

MEYERSDALE COMMERCIAL.

VOL. XXXVIII

SALISBURY

Assessesses

er an

-

in ber lar the ter

letngs

lay get his 85 per rs,

n's

ork

gs.

3

~~~

dis-on-our

our fer-

dav

7.50 10.50 12.50 18.50

In-

Betty

Pa.

ous

*****

Ň 180

N.Y in ÿ

MEYERSDALE PA., THURSDAY, JANUARY 25, 1917

OFFICIALS

ETTGATHERINGCOAL PROPERTYCHANGES HANDSTHE GRIM REAPERRecent Deaths of Those weI HIRTY-TWOYEARS GARRETT

On Wednesday evening, January 17 the Grantsville Scouts and Salisbury Junior Scouts played on the Salisbury Follwing is the line-up and

 Lichiber
 r.g.
 Zehner

 Meese
 r.g.
 Zehner

 Shunk
 lg.
 Generich

 Field goals, Bender 1, Gingerich 1,

SIFTINGS

On January 20, the Salisbury Var- much talent in the rendering of their Lichliter sity defeated the Keyser Prep.. Following is the line-up and score. Keyser-28. Salisbury-29. Lichty ...... r.f. ...... Slocum Thomas ...... l.f. ..... Clevinyer friends. Stotler ...... c. ..... Gibson Swartzwelder... r.g. ..... Loutche long down the stairs. As a result of his fall he is suffering from bad bruises and cuts about the face.

John Harding, while dispatch-Mr ing his duties at his father's mine, on Tuesday met with an accident causing one of his hands to be very badly lacerated.

Briefs.

The start Rev. Hetrick, returned home on Sunday from Rockwood, where he had been conducting a revival meeting for several weeks Prof. J. C. Beahm of the South Connellsville schools, spent the weekend at his home.

Mrs. L. L. Beachy and Mrs. Lorena Reitz, spent Saturday evening in Meyersdale at the home of Mrs. Philip Reich. Miss Florence Maust, spent severa

Miss Fibered matter spent and days last week in Pittsburg. Mr. Samuel Reed, spent the week-end in Cumberland with his wife who has been visiting for a number of weeks

Mrs. Harry Wagner of Boynton spent Saturday afernoon in town calling on friends.

Harvey Hay, is spending sev eral weeks in Cuba, attending the Mrs. Della B. Livengood's pupils on Wednesday.

GLENCOE

R. A. Poorbaugh and bride, spent Seaboard Construction company.

Births. ens. last Saturday a girl.

merman last Friday a daughter. fested their interest in talented girls to the new company, while in the lat-by attending the recital given by the Field goals, Bender 1, Gingerich 1, Dietz 3, Shunk 3, Smearman 1, Lich-liter 2, Foul goals, Bittinger 1 out of 8, Lichliter 5 out of 12, Shunk 2 out of 7. Time-keeper—Ringler. Refree part in the recital and displayed propositions in the county. The new compositions.

Personals.

last Thursday calling on Garrett

Saturday at Somerset.

Mrs. Irvin Maust and daughters. Misaes Ada and Eva, spent Tuesday in Frostburg on a shopping four. Deer Unberhard with her daoghtor, Ivadene who is in the Allegheny Hos-

Mr. Cecil Brown, was a visitor at matters of the old company are pital. Cumberland Sunday.

W. A. Merrill was transacting busiss at the county seat last week.

Mr. H. L. Fike, served as juror at Somerset last week. W. H. B. Carney substituted in the eighth grade latives in Steubensville, Ohio. for him.

Mrs. James McIntyre, returned to her home last Thursday from Coal returned home Sun al of her father, A. G. Kreiger. Miss June Ringler, spent the week-end at Johnstown visiting friends.

Miss Olive Bowlby, spent Sunday at Miss Onve Bowny, spent Sunday at Cumberland with her sister. T. Boone Brown of Baltimore, Md. was transacting business in Garrett the earlier part of this week. L L Wilso

Mrs. W. A. Merrill, was a visitor in Meyersdale Tuesday.

Highway Budget.

State Highway Commissioner Black has made public the highway depart-ment budget for the years 1917 and 1918

The official figures provide $12,000,leading to each end of the boroughs street.

w here and who have A deal of considerable magnitude joined the Silent I hron; . Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Full- and of much local interest was consummated last week when the lease on last Wednesday, a son. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas, Stev-Mrs. Elizabeth O'Donne Last Monday, January 22nd, Mrs. Elizabth O'Donnel of Romania died at Ridge mine, operated by Wm. Fetters Born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zim- and J. E. Schmittle, of Rockwood, was born at Wellersburg December 24th, 1850. Her matter

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zha nerman last Friday a daughter. Recital. Quite a few Garrett people mani-mer mine lease was simply transferred Elizabeth Shumaker was married to Edward O'Donnel August 14, 1871. company will be known as the Ivy Ridge Coal Mining company and will Ridge Coal Mining company and will

Rev. H. H. Wiant of Berlin, spent J. E. Schmittle as superintendent. Inst Thursday calling on Garrett acres, about 200 of which have been and 3 daughters. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Merrill returned taken out, and was originall devel-Loutche from Monroe, N. Y., Saturday where they were visiting Mrs. Merrill's par-ger. About 12 years ago the proper-neilsville. The daughters are Mrs. Field goals—Lichty 1, Thomas 3, Stotler 2, C. Sartzwelder 3, Slocum 3, Clevinger 5, Gibson, ', Foul goals— Lichty 1 out of 7, Thomas 3 out of 5, Stotler 1 out of 1, Swartzwelder 4 out 22. Referee—Mon. Time-keeper— Loechel. Scorer—Trevarrow. A Painful Accident. While going to his cellar one day last week, Mr. John Mort caught his foot which caused him to fall head long down the stairs. As a result of daughter Grace, spent Sunday with the doctor's parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. H. MrClellen at Rockwood. daugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugnerGaugner<t essary to operate a mining plant there Miss Rene Brant, spent from Thurs-day untit Saturady at Berlin, as the guest of Mrs. R. Landis. riday It is likely that Mr. Fetters will take finiter, his family to Florida to Ford the balance of the winter, as soon as the #### Local Mention.

