CEMBER 19-22, 19:

Free Attraction.

The Seven Arabs in the their wonderful Acrobatic Performances, will give two acts each afternoon; they alone are well worth the price of admission.

The Races.

There have been booked seven Harness Races and three Running Races for the week, with prospects of large field of starters.

Plenty of Good Shows, Making up a Midway That Has Not Been Equalled in the History of the Fair.

THE STOCK AND FARM EXHIBIT.

The management has provided more room in the way of the erection of Sheds, and farmers are urged to bring the best they have for exhibit, thus doing they will be helping on a worthy institution for the community. There have been secured all state judges, who are highly competent to pass judgment upon what is exhibited. The judges are all furnished by the Argicultural Department. They are as follows: Mr. R. P. Allaman, Bedford, Pa., who will give an ex hibit in the line of entomology, such as scale on trees, insect crop destroyers and how to prevent losses to the farm. These lectures will be highly instructive and beneficial to all who will avail themselves of this opportunity; Mr. C. M. Barnitz, of Riverside, Pa., an expert on poultry, will explain and pass on matters pertaining to poultry; and J. L. Henderson, of Washington, Pa., will answer your questions concerning livestock, for he understands his subject and will be well able to award prizes where they belong.

PATRONIZE WHAT IS FOR YOUR BENEFIT.

Sometimes we are asked to give where we do not expect to get anything in return. When we urge you to patronize the home Fair we are simply trying to make you see that you are helping yourself, for the Meyersdale Fair and Race Association is a wonderful benefit to Somerset County, and more especially to this part of it. No one makes money, no dividends are paid, in fact the management borrows money to make it go. Be there, bring your products.

GOVERNMENT SHOULD REGULATE WAGES.

If a set of conditions have arisen which oblige the government to regulate rates, then it is equally obliged, on the basis of economic analysis, to regulate wages accordingly. Having taken one step, it must take the other. The logic of events is forcing this dilemma on the government. It is the public which somer or later must pay for the increased expenses of transpor-tation.—Professor J. Laurence Laughlin, University of Chicago.

The Minor Heroism of Saving.

In these days of powder smoke, the physical valor of the battle-field is the most common of all. Greater by far are the humbler heroisms of moral courage.

How are you bearing your burden of economic obligation, out of what you earn how much do you save? The measure of a man's progress is what he sets by for the capital of the Home.

Give your labor a chance to make you happy. Create capital and surplus and turn it into independence and security.

This savings department will help you in this one of the heroisms of peace. 3 per cent. interest paid on your money.

MAKING THE HOME ATTRACTIVE FOR THE BOYS, PAYS.

If you are satisfied with the old style furnishings very likely your boys are not. The contrast between new and old is very great in plumbing fixtures. The new is beautiful, sanitary, inviting.

But you will see this too by glancing through our free booklets "Stat" ("Baths", "Lavatories", "Closets". May we send them?
