On Tuesday, William Roy Snyder and Miss Margaret Miller, both of Sand Patch, received license to marry at Cumberland, Md.

Dr. and Mrs. Regar, of Buckman, W. Va., who had been visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Philson, have gone to Atlantic City for a short visit.

WANTED—Agents to sell best Shock Absorbers for Ford cars. Make them ride as easy as Packords or money back. Sell on sight. Guaranteed for life. Address C. C. Wehn, Johnstown, Pa.

The many friends of Mrs. O. H. Helmond will be pleased to learn of, and rejoice with her over the arrival of a ten pound boy, at her home near Seattle, Washington. Mrs. Helmond was formerly Miss Annie Clarke, of Meyersdale, and made her home here with Mrs. Susan Christener, and has many friends in this section.

On next Sunday morning the members of the G. A. R. Post will leave for Fritz at 9 A. M., where Memorial services will be held, and from there go to Summit Mill and St. Paul, as announced in last week's Commercial. This is a change in program from former years but was rendered necessary by other meetings scheduled for St. Paul.

The Carnival.

Featuring trained wild animal circus, consisting of trained lions, leopards, elephants, bears, dogs, ponies and goats; Kentucky Minstrels composed of 18 all star colored performers, singers, dancers and funny comedians.

A big circus side show, freaks of nature, and curiosities from all parts of the world. The Crazy House where you enjoy a good hearty laugh.

All undesirable features have been eliminated, making this one of the classiest aggregations on the road.

There will be a Patriotic Concert on Sunday evening at 8:30.

Rally Night.

Co. C of the 10th Regiment has about 120 members but they still lack 30 of being full strength.

Next Saturday evening will be Rally night to secure enough recruits to fill the Co. to maximum strength. This will be the last chance to enlist before registration, and those who enlist then do not need to register.

Turn out full and assist the members to secure the full quota.

Again you would find it much pleasanter in service with persons you know than among strangers. Should you be drafted, you may be assigned to some place which would be anything but congenial, and among strangers.

Turn out on Rally night. Listen to the music and see who volunteers.

Woodmen's Memorial Day, Sunday, June 3.

Next Sunday, June 3rd, the M. W. of A. will meet at their hall at 1:30 p. m., leave the hall at 2 p. m., and march to the Union Cemetery, headed by the Meyersdale Band, where they will hold ritualistic services, after which they will strew flowers over the graves of deceased brothers, and listen to an address by an able speaker. The public is cordially invited to be present at these services.

Fraternally,
Committee.

Miss Alice Beal.

Miss Alice Beal, a former resident of Meyersdale, but lately of Lanacoring, Md., died at her home in that city, on May 28th, aged 61 years. Her body was brought here and taken in charge by R. Reich, undertaker. Services were conducted by Rev. Steele of the M. E. Church, and burial in the Union cemetery beside the graves of her father and mother.

Mrs. Ambrose Deal.

Mrs. Deal was born near Salisbury, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glotzfely, and at the date of her death, May 25, she was 69 years, 9 months and 16 days of age.

She is survived by two sons, Lester, of Salisbury and Daniel of Pittsburgh, and three daughters, Miss Hannah, at home; Mrs. Edward Reitz, of Everett; Mrs. Rachel Griffith of Frostburg, Md., and six grand children.

The funeral was held on Monday in the Reformed church of which she had been a member for 56 years, by Rev. Wilson, assisted by Rev. E. E. Oney, followed by burial in the I. O. O. F. cemetery at Salisbury, conducted by J. W. Price, undertaker.

Ross Livengood.

Ross Livengood died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Livengood, in Salisbury, on Saturday, May 26th.

Mr. Livengood was born in Salisbury and was aged 34 years, 5 months and 10 days at the time of his death.

He was united in marriage with Miss Callitole, of Missouri, who survives him as do two brothers and one sister.

Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday at the home of his parents, by Rev. Waltz, followed by interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery in Salisbury, conducted by W. C. Price, undertaker.

To Remodel Church.

The Zion Lutheran Church, of Meyersdale, has decided to immediately carry out plans adopted last summer for improving the church edifice. These improvements include the building of a new parsonage, and a new Sunday School annex. The contemplated improvements will cost about $16,000.

ST. PAUL.

Mrs. Clarissa Yutzy, of Akron, Ohio, was a visitor at the home of her brother, H. G. Lepley, one day last week. She left for her home on Thursday of the same week.

Communion was celebrated in the Reformed Church on Sunday, at which time the Church was re-consecrated. During the year a new heating plant was installed and the interior was repainted. The work was completed last week. The indebtedness of about $500 was all paid or subscribed leaving the edifice free of debt. The Lutheran church was at the disposal of the Reformed people for two Sundays, while their own building was being renovated.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Beals, a son.

Mr. Weaver, and wife, of Lancaster, Pa., are spending the summer with their daughter, Mrs. L. N. Wilson, at the parsonage.

Erma Wisler, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wisler recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. Her friends will be glad that she is improving.

H. Conrad Knierniem.

Mr. Knierniem was born in Meyersdale, and at the time of his death, on Wednesday, was 53 years, 5 months and 23 days of age.

In 1888 he married Miss Pauline Tilp, and they continued to reside here.

He is survived by his widow and three children: Mrs. Marion Schroyer, of Rockwood and Paul and Pauline at home, and one sister, Mrs. Annie Rishel, of York.

He was a member of the M. W. of A. and the Knights of Malta, and an Elder in Amity Reformed Church of Meyersdale.

He had been foreman for the Meyersdale planing mill company for several years and was esteemed and respected by the employers and employees.

He was a consistent Christian, an affectionate parent and an honest, conscientious worker.

Funeral services will be conducted at his late residence on Broadway on Friday afternoon by his pastor, Rev. Dr. Truxal, assisted by Rev. France, followed by interment in the Union Cemetery, at which place the ritualistic services of the order will take place. W. C. Price will officiate as undertaker.

Enlisted.

Since our last report, Co. C has enlisted six more men from Meyersdale, which makes a total of over 30 recruits from here. The names of these last ones are Lawrence Hartle, James Matthews, William Lenhart, Robert Feggie, Homer Shaffer and Robert A. Floto.

Married.
