WILSON ORDERS ARMING OF SHIPS

Extra Session of Congress Is Called to Convene in Washington on April 16

WORK ON DEFENSE SPEEDED

President Acts on Strength of Opinions Against Old Laws and With Assurance That Nation is Solidly Behind Him.

Washington.—President Wilson from a sick bed ordered the arming of American merchant ships against Germany's ruthless submarine warfare.

The decision came following the action of the Senate in revising its rules to permit prompt action on important questions and the submission of formal action on important questions and the submission of formal opinions by Secretary Lansing and Attorney General Gregory that he has the power to arm merchantmen without action by Congress.
