CULTIVATE A SMILE

Cultivate your smiles unceasingly, girls. This does not mean that you must sit in street cars, wearing an insipid grin. Not at all! It does not even mean that you must actually smile in the literal sense of the word.

This will keep your face attractive and youthful, even when you have passed the borders of youth itself. If you wish to retain your beauty as long as possible, don't form the habit of letting your lips droop and all your face muscles sag downward when your face is in repose.

Just stand before the mirror and pull your lines down to get the effect. Draw your mouth down and scowl a bit and you will see just how ugly those drooping lines can make you look.

DECREE OF COURT IN CUNNINGHAM ESTATE

The heirs of the late Elias Cunningham of Somerset must accept $6,000 less than the amount awarded them by the jury in their suit against the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company or take the chances of a new trial, and the defendant company must file an acceptance within five days after the Prothonotary of Somerset county will enter judgment against it for the full amount of the verdict, $30,000 in accordance with the opinion refusing a new trial and decree filed by Judge Aaron E. Reiber, of Butler county, at April sessions, 1915.

The opinion and decree, filed last week, occupy less than three type written pages. After stating the case Judge Reiber says: "On the part of the plaintiffs the amounts ranged from $4,720 to $32,000, and on the part of the defendants from $4,500 to $2,500."

Judge Reiber says that he has the conviction "that the opinion of witnesses of both plaintiff and defendant were more or less controlled and affected by local interests. This fact, however, will not move or justify the court to interfere with the verdict."

"Following our conviction we deem it our duty to grant a new trial unless relieved by the action of the parties in suit, and feel warranted in lending our aid to avoid another trial of this case."

"And now, August 9, 1916, it is ordered that upon plaintiff filing in the office of the Prothonotary a remitter for the sum of $6,000 from the amount of verdict within ten days from this date a new trial is refused, or failing to do so a new trial is granted. If written five days after filing same by plaintiff, and notice thereof, the defendant shall file an acceptance thereof with an agreement, the judgment to be entered in accordance herewith shall be final and conclusive, the Prothonotary is directed to enter judgment upon the verdict less the sum of $6,000 with interest and costs. Upon defendant failing to file an acceptance within said period a new trial is refused and the Prothonotary is then directed to enter judgment upon the verdict for the full amount thereof."

The case grew out of the railroad company having taken from the Cunningham estate a number of acres of land, adjoining the Somerset passenger and freight station, by right of eminent domain, for the yards installed there two years ago.

Saturday afternoon the Cunningham estate filed an acceptance of the order and decree of the court.

LUNCHEON FOR BRIDE-TO-BE. Miss Helen F. Collins gave a very prettily appointed buffet luncheon at her home on North street on Thursday, August 10, in honor of her sister, Miss Irene Collins, who will be one of Meyersdale's bevy of Fall brides.

The dining room of the pretty Collins' home was tastefully decorated in a color scheme of white and green, the shades being drawn and the light from a green dome suspended over the table making a very pleasing effect.

With the close of the luncheon, Miss Irene opened the many and beautiful gifts with which the guests showered her.

Those present besides the guest of honor were the latter's sister, Mrs. Frank Burrow, of Topeka, Kansas, the Misses Lou Graves, of San Diego, Cal.; Bernice Beachy, of Wichita, Kan.; Elizabeth Roder, Baltimore, Md.; Nelle Hartley and Helen Smith, Beaver, Pa.; Anna Williams and Myrtle Kress, Johnstown; Anna Stein, Somerset; Rosina Zorhorst and Frieda Van Nest, Washington, D. C.; Florence and Mary Wilmoth, Helen and Ruth Shaw, Lulu and Nan Hocking, Kathryn Leonard, Mary Black, Florence Middleton, Alta Siehl, Florence Just and Alice Friedline of Meyersdale.
