"THE SUSPECT"

—BY—

Anita Stewart

A Powerful Drama of Russian Bureaucracy.
A Thrilling Photoplay of Russian Nihilism that reaches Dramatic Zenith.

Six Thousand Feet of Thrills.

In this production Miss Stewart is caused to become a Nihilist by harsh inhuman treatment to which her family is subjected. Her conflicting emotions are evident to every person in the audience as she seemingly lives through the years of pain and pleasure. In two or three close-ups in particular, Miss Stewart's facial expressions are worthy of special mention. Her horror which turns slowly to joy, is wonderfully registered by this master artist of the film who has won her way into the heart of thousands.

"Brennon O' The Moor", presenting Grace Cunard and Francis Ford.

Saturday, Sept. 23rd

"LIBERTY"

In 3 Acts

Don't miss the wonderful feature, 1st Episode, "The Fangs of the Wolf".

"Soup and Nuts". Comedy in 3 Acts.

LOCAL OPTION BEING

FAR REMOVED

A Pittsburg newspaper having finished a pool of the candidates nominated for the legislature, and of those likely to be elected, announces that local option received a decided wallop at the last primary election. The majority against the enactment of such legislation will be greater in the next, than in any of the last three General Assemblies.