Miss Margaret Hady, returned home on Sunday from a visit with re-Miss Stella McQuain, who has been spending some time in Akron, Ohio,

Mont, where she attended the funer-es school at Sand Patch, spent Sunday with her parents. Miss Nora Cox, a trained nurse from Pittsburg, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Cox, of the South Side. C. E. Livengood, was a business wisitor in Cumberland, Wednesday

J. L. Wilson, salesman for H. J. Lang Shoe company of Pittsburg, spent Sunday here with his family on Large street. Mrs. Dietz and daughter, Miss Ro-maine, of Salisbury, were town visistraightened out.

tors Wednesday. Ex-Postmaster J. F. Naugle, left

Wednesday for Pittsburg, to spend a week with his mother, who resides in C. Price undertaker C. Price, undertaker. that city. H. E. Weighley, was a business visitor to Pittsburg Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, of Con-

John Keegan, was born in Ireland R. A. Fooling and Mrs. Join Brown, of Con-the week-end with parents. Bob Wilbreck, Harry Cook and J. Campbell are now laborers of the inglways in broughs, where the roads in drive are the guests at the home on and Mrs. E. B. Kyle, of Broadway

A friend of the COMMERCIAL handed us a copy of the Meyersdale COMMERCIAL published August 22. 1884.

YEARS AGO

At that time the National campaign events, the brilliant campaign made by James G. Blaine against calumny, Shumaker. Her brothers are Jacob, John and Sylvester Shumaker of Welslander, money and coruption, as well lersburg; her sisters Mrs. Sarah Tress-ler of Meyersdale, Mrs. Dellah Hou-sel and Mrs. Mary Beal of Glencoe, and Susan living in the west. as the treachery of those who should have been his friends. As would be supposed the COM-

as the "Plumed Knight."

The paper before us is a little longcontinue the opeation of the mines er at Sand Patch. Mr. O'Donnel died er column than is at present used and . Meyersdale Junior Class Sleigh to. a number of years ago. The family all the type is hand set and there is consisted of seven children, 4 sons several co'umns of it. several co'umns of it.

and 3 daughters. Two of the sons and one daughter have died. John of business now, some, however, are familiar names today. In the first ad R. Reich advertises "City and Home made Furniture. Lints Grocery, near the Jones house follows, while Jodel & Parker; George J. Black; Graves Planing Mill; Eichnor Bros; Meyersdale Foundry, Alex Paul, agent; Sol Hile, dealer in watches and clocks; R. Risheberger, Contractor and Builder; L. Marrell, Underttaker; Miller & Collins, successors to N. E. Miller; The Slicer House; Diveley's Planing Mill; D. Shulttz, Planing Mill; John Wolf; W. B. Cook, Justice of the Peace; were each using the same lown, where the deceased grew and Gents furnishing goods, of Somerset took the argest space used.

Since leaves to mouth their loss, and the actionance. In the loss of the Booster club, and appearing brothers and sisters. brothers and sisters. Funeral services were held at her home in Johnstown by her pastor. The burial was in charge of J. E. Tres-13 to 14 cents, roasted 16 to 17. Eggs, depot here. The conditions were con-strictly fresh, 16 to 17 cents.

Mrs. Lydia Bowser Landis, wife of Peter Landis of Meyersdale, died at her home on January 17th, after a long illness from a complication o: ailments, including dropsy and heart Urias Smith offers his town property Dots that would be erected on this The population then increasel the same as in these days of modern haste and hurry. We quote-"Our usual disease. She was aged fifty-nine years increase-great rejoicing in the domieight months and twenty-seven days, cile of August Rosenberger and Exand all of her life was past at Meyers-Senator Groff, and twin blessings at dale. Her husband and the following Alf Breig's." named children survive her: Mrs. Several columns of personal and Minnie Sartorsiu of Chasley, N. D.;

William H. Landis of Greenville, Mrs. general local news items appear. The sheet is in a fine state of preservation and barring the effects of handling, is as white as the day it was pubat home. The funeral service was lished, something that does not occur conducted on Friday afternoon in the to present day paper.

Birthday Anniversary.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo.

Stein on North street was the scene of a very pleasant gathering last Sat-birthday surprise party on January urday evening when about twenty-18th at his home in Manila. The time urday evening when about twenty-five relatives and friends called for was very enjoyable. Dancing, card erset Mutual Fire Insurance company recently held in its Home Office, No.11 East Patriot street, Somerset, Pa., the following officers and directors was on for president and those who recollect it will recall the stirring J. P. Statler of Somerset, President; Josiah Specht of Kantner, Vice President; Jonas M. Cook, Secretary-Treasure & Manager; Chan M. Fisher of Somerset, Assistant Manager; R. C.

