Tailored-in Efficiency
in clothes for men and young men

Attach importance to the matter of being well dressed not only while your clothes are new but long after they have been put into service.

It requires tailoring and more tailoring to produce a suit or an overcoat that in spite of hard service will retain its original suave lines and the distinctive characteristics that marked it when it was new.

HIGH ART CLOTHES
MADE BY STROUSE & BROTHERS, BALTIMORE, MD.

are such clothes and men who pay the reasonable price for which they are sold receive a maximum of efficiency—tailored-in efficiency—the only kind that lasts.

Mrs. W. H. Baldwin delightfully entertained a large party of friends last Saturday by giving a one o'clock luncheon at her home on North street. Small baskets of pansies tied with maline formed the centre pieces and the place cards were tiny bids perched on the water glass. The color scheme was carried out in the luncheon. Forty guests were present. Mrs. Ralph K. Quillman of Norristown and Miss Rose Streibrich, of Braddock were out of town guests.

AMUSEMENTS AT SUMMER GARDEN
Mme. Petrova, the brilliant emotional actress, will be seen on the screen here at THE SUMMER GARDEN on FRIDAY EVENING SEPT. 22nd. in "What Will People Say?" a five part Metro protoplay, produced by the Popular Plays and Players. This is the fourth of Mme Petrova's triumphs in the silent drama under Metro auspices. She was starred previously in "My Madonna," "The Vampire," and "The Heart of a Painted Woman." At the conclusion of her present tour on the speaking stage in "The Revolt" Mme Petrova will devote her time exclusively to motion pictures, appearing in big Metro productions. In "What Will People Say?" Mrs. Petrova is supported by an exceptionally strong cast, headed by Fritz deLint, her new leading man.
