Scouts Break Camp.
The Boy Scouts who have been camping for the past two weeks near the little log cabin on the Engle farm are back home again. The plague restrictions prohibited them from camping in their usual quarters, Camp Casselman. But they seemed to have enjoyed their man-cooked food as much as ever and they received not a little aid from their daily visitors. The tent occupied by McClune Barbus and Ernest Maust merits special attention as being the neatest and most up-to-date in the entire camp. The latter who is a most ingenious electrician had taken electric batteries and fitted up his tent in a masterly manner.

ST. PAUL
Miss Florence Engle and Mr. Charles Hutzell motored to Somerset on Sunday.

Will Snyder of Pocahontas has been spending the last week with his grandfather Richard Sipple.

The elite of St. Paul and vicinity were royally entertained on Thursday evening at Jones Hill by Mrs. Nan Engle and Miss Erma Sipple. It was all that could be desired and the silver moon shed her mellow light on the scene of their sylvan hilarities.

Mr. Ed Christner of Stoyestown spent Sunday with St. Paul friends.

There are some people in St. Paul who do not believe in "bustin the trust." They think the people through the government should own and control them and participate in the benefits.

We are still paying the same price for postage stamps. All most every thing else that the people need has advanced. I wonder whether Uncle Sam couldn't serve us with more things at the cost of such service.

Anita Stewart is one of the very strong actresses of the country. See her at the great play, "The Suspect"

Friday, Sept. 23 at the Bijou.