At the Annual Meeting of the Som

Heffley of Berlin; V. M. Black of Con-As would be supposed the COM-MERCIAL was an enthusiastic sup-porter of the Maine statesman, who was known throughout the country G. B. Hough, R. E. Beerits and M. J. Pritts of Somerse

INSURANCE

Berlin.

The Junior Class of the Meyersdale High School sleighed over to Berlin Wednesday evening and passel several hours most delightfully at the Geo. Wetmiller home, Spring avenue. The time was passed in witty comments, games and other pleasantries, while a sumptuous supper was served by the hostess. Those making up the party were: Nelle Boucher, Helen Bolden, Anna Forquer, Mary Leckemby, Olive Lindeman, Elizabeth Leydig, Gregg Damond, Clara Rowe, Mary Siehl, Clara Bittner, Helen Wagner, Irvin Gress, Howard Gress,, James Swank, John Fullem, Norman Suder, Redolphus Bowman, Michael Hady, Guy Floto. The party was chaperoned by the teachers, Misses Lauver, Beck and Piersol. They depatred for, Meyersdale about the mid-night hour, voting Mr. and Mrs. Wetmiller most hospitable entertainers

> New B. & O. Depot.

Fertilizers and John M. Smith teer, about makes up the advertisers. Yesterday Messrs Harry M. Cook and H. C. Clutton were visitors in Pittsburg, going as representatives before the B. & O. officials. The offi-Among the locals we notice that surances were given that the first dedivision would be at Meyersdale and Rockwood. Messrs. Cook and Clutton speak very highly of consideration accorded them by the railroad people, and were very much pleased with their visit and its results. The condition of the present building, its inconveniences. and the volume of trade were all con-sidered, and all conceded that a new building was needed, and it will be erected, no doubt, as soon as the company can reach it.

The thanks of the people of Meyersdale are due the committee of the Booster club for the manner in which the matter was presented and for the results it obtained.

SAND PATCH

Thomas Bracken Sr., was given a the purpose of assisting Mr. Stein to playing and other amusing games His death occured at his home on properly celebrate the anniversary of were played, a delicious luncheon anhcod. to womanhcod. Het death occured on Monday, Jan. 22. The body was brought here on Train 2. On Monday and taken to Mt. the Jones House, kept Ice Cream." A. bed stoves, and A. T. Hamill, "below Train 2. On Monday and taken to Mt. the Jones House, kept Ice Cream." A. bed stoves for the fore of the stores of the stores of the stores are stored burdware, J. O. of her father who had preceeded her Meyers Fertilizers and John M. Smith Ye o the tomb several years. auctioneer, about She leaves to mourn their loss, her list of advertisers. to the tomb several years.

sler. undertaker.

Msr. Lydia Bowser Landis,

Irwin Shrock of Summit township,

Mrs. D. A. Floto of Meyersdale, Raymond P. Landis and Grace Matthias, Brethren church at Meyersdale by John Keegan.

Maude Tressler.

Th Johns

|                                                   | are improved; $3,000,000 for state-aid                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Esq. W. H. Hays of Beuchly street.     | the South Side, last Saturday. He is    | his birth. It was a genuine surprise  | was served at 11 o'clock. There                             |
|---------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                   | roads and maintenance; $500,000 for                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | was confined to his his home several   | survived by his widow and several       | to Mr. Stein and was greatly enjoyed  | were many valuable presents received.                       |
| on Saturday night. The members                    | the purchase of toll roads and toil                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | days last week by an attack of asthma. | children.                               | by him as well as those present.      | Those who were present are as fol-                          |
| of the Sec. Division Class surely en-             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | He has recovered sufficiently, how-    | Funeral services were held at the       | The evening was spent in playing      | lows: Mr. and Mrs. James Kerrigan,                          |
| joyed one pleasant evening.                       | The department will ask the legis-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | ever, to be at the office and deal out |                                         | various games, and several piano sel- | Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kelly, Mr. and                           |
| Mrs. John Poorbaugh and young                     | lature for a township bonus deficien-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | justice to the offenders against the   | Fr. Brady, after which the remains      | ections were rendered by Miss Velma   | Mrs. Wm. Cannon and family. Misses                          |
