten in his lecture, "The Pathfinder of Democracy". We are having exceptionally fine music both vocal and instrumental. The Dunbar Solree Singers rendered a variety of pleasing selections while those who have never sat under the spell of the matchless music of the Tschalkowsky String Quartet can never know what they missed, but those who have heard it can never forget it for it is almost impossible for one who hears this quartet not to be "moved by concord of sweet sounds." The Westminster Choir to the coming of which all had looked forward was able to render only a few numbers in the evening, because of a most severe storm which caused one of the ropes to break. Many were panic stricken at first, but the voice of our superintendent rose, bidding all to remain quiet, and then the audience was adjourned. The choir then gave their program the next morning.

Camping and Picnics A camping party composed of the following young ladies will go next week to Camp Casselman, near Grantsville; Misses Elizabeth Reitz, Mima Harding, Marguerite Glatfelter, and Mrs. A. M. Lichty of town; Misses Bernadette Crowe, Cora and Nelle Bittner, Amelia Clotworthy, Florence Boyer, Regina Reich, Mr. and Mrs.
Hayner of Meyersdale, Miss Cherrie Brashear of Brownsville and Misses Willa Saylor, Anna Graves and sister of Uniontown.

Miss Faidley of Duquesne entertained a number of little folks in the grove on Friday.

Dinner Guests.
On Tuesday, Mrs. N. B. Hanna entertained Dr. Speicher, wife and two daughters, Misses Elizabeth and Maud, at a delightful dinner party.

Minor Mention
Rev. D. M. Merrill and wife of Avilton, Maryland, are visiting friends in town en route to Meyersdale where they expect to visit their daughter and several other people.

Miss Ada Brotemarkle of Cumberland who had been visiting at the home of Professor and Mrs. J. C. left on Monday for Somerset where she will spend a few days with friends.

On Thursday morning a small party composed of Misses Ada Brotemarkle, Ruth, Estelle and Lucile Beahn hiked it to the region of the artesian well where they spent a most delightful day, "exploring" etc.

Almost every home in town is entertaining a number of guests who are here to attend the Chautauqua and to visit old friends.

THE THREATENED
RAILROAD STRIKE

The threatened tie-up of the railroads by a great strike would strike Somerset county extremely hard as the mining towns here depend entirely on the railroads to carry their products.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, on the Somerset & Boswell Branch of the Connellsville Division, is hauling 500 cars of coal a day at present.
Other branches are carrying hundreds of cars additional. The stoppage of train movement would certainly mean closing of the mines.

Company stores in the smaller mining towns would be in a bad way.
They depend entirely upon the railroads to bring in their foodstuffs to them and few of them carry big stocks. With the cessation of work at the mines and the closing of company stores the plight of residents in the small mining towns can be readily imagined.

MT. LEBANON PICNIC.
The Mt. Lebanon Reformed Sunday school will hold their annual picnic in the grove adjoining the church on Saturday, Aug. 12.

Music will be furnished by the Band and dinner will be served in the grove.

GLADE.
Lightning struck through the steeple and ran along the roof of the Christian church last Friday morning.
Fire soon broke out along the gable which was difficult to fight. Quick action on the part of the men of the town and those passing, however, prevented injury to neighboring buildings. It is estimated that $300 will repair the damage. This is covered by insurance.

Many Glade people enjoyed Saturday at the Wesley Chapel and Casselman picnics.

F. R. Coder, who accompanied his brother to Gary, Ill., returned home on Saturday.

Miss Josephine Tedrow of Pittsburg spent Sunday with her father, of East Main street.

Miss Irene Boyd of West Main street, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John Blough of Meyersdale.

The Luther League will hold a social at the home of Mr. Luther Dull on Thursday evening. All of the members are invited to attend. There will be refreshments and an enjoyable time for all.

Mr. Rush Boucher of Pittsburgh is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Boucher, of Main street.

Mrs. Harry Glatfelter of Connellsville is visiting friends and relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hennecamp and son Earl, and Miss Myra Hennecamp of New Lexington motored to Johnstown Sunday with Mr. N. Phillips of Millford.

Mr. Herbert Snyder of Jeannette and Mr. Philip Snyder of Johnstown, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Snyder.

the former's brother, Mrs. Kneriem and Mr. G. W. Witt respectively.

Mrs. Russell Kennell while removing a top from a glass jar Monday twisted the glass top from the jar and cut her hand very severely. Dr. F. A.
G. Murray was called to dress the wound.

Mr. James Troutman lost a valuable dog on Sunday morning; it was found dead about a mile from his home lying in the road and it is supposed that the dog was kicked by a stray horse which the animal was driving away from his master's farm.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reddig and

Boy Scouts at State Sanatorium

The preparedness movement has reached the boy patients at the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Mont Alto and Cresson. The Boy Scouts are well organized at both these institutions and have had regular drills under a Scout Master for some time past.

The recent movement for more adequate National defense, however, has stimulated the boys to an even greater degree and they spend as much time drilling as the Medical Officer of the institution deems their conditions will permit.

The Mont Alto Sanatorium is situated in the midst of a State Forestry Reserve, and the Cresson Institution has several hundred acres of forest land immediately surrounding it. In both places there is splendid opportunity to do wood craft, and these hours which the boys spend so happily in the forest fit in admirably with the regimen which has been planned by Commissioner of Health, Samuel G. Dixon.

And not only is the service obtained from the modern tire greater, but the work which it is now called upon to perform is many times that of its ancestor of a decade ago. Cars are heavier, they are driven at higher speed, and the increase in touring has added to the accessories and other equipment carried until even the large tires are often overloaded. The high motor power and quick "pickup" demanded of the car of today impart a tremendous strain to the rubber and fabric, as severe in its effect as a sudden application of the brakes. And when we have added to the increased mileage under these more severe conditions the ease of application of a new tire, through the use of demountable or removable rims or wire wheels, and the quick acting jacks and engine driven tire pumps now furnished as regular equipment on many cars the motorist of today may well realize that—tire troubles as a serious "bugaboo" should be relegated to the background.

BETTER MOTOR CAR TIRES
Amid the refinements and improvements which have taken place during the past two years in the modern motor car, we are apt to lose sight of the increased mileage which the motorist of today obtains from his tires. But if we contrast the tire mileage obtained ten years ago with that which the owner of the modern motor car is now wont to expect, we may well realize that the service has improved by seven hundred per cent. No longer is the chance puncture or let down of daily occurrence; it is the exception rather than the rule; we hear of cars which have been driven from Maine to California with the "Atlantic air" still in all four tires; tours hundreds of miles in length over rough roads, which would have spelled death to the tire of a few years ago, are now taken with no more extra tire equipment than that carried on a drive up Fifth Avenue.
