There are St. Paulers who cannot understand why society should allow vast unearned incomes to go to those who do nothing and by means of them enslave the people. They are concerned in a system of industry that will return to their producers values equal to the value they produce. They are not concerned in any political organization that does not have this object in view when asking for the people. Neither of the dominant political organizations touch this issue with one of their fingers.

A GENERAL SURVEY OF THE WAR
New drives made by the French and British resulted in the capture of additional ground on the Somme front by the allies.
The French gain as reported in the Paris bulletin was effected between Fregicourt and Morval, in the direction of Sully, on the Peronne-Bapaume road north of Rancourt, where the wedge being driven into the German lines between Bapaume and Peronne is almost at its sharpest point.
The new ground won by the British, as reported by London, lies some 1 1/2 miles from La Sars, on the Posteres-Bapaume road, northeast of Courcellets. La Sars is about three and a half miles from Bapaume, toward which the British in this sector are determinedly pressing. The captured territory comprised a strongly defended farm.
On the Macedonian front the Bulgarians have resumed their efforts to drive the Servians from their Kaimakalan position near the Servian border, in the region north of Lake Ostrovo, but this latest attempt, during which four attacks were made, failed.
The defection to the revolutionists of the Greek warship Hydra has caused excitement in Piraeus. The Hydra, was boarded at 3 o'clock in the morning by a party of men in civilian dress. The loyalist officer second in command was aroused from his bunk and with pistols at his head was forced with other loyalist officers to embark in a rowboat. The commander, being a Venizelist, readily surrendered to the boarders.
After a comparative inactivity, the Russians inaugurated strong offensive movements north and south of the Galician capital. According to the Petrograd war office report material successes have been won. Austro-German positions were penetrated and more than 4,000 prisoners were taken. The Teutonic forces are offering bitter resistance.
More than 3,000 prisoners have been taken by the Germans in the battle near Hermannstadt, Transylvania, where the first Roumanian army was defeated and dispersed. Thirteen guns and a large quantity of war supplies also have been captured. Roumanian attacks have been repulsed.
The capture by the Servians of Kaimakalan Height, on the western end of the Macedonian front, for possession of which heavy fighting between the Servians and the Bulgarians has been in progress for some time, was announced by the German war office.
Despatches from the island of Crete indicate that the movement headed by Venizelos has by no means been as successful as at first supposed. The loyalists are offering stiff resistance and small but sanguinary conflicts are reported not only in the Canea district but throughout the island.