| daughter of Corrigansville, Md., are              | cy for the years 1912, 1913 and 1914,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | law.                                   | were taken to Westernport, Md., for     | Stein, and oysters, ice cream, cake   | Annie Garletz, Jennie Garletd, Vesta                        |
| visitors with relatives here this week.           | amounting to $1,350,000, and also for                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                        | interment. R. Reich was the under-      | and coffee were served by Mrs. Stein. | Sharp, Emma Stone, Annie Kelly, Eliz-                       |
| Chas. Love and George Ackerman,                   | all of the automibile license fees                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | caller at the home of his brother, Dr. | taker in charge.                        | A goodly numbed of useful and beauti- | abeth Habel, Margaret Habel, Nellie                         |
| have transformed the wild waters of               | which in two years will amount to                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | H. C. McKinley on Tuesday.             |                                         | ful gifts were presented to Mr. Stein | Pfieffer, Mabel Bracken, Messers,                           |
| Wills Creek into a quite convenient               | $6.000.000. The total to be asked for                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Comrade Joel Bauman of Somerset,       | An Infant.                              | which were much apreciated. The       | Mack Kelly, Charles Broom, Edward                           |
| natatorium-the first swim bein                    | amounts to $24,850,000.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | was a very welcome caller at this      | Azie Thomas, aged 11 days, died         | guests departed for their homes at a  | Stone, Wm. Rarrah, John Bittner, Ja-                        |
| "swam" on Monday with a zero ther-                | and the second                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | office today.                          | at the residence on Keystone street,    | late hour, wishing him many happy     | cob Bittner, John Habel Jr., Frank                          |
| mometer.                                          | Garrett from last Week.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Miss Nellie Kocher and Mr. Oscar       | Monday, Jan. 22, and was buried on      |                                       | Keeper, Harold Ravenscroft, Simon                           |
| Everybody cordially invited to try                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | White of Akron, O., were married in    | Wednesday at the Union cemetery,        |                                       | Baughtman, A. A. Sharp, Mr. Hugh.                           |
| out the latest addition to our vicini-            | Patients at Hospital.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | that city recently. The couple were    | conducted by R. Reich, undertaker.      |                                       | Mrs. Ailce Bear, was a Meyersdale                           |
| ty's attractions.                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | former residents of Meyersdale and     | Basket-ball.                            |                                       | shopper on Saturday.                                        |
| Marion Leydig, on Monday night                    | I was a was for the exercise                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | well known in the city. Their friends  |                                         | The assignments of members of the     | Mac Kelly, was in town Saturday                             |
| entertained Geo. R. Cook and wife and             | where she will undergo treatment                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | here extend congratulations            | Last Tuesday evening the Tulips         | Senate and House to standing com-     | on very important business.                                 |
| their guest. Mr. La Fevre of York, Pa.            | Where she will diddigo double                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                        | and the Alpha Five pulled off a very    | mittees, were announced at Harris-    | Get your cowbells ready boys for                            |
| C. W. Bittner of Meyersdale, Sun-                 | Shrock was accompanied by her hus-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                        | exciting game of basket-ball in the     | burg on Tuesday, and they show the    | you will need them in a few days                            |
| died with his parents.                            | band and mother, Mrs. James Ken-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                        | Boy Scout's hall. The features of the   | following assignments for the mem-    | Mr. A. A. Sharp and family, were                            |
| 1                                                 | nal of Hyndman.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                        | game was the playing of Martin of       | bers from this county:                | visiting friends in Salisbury Sunday.                       |
| Summer Garden.                                    | Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bowlley took                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                        | the Alpha Five. We append the re-       | Senator J. W. Endsley-Agriculture,    | Miss Mary Beal, was visiting                                |
| Tomorrow at 4:15 the great and only               | their daughter Ivadene to the Alle-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                        | sult.                                   | appropriations, forestry, mines and   | friends in Sand Patch for a few days                        |
| Rome, the children's magician will                | gheny hospital Cumberland, Md., Mon-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                        | Tulip-21. Alpha Five-22.                | mining, public roads and highways,    | last week.                                                  |
| give a childrens matinee, all magic               | day morning, to be operated upon for                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                        | Kelly r.f Thomas                        | and chairman of the railroads com-    | Mr. Edward Stone, was a Meyers-                             |
| and laugh for the school folks. Mr.               | appendicites. The last reports both                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                        | Tipton l.g Thomas                       | mittee                                | dale visitor Saturday night. It appears                     |
| Rome has made millions of school                  | patients were resting well.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | WATCHES                                | Daugherty c Martin                      | Representative L o h r — Agriculture  | that Mr. Stone has a girl on Broad-                         |
| children laugh and shout with his                 | patients neve repeting need                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                        | Shardt l.g Scott                        |                                       |                                                             |
| marvelous tricks. Admission 8 cents.              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Watches that have been left for re-    | Harding r.g Thomas                      | education, legislative and apportion- | Fine sleighing up this way for all                          |
|                                                   | MALD. W. AA. MAANDA                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                        |                                         | ment, public buildings.               | the rain we have had.                                       |
| Biggest event of the Season-Mil-                  | from Baltimore, Md., where she was                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | been here over a year will be sold     | It will pay you to lay in your Sum-     | Representative Speicher-A g r i-      |                                                             |
| ler & Collins White Goods Sale-Feb.               | taking treatment at the St. Agnes                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | after January 20th.                    | mer Supply of White Goods at Miller     | culture, congressione' apportionment, | Don't forget the Dates of Miller                            |
| 1, 2, and 3.                                      | (Continued to Eighth page.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | T. W. Gurley the Jeweler.              | & Collins Sale.                         | education, game, and public roads.    | & Collins White Sale,-Feb. 1-2-3                            |
| 1, by drive of state and the second second second | I and the second s | the summinger and should be the state  | and | 1                                     | I was a start of the start of the start of the start of the |
|                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                        |                                         |                                       |                                                             |
|                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                        |                                         |                                       |                                                             |
|                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                        |                                         |                                       |                                                             |
|                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                        |                                         |                                       |                                                             |
|                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                        |                                         |                                       |                                                             |